

Thanks, Dad

You always took the time to make me feel important. You taught me about life and love, and we had fun along the way. There were times we laughed and times we cried - and times when we were silent - but all the times we spent together are moments I'll always treasure.

Happy Father's Day!