Six-Week Mission:

Week 1: Robo-boodle

Playing CAREFULLY with the robotic things you can find in your house or town.

Looking with Mum or Dad to see if any things in the house have robotic parts or LOOK like robot machines.

Making a Caboodle of all the robotic things you have found.

Curator's Tip: Return any objects to their original home and always get permission from the owner if you are going to handle the item.

Week 2: Invent a Robot

Playing with art materials and design ideas.

Looking online, in books, magazines, comics and TV for robot ideas.

Making an invention sheet with 5 different robot ideas, each with a job.

Curator's Tip: Give your robot a name and identity.

Week 3: Make a Robot

Playing with your invention ideas.

Looking for the best materials to make your ultimate robot.

Making the ultimate robot.

Curator's Tip: You could use bits of things that already exist. Like radios etc, but be careful.

Caboodle

Week 4: RoboCaboodler

Playing with different types of materials and colours.

Looking online to find examples of Robot outfits from films and shows.

Making your very own robot outfit to become the RoboCaboodler!

Curator's Tip: You can make ordinary items look cool by painting them – i.e. egg cartons.

Week 5: The Robots

Playing with your friends to make a living Robot Caboodle.

Looking at the cool things that your friends have designed and made.

Making a performance as the robots that someone can photograph for Caboodle.

Curator's Tip: You could arrange yourself like a living mechanical design. Or how about combining to become robot?

Week 6:

Make a Caboodle of all of your Robot adventures including descriptions.

Caboodler's Tip: You need at least five photos to publish your pictures with short descriptions on Caboodle.org.uk

Museum Mission: Go to a museum that contains instruments or memorabilia. You could also go to a concert. If you have permission take photographs of what you find and include at least three cool facts for Caboodle.

Enjoy your mission dudes!
