Six-Week Mission:

Week 1: Self Portraits

Playing with lines, shapes, colours, shading, and perspective.

Looking online or in magazines at different ways of drawing faces.

Making a final best drawing of your own face.

Curator's Tip: Keep your art piece safe. 'Fix' any charcoal.

Week 2: Landscapes

Playing in the garden or park to find out what's so cool about landscapes.

Looking at the different shapes, patterns and textures in landscapes.

Making a piece of landscape art including some real natural items like leaves.

Curator's Tip: You could try framing a picture for display.

Week 3: Animals

Playing with materials to make a cool animal sculpture.

Looking at pictures of animals and animals in the garden or pets.

Making your best sculpture - with moving parts if you can.

Curator's Tip: What will amaze your audience?

Week 4: Abstracts

Playing with a big piece of paper, dripping paint all over it to make a drawing.

Looking online to find out the meaning of abstract and some examples.

Making an original piece of abstract art.

Curator's Tip: Don't worry if people have different reactions to your work – that's good!

Week 5: The Show

Set up a show for family, friends and neighbours. It could be in the garden, inside or even on the street itself if it's safe.

It could be an exhibition in your bedroom. Find a way to make it exciting and dramatic for the guests. You could make tickets and a programme.

Curator's Tip: Decide if your art is for sale or not, and for what price.

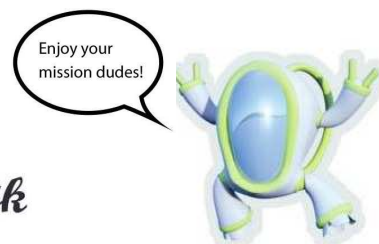

Week 6: Digitise your Artwork

Make a Caboodle of your art pieces and write descriptions.

Caboodler's Tip: You need at least five photos to publish your pictures with short descriptions on Caboodle.org.uk

Museum Mission: Go to a gallery or find some public art. If you have permission take photographs of what you find and include at least three cool facts for Caboodle.
