Six-Week Mission:

Week 1: Play

Playing with your favourite action figures, dolls or teddies.

Looking for cool places to put the toys and take photos of them.

Making a Caboodle of your toy photos with descriptions.

Curator's Tip: Take pictures of your toys in a good light.

Week 2: Super Powers

Playing with the in-role idea of having a super power.

Looking at the super powers of cartoon heroes online or in comics and magazines.

Making a drawing of yourself as the hero with a costume.

Curator's Tip: Design a costume that suits the super power.

Week 3: An Outfit

Playing with varied materials of different shapes, sizes and colours.

Looking at the various outfits that heroes have.

Making your very own super hero costume

Curator's Tip: If you can't make a full outfit, make a mask, badge or a cape.

Week 4: A Collection Mission

Playing in role as the Super-Caboodler!

Looking online to find out what re-enactors are and what they do.

Making a plan for a Caboodle mission – you could even draw up the plan.

Curator's Tip:

Week 5:

Playing with a camera to make a photo story.

Looking at comics to see the way that they are set out and what the stories are about.

Making a cool comic showing an adventure of the Super-Caboodler!

Curator's Tip: If you don't like drawing you could use photos in the comic.

Week 6: Caboodle It!

Make a Caboodle of your adventures, designs, costumes and artwork including descriptions.

Caboodler's Tip: You need at least five photos to publish your pictures with short descriptions on Caboodle.org.uk

Museum Mission: Now its time for you to do the museum mission you planned. If you have permission take photographs of what you find and include at least three cool facts for Caboodle.

Enjoy your mission dudes!
