Dear Dr. Kenar,

RE: IPRA Conference proposal

Now that global nuclear war becomes increasingly possible, it is necessary to take urgent measures to stop and reverse the current fatal development. Scientifically, it is necessary to start reforming modern science, philosophy and religion first, because, as an analysis shows, it is mainly the crisis of those three spheres that is underlying the present general ideological crisis of civilization.

Providentially, I have already started such a reform on my own, achieved phenomenal results and developed a general methodology for the reform (see Enclosure). To proceed with that mission on a large scale, it is necessary to engage the whole scientific community and establish some international coordinating center, THE WORLD REFORM CENTER (WRC), that would guide, coordinate and finance the reform the world over. Such a sweeping reform would ensure the best solution to all world problems and, in particular, in all spheres mentioned in the current list of sessions suggested by IPRA.

In this connection I propose to name the program of the 25th IPRA General Conference as follows:

IDEOLOGICAL CRISIS OF CIVILIZATION AND ITS SOLUTION

The Conference would have the following sessions:

1. Reform of Science
2. Reform of Philosophy
3. Reform of Politics
4. Reform of Economics
5. Reform of Religion
6. Reform of Education
7. World Reform Center (WRC)

The conference should be aimed at establishing the WRC to be sponsored by the IPRA or the university. Within a year or two, it would attract good donations and become independent and profitable. At the Conference, I would make reports at four or five sessions dealing with science, politics, economics, WRC and perhaps philosophy as well. The Conference should elect me President of the WRC for two years, at least, while the university, or the IPRA should be ready to provide me with the proper living conditions, the university-professor salary and the necessary assistance in organizing the WRC, its staff and functioning. Would you please discuss this my proposal.

Yours sincerely,
