Museum Junior Friends to Give Party Opening Sculpture Show

THE JUNIOR COMMITTEE of the Friends of City Art Museum will give a dance and buffet Friday evening to mark the opening of "7 for 67," an exhibition of works by contemporary American sculptors.

The party will begin at 9 p.m. and continue until 12:30 a.m. with dancing to the Second Coming music of Bob Kuban and his In Men. Skip Straus will give a light show. In addition to the informal buffet, refreshments will be served.

Admission will be $25 a couple or $15 a person. The price includes a year's membership in the Friends. Black ties are optional.

The seven sculptors in the show, Christo, Mark di Suvero, Donald Judd, Claes Oldenburg, Lucas Samaras, George Segal and Ernest Trova, will be guests at the opening. The purpose of the opening is to encourage interest in the museum among young St. Louisans.

The exhibition will be open to the public from Sunday through Nov. 12. A symposium on the works will be held at 2:30 p.m. Sunday with Christo, Di Suvero, Judd and Trova participating.

Miss Emily S. Rauh, curator of the museum and organizer of "7 for 67," will lecture on the show to members of the Friends on Oct. 11 at 2 p.m.

More information may be obtained by calling the Friends' office at Parkview 1-0067.

MEMBERS of the Junior Women's Chamber of Commerce Inc. will hold a membership meeting Oct. 5 at 8 p.m. at the Chase-Park Plaza Hotel. The public may attend. The civic organization sponsors a fund drive each year for St. Louis State Hospital.
