

David and Saul - July 11

Parents: Saul pursued David unrelentless, yet when the tables were turned and David could have ended Saul's life he chose a different path. David wanted to obey and please God above all else. Let's see what we can learn from his example.

Read: 1 Samuel 24:1-11, 16-22 David Spares Saul's Life

24 After Saul returned from pursuing the Philistines, he was told, "David is in the Desert of En Gedi." 2 So Saul took three thousand able young men from all Israel and set out to look for David and his men near the Crag of the Wild Goats.

3 He came to the sheep pens along the way; a cave was there, and Saul went in to relieve himself. David and his men were far back in the cave. 4 The men said, "This is the day the Lord spoke of when he said to you, 'I will give your enemy into your hands for you to deal with as you wish.'" Then David crept up unnoticed and cut off a corner of Saul's robe.

5 Afterward, David was conscience-stricken for having cut off a corner of his robe. 6 He said to his men, "The Lord forbid that I should do such a thing to my master, the Lord's anointed, or lay my hand on him; for he is the anointed of the Lord." 7 With these words David sharply rebuked his men and did not allow them to attack Saul. And Saul left the cave and went his way.

8 Then David went out of the cave and called out to Saul, "My lord the king!" When Saul looked behind him, David bowed down and prostrated himself with his face to the ground. 9 He said to Saul, "Why do you listen when men say, 'David is bent on harming you'? 10 This day you have seen with your own eyes how the Lord delivered you into my hands in the cave. Some urged me to kill you, but I spared you; I said, 'I will not lay my hand on my lord, because he is the Lord's anointed.' 11 See, my father, look at this piece of your robe in my hand! I cut off the corner of your robe but did not kill you. See that there is nothing in my hand to indicate that I am guilty of wrongdoing or rebellion. I have not wronged you, but you are hunting me down to take my life.

16 When David finished saying this, Saul asked, "Is that your voice, David my son?" And he wept aloud. 17 "You are more righteous than I," he said. "You have treated me well, but I have treated you badly. 18 You have just now told me about the good you did to me; the Lord delivered me into your hands, but you did not kill me. 19 When a man finds his enemy, does he let him get away unharmed? May the Lord reward you well for the way you treated me today. 20 I know that you will surely be king and that the kingdom of Israel will be established in your hands. 21 Now swear to me by the Lord that you will not kill off my descendants or wipe out my name from my father's family."

22 So David gave his oath to Saul. Then Saul returned home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

Discuss: Fill in the blanks. Saul took _____ (three) thousand men to look for _____ (David) and his men. Instead of Saul finding David, David found Saul in a _____ (cave). What did David do to Saul? He cut off a corner of Saul's robe without him even noticing. How did David feel after he did that? David felt bad because he did that to the leader that God had chosen. What did David command his men to do? He told them not to attack Saul even though that's what they wanted to do.

After Saul left the cave David came out and told Saul what had just happened. How did Saul respond? He cried and said that David had treated him well but he had treated David badly. Who was David trying to please the most by his words and actions--God, Saul, or his men? David wanted to please God above all. Who should we live to please? God

Key Point: We Live to Please God

We Live to (Point to yourself and others, then give two thumbs up)
