

See pages 10–15 in the Daisy Girl Scout Activity Book for activities that provide fun ways for girls to gain a better understanding of the Girl Scout Promise and Law.

When Daisy Girl Scouts have learned the Girl Scout Promise, they may receive the Girl Scout Promise Center, a patch that can be placed right in the center of their Daisy tunics. For learning each part of the Girl Scout Law, girls may receive a Daisy Learning Petal. These are placed around the Promise Center in any order determined by each girl. Daisy Girl Scouts may earn the Learning Petals in any sequence, but they should show some understanding of a concept in order to receive the award. The petal colors and the part of the Law each represents are shown below:

Light Blue for honest and fair

Yellow for friendly and helpful

Spring Green for considerate and caring

Red for courageous and strong

Orange for responsible for what I say and do

Purple for respect myself and others

Magenta for respect authority

Green for use resources wisely

Rose for make the world a better place

Violet for be a sister to every Girl Scout
