

LARGE METEOR FALLS NORTHEAST OF CITY

Red and Blue Light Brightens Sky
For 20 Seconds

El Pasoans today reported seeing a large meteor flashing through the skies northeast of the College of Mines early last night.

Observers at Roswell, N. M., reported the meteor passed to the southwest.

The red and blue light brightened the sky for approximately 20 seconds.

Clipped By:

jamespcarrion
Sat, Nov 10, 2018