

Oration to Satan

I hereby invoke you Satan, opposer; you, to whom the common man refers to as "The Devil". I call you forth and humbly request your presence for (fill in) purposes. I ask you to fulfill that which I have asked you for. In return for this I will make offerings to you as much and as well as possible, next to that you have my loyalty as a follower/ friend/ companion. I leave the way you will answer me up to you and will await your reply and/ or results. Amen. (4x)
