For the current fiscal year, Covenant is operating under an annual budget of $4.1 million. Approximately 59% of members contribute to the general fund. Throughout our history, we have had a Session and Diaconate that are strongly committed to sound financial principles. As of March 31, 2017, Covenant showed approximately $38 million in fixed (non-cash) assets, approximately $2.2 million in cash assets, and bank debt of approximately $5.1 million (which has subsequently been reduced to less than $4.7 million).

The following oath shall be administered to all members of the grand jury, including the foreperson:

You as members of the grand jury do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will diligently inquire, and true presentment make, of all offenses given you in charge, or otherwise brought to your knowledge, committed or triable within this county; that you will keep secret the state's counsel, the other jurors' and your own; that you will present no person from hatred, malice, or ill will, nor leave any unpresented through fear, favor, or affection, or for any reward, or the promise or hope thereof, but that you will present the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, according to the best of your skill and understanding. So help you God.

Why so much secrecy?

McNair case won't be reopened

Jun 18, 2010

Elizabeth Merrill/ESPN Senior Writer

A former Nashville police officer's request to have the Steve McNair case reopened has been denied.

Vincent Hill told ESPN.com on Thursday night that he received word from a three-member Davidson County grand jury panel that there was insufficient proof to move forward and present his 32-page complaint to a full grand jury.

Hill, who spent 4½ years on the Nashville force and resigned in 2006, has disputed the police's ruling that McNair, the former Tennessee Titans quarterback was murdered by Sahel Kazemi, who then turned the gun on herself. Hill self-published a book called "Playbook to a Murder" and has spent the past 11 months conducting interviews and trying to debunk police findings that Kazemi murdered McNair in a downtown Nashville condo in the early morning hours of July 4, 2009.

On June 11, the panel heard a 30-minute presentation from Hill on what he described as "multiple errors" in the police investigation. The former Metro Nashville traffic police officer says he was informed of the grand jury's decision Thursday in a letter from foreman Richard Hillenbrand.

Reached Thursday night, Hillenbrand said he couldn't comment on any decisions because the report is sealed.

"Win, lose or draw, it's historic to just get it at that stage," Hill said. "Obviously, they thought there was something worth hearing just to even listen to the case.

"I would say that it's not over at this point."

Davidson County District Attorney Torry Johnson said in a news release that theories relating to the McNair investigation are not backed up by facts.

Elizabeth Merrill writes for ESPN.com. The Associated Press contributed to this report.

REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY
APRIL 2010 TERM

THEORETICAL QUESTION: WOULD A RIGGED GRAND JURY BE NECESSARY IF POLICE EVIDENCE WAS "ROCK-SOLID" WITH "NOTHING TO HIDE?"

JOHN JAY HOOKER, JR. WAS DENIED BY SEVERAL GRAND JURY PANELS BUT HE KEPT MAKING APPEALS UNTIL HE PASSED AWAY.

GRAND JURY FINAL REPORT

WE, the Davidson County Grand Jurors for the April 2010 term, submit the following report in a summary of the last three months we have served. It has been an honor to serve under the auspices of the Honorable Mark Fishburn. We, as a Grand Jury, believe that through the process, we have gained insight into the structure of our judicial system, and have gained an increased respect for all those who work hard to make it flow smoothly.

In accordance with Tennessee Rules of Criminal Procedure, the Grand Jury deliberated upon 978 cases over the past three months. We presented the court with 885 True Bills, 3 No True Bills, 90 Sealed True Bills, and 0 Sealed No True Bills. We also had the opportunity to create panels that heard two closed cases concerning John J. Hooker and Steve McNair.

John J. Hooker: Mr. John J. Hooker requested an opportunity to present his case concerning his belief in the criminal intent of the state Supreme Court judges. The committee discussed the issues raised and did not find enough evidence of criminal activity to present the case to the entire Grand Jury. The panel appreciated Mr. Hooker's concerns about the impact of actions on the Tennessee Constitution, but decided that that was not a matter for the Grand Jury to consider.

Steve McNair: The Grand Jury was asked to hear information to reopen the Steve McNair case. Mr. Hill wanted to present this information, though he declined to ask for an indictment. He shared with the committee his views of the case but lacked evidence to support his views. Questions raised by Mr. Hill were cleared by evidence gathered by the Metro Police Department. The panel felt that this was a case that should not be heard by the other members of the Grand Jury.

Serving under the esteemed leadership of Grand Jury Foreman Mr. Richard Hillenbrand was a wonderful opportunity for us all. His detailed understanding of the law and the way he communicated or explained cases to the rest of the Jury was very helpful. We feel that his vast knowledge of the law and of law enforcement was very useful to us all. He did an excellent job of keeping us on task while still giving us ample time for questions and comments.

We, the Grand Jury, would like to thank the following individuals for taking the time out of their busy schedules to provide us with information that helped us better perform our judicial duties:

Metro Police Department Liaison Gene Donegan: Gene was wonderful at presenting cases to the Jury because he was clear and concise. The way he

WHO ELSE SERVED ON THE 3-PERSON "STEVE MCNAIR" GRAND JURY PANEL THAT DENIED A REQUEST TO RE-OPEN THE "STEVE MCNAIR" MURDER INVESTIGATION?

DID THIS "RICHARD HILLENBRAND" SERVE AS THE STEVE MCNAIR GRAND JURY FOREMAN?

"The evidence clearly points to a murder-suicide. We follow the evidence, that's it. If the evidence pointed to a double homicide we would have been all over it. There are some that argue it's a double homicide, but other than speculation and guess work they have nothing to support their theory. Just because they continue to repeat it, doesn't make it so. The investigators who were involved in this are highly experienced in homicide investigation. Those on the outside making these claims have absolutely no experience in investigation, let alone homicide investigation. As in all homicide investigations, there will be unanswered questions that have absolutely nothing to do with what actually occurred."
