

The Palm Beach Civic Club is a non-profit corporation whose members consist of the property owners in the sub division of Palm Beach located in West Galveston between Pirates Beach and Pirates Beach West. The Palm Beach community includes the streets of Vista, Duncan Way, El Lago, Las Palmas, Miramar, Oleander, Surf, and W. Beach

The purpose of this club is explained in its 1960 articles of incorporation:

“The purpose for which the corporation is organized is benevolent, to-wit: to promote the welfare of the community and its citizens through active, constructive projects conducted through the organized efforts of the citizens of the community constituting its membership, to promote, provide, and further develop recreational facilities for the people of the community and surrounding area, and In connection therewith, the provisions and maintenance of buildings, equipment, supplies and facilities for the orderly functioning of such organization. “