Mr. Brad Gioia,

Why did you write a letter to the MBA community on October 20th saying you contacted the police on a former MBA parent? If you contacted the police, why is there no police report in the MNPd records division? Why did you say the former parent's concerns "seem entirely unrelated to MBA," when you should be aware that at least two MBA faculty members are part of a continuing child-molester cover-up campaign?

During the MBA spaghetti supper, four police officers came to our home to arrest Austin to shut him up. Why did you ban Austin from the MBA campus? You know Austin shouldn't be banned. The army of boys Austin has coached since the 80s also know the banning is ridiculous. Everyone who knows Austin knows he loves and cares about kids. Yet for simply writing an email, Austin was thrown in jail for 18 days without an appearance before the night commissioner. No police report. No hearing. 18 days in jail.

I am disappointed you did not apologize to my children yesterday as Austin requested. Instead, he is back in court before Judge Cheryl Blackburn this morning.

In an abundance of caution, protected information is REDACTED in submission to Attorney Larry Crain's permanent injunction request granted on 9/24/2018.

ARE JOHN INGRAM, BRAD GIOIA, JIM BACHMANN AND OTHERS INVOLVED IN A "MANN ACT" FEDERAL CRIME COVER-UP?

THE WHITE-SLAVE TRAFFIC ACT (MANN ACT)

2027. MANN ACT

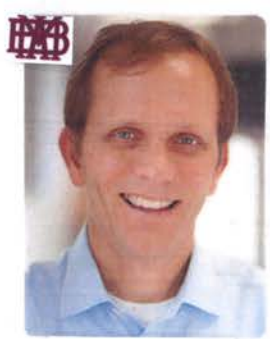

NO STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS FOR SEX ABUSE OF CHILDREN

Cases arising under the Mann Act, 18 U.S.C. § 2421 et seq., are investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and are referred directly to the appropriate United States Attorneys. The Child and Exploitation and Obscenity Section of the Criminal Division is responsible for supervision of the Act.

Sections 2421 to 2423 of the Act set forth several offenses including the offense of knowingly transporting any individual, male or female, in interstate or foreign commerce or in any territory or possession of the United States for the purpose of prostitution or sexual activity which is a criminal offense under the federal or state statute or local ordinance. Section 2423 is concerned solely with the transportation of minors under the age of 18 years and provides for an enhanced penalty. This section should generally be used when minors are victims, although the other two sections also cover minors ("any individual").

Section 2423 was amended on February 6, 1978 by Pub.L. No. 95-225, on November 7, 1986, by Pub.L. No. 99-628, and again on September 13, 1994 by the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act. The legislative history of these amendments demonstrates Congress' special concern with the sexual exploitation of minors. Thus, cases falling under these statutes which involve minors as victims should be given special priority.

In United States v. Holte, 236 U.S. 140 (1915), the Supreme Court held that under certain circumstances a woman could be indictable as a conspirator in her own transportation. However, in Gebardi v. United States, 287 U.S. 112 (1932), the Court, while not disavowing Holte, held that a woman who merely assents to her transportation, without taking a more active role in promoting it is not guilty of a substantive offense under these statutes. The Court also held that such a woman cannot be charged with conspiracy, and that where the only coconspirator is the man who transported her or caused her transportation, a conspiracy charge against him must fall also. Gebardi has been cited and followed in more recent lower court decisions. This strongly suggests that it may be difficult to sustain a prosecution against a transportee "victim" for the substantive offense or for conspiracy, or a conspiracy case against a sole coconspirator who was the transporter, unless the "victim" was active in promoting the transportation and not merely acquiescent.

I hope you go to jail, as clearly, you do not understand what was made clear to you when you LOST the lawsuit.

You're both an blasphemmer, and an idiot.
You are NOT supposed to contact, email or otherwise;
and yet this mandate is once again, LOST on you.

REMOVE this email address from your cauldron of hate.
I will be reporting you to the authorities.

P. S. NOBODY cares about your silly, psycho rants and links of hate and misinformation.

I predict jail will be in your future.

This "jail threat" was made March 16th but no new arrest of Austin Davis has been made? You can report Austin Davis to Criminal Judge Cheryl Blackburn at 615-862-5940 prior to his next hearing on July 12, 2019. Judge Blackburn has the power to immediately arrest Austin Davis if the law has been broken.

17 STUDENTS SEXUALLY MOLESTED?

Mike Sloan's Child Sex Abuse PCA Committee Document

No report to police.

1 I know an RUF campus pastor who is currently ministering to seventeen students who were
2 victims of child sexual abuse. Not seventeen over the life of his ministry – seventeen current
3 students in his RUF chapter. Let that sink in for a minute.

5 I know two pastors who have had their daughters sexually assaulted in the PCA churches
6 they were serving at the time. One of my best friends knows a man who was found to be 7 serially molesting his own granddaughter. This man is a long-time PCA member and has 8 been a leader in Bible Study Fellowship. I could tell you many other stories of abuse from 9 people I know personally.

11 I know of multiple cases where the PCA church did not report the abuse. One of the two 12 PCA pastors I mentioned, the elders and the pastor at the time knew about the abuser was 13 guilty of child rape but did not call the authorities. When my friend was called to come
14 pastor the church he knew something was not right in the church, but before he could figure 15 it out his own young daughter was sexually assaulted by the same abuser.

Child rape.

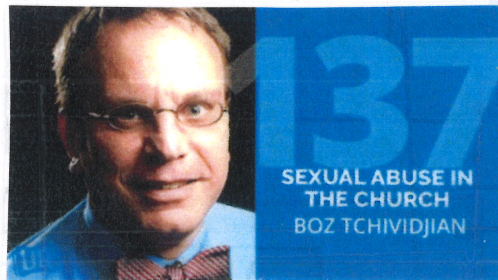

16
17 Dr. Diane Langberg told me this story personally. Several years ago the then current head of 18 woman's ministry in the PCA was talking with Dr. Langberg about child sexual abuse. She 19 said to Dr. Langberg, "I'm so glad we don't have this in the PCA." Dr. Langberg told her at 20 her next women's ministry conference to list child sexual abuse as an issue faced by women
21 and see what happens. She said don't even mention it, just list it in one of the handouts. A
22 few months later the head of women's ministry called Dr. Langberg and said, "What do I
23 do? They are coming out of the woodwork!"

Dear Jay:

Jacques Wedding Reception

I understand that you work with Phil Roach in the youth ministry. Phil was a gentleman to speak to me at BMCC on Saturday evening which I greatly appreciated. I also saw you at the same event but did not feel comfortable approaching you in person to speak with you.

As a youth minister, I am certain that you and Phil do not morally condone children being deliberately abused and hurt. Since malicious cruelties have been extended to my family with no end in sight, I would like to meet with you, Phil and others to learn and gather more facts.

I have particular interest in learning more about you and your wife's knowledge of REDACTED the "safe house" -- provided to other Covenant children, and the reason for REDACTED resignation from the diaconate.

Based upon information I have learned from the July 14, 2008 Covenant Board Minutes, I am now aware that REDACTED resigned from his officer role on the diaconate during the very same meeting that Jim Bachmann, Joe Eades and a Metro Police Detective were providing a briefing to a joint session meeting on the unwarranted police invasion of my private residence to investigate the "safety and welfare of my children."

I would like for Jim Spann, Matt Anderson, Lee Parks, Davis Hunt and Rick Jacques to also be invited to this meeting, along with Phil.

Please pass on to Phil that I do remember his family in my prayers.

I look forward to your response by Wednesday (7/18/2012) at noon.

Lexington Church Investigates After Ex-Youth Pastor Accused Of Abuse - Site Administrator - 6:47 pm - June 25, 2018

LEXINGTON, Ky. (Hey Kentucky) — In an open letter released to the public Monday, Tates Creek Presbyterian Church pastor Robert Cunningham detailed allegations of abuse against one of the church’s former clergy — and laid out a plan for the church’s future.

“It has come to our attention that Brad Waller sexually abused boys and men under his care as a pastor of TCPC,” wrote Cunningham in his address to his 1,250-member congregation and the media. “While all of this misconduct took place over a decade ago, our church leadership is nevertheless committed to handling this horrific news with utmost sincerity, urgency and transparency.”

ADDRESSING OUR PAST

A Letter from Robert Cunningham

Sunday, June 24, 2018

We have contracted with GRACE (Godly Response to Abuse in the Christian Environment) to perform an investigation of our church. The investigation will be led by Boz Tchividjian, who has emerged as a leader in a long overdue clean-up of the sexual abuse crises in the Church (the work of Boz and GRACE were recently featured in a Washington Post article that is an important read for all Evangelical Christians).

BELMONT CHURCH

Security Assessment

4/28/2019

The Belmont GRACE Survey

Dear Belmont,

This morning, I made a very important announcement (view here at midway mark). I shared how that for too long churches have been largely inept at aiding victims of sexual assault and abuse, and at providing a protective and safe environment for all its members. Certainly, these lapses were not always intentional, but the church-at-large cannot afford to hide behind excuses any longer. That is why Belmont desires to lead the way in our city, state and nation in providing a template for other churches, especially independent churches, to follow. It is time for us to set the pace and the bar high. True discipleship also means protecting our members.

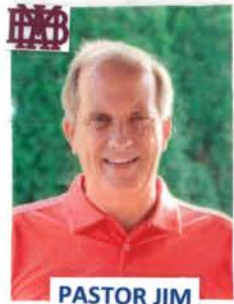

We have hired a third-party independent organization to administrate the survey and to aggregate responses while protecting the information of respondents. Click here to find out more and to take the survey.

Click here to take the survey.

Who is the Third-Party Organization?

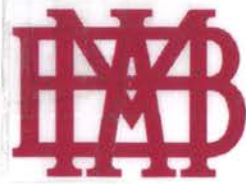

We are launching the assessment-survey in partnership with Boz Tchividjian, grandson of the late Billy Graham, and his organization, GRACE.

GRACE is an acronym for, Godly Response to Abuse in the Christian Environment.

Nashville ghostwriter sues Christian publisher over new Billy Graham biography

In an abundance of caution, the protected child molester's name is not provided in submission to Larry Crain's permanent injunction request granted on Sept 24, 2018.

HOLLY MEYER | USA TODAY NETWORK - TENNESSEE | 8:09 pm CDT May 2, 2018

Attorney Larry Crain - Obtained permanent injunction and $2.1 million judgment against Austin Davis after contested default was granted. Mr. Crain also filed $1.5 million defamation lawsuit against the mother of the Brentwood Academy alleged rape victim.

In a statement, Brentwood attorney Larry L. Crain, who is representing REDACTED called the lawsuit filed in the U.S. District Court in the Middle District of Tennessee a simple breach of contract case.

Police investigated REDACTED in October 2012 after learning that a woman said he sexually abused her between the ages of 11 and 14, Metro police spokesman Don Aaron said.

"Allegations of sexual battery were substantiated" by investigators, Aaron said.

Charges could not be filed because the statute of limitations had passed.

THE "MANN ACT" HAS NO STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS FOR CHILDREN.

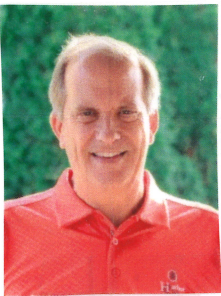

The lawsuit makes no mention of the investigation or other civil legal action related to the allegations.

Thank you for getting in touch. I haven't read the article but have heard about it.

I don't have anything to say for the record, but will tell you that the person behind it has been pursuing a vendetta against his former church for years and this story is one of the means he has used.

Having failed there, he has evidently turned his attention elsewhere.

I will also tell you that whatever private difficulties there may have been, the parties involved were reconciled and restored years ago, for which I thank God every day.

Dear Austin,

We sincerely appreciate your gracious call and your email.

However, we know you will understand that Anne is not able to reply personally or to help in your situation. Along with her speaking engagements, writing commitments, and continuing ministry responsibilities, her schedule is overflowing.

God has called her to a specific and intense ministry, and in obedience to that call she has to remain focused on the work He has given her.

Please know it has been our privilege to pray for you. As believers in Jesus Christ we have His invitation to "approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need" (Hebrews 4:16). With God nothing is impossible and when we are overwhelmed, He overshadows us (Luke 1:34-37).

May the Lord Jesus bless and keep you as you trust in Him.

"The Lord is good, A stronghold in the day of trouble; And He knows those who trust in Him." Nahum 1:7

Looking unto Jesus,
Austin Davis is grateful for the prayers, kindness and response of Ms. Sessoms.

Dear brothers and sisters,

I write to inform you that a former member, Mr. Austin Davis, has filed a lawsuit against our church, seeking damages and making a number of serious, but false allegations. You may read something in the papers tomorrow or soon thereafter about this. He has also sued the Nashville Presbytery, and the Presbyterian Church in America denomination.

Mr. Davis has made numerous complaints about our church for the last 10 or 11 years. Our best efforts to resolve these matters proved unsuccessful. We are saddened that he has taken this step but will cooperate fully with the authorities in the coming days. We will also keep you well informed as developments arise. Please keep the leadership of the church in your prayers, in particular the committee that will be handling this: Herb Kneeland, chairman; John Avery, John Bryant, and Ron Kimery. Please contact any of these men, or any of the pastors if you have questions. Thank you for your prayers!

The Office of the District Attorney General, prosecuting on behalf of the State of Tennessee, respectfully requests this Court to order the defendant from referencing counsel for the State of Tennessee as anything other than "Mister," "Miss," or "General." In previous court dates on this matter, the defendant referred to counsel for the State several times as "Bull Connor"¹ The State submits such references are inappropriate, and would serve to distract the jury from its role as the trier of fact in this matter.

Dear Nancy,

The Session of Covenant Presbyterian Church hereby provides notice that you are no longer allowed to attend our worship services or other church events. After many years of meetings, emails, and letters we regret that our differences are irreconcilable and your presence and accusations are no longer tolerable.

Because you have clearly stated that your purpose in attending is to hear a public apology from our senior pastor, and because no such apology is justified or forthcoming, we insist that you not return to the church property and worship elsewhere.

Dear Catherine,

During the July meeting of the Session your recent communication requesting an apology was discussed. It is clear that your view of events and the Session's understanding of the same events are dramatically different. In one form or another you have had serious disagreement with the leadership of Covenant Presbyterian Church for over eight years. Over the course of those years you have voiced your disagreements, the Session has looked into them, and spent many hours discussing them with you and other family members. It has long been apparent that we have a fundamentally different perspective on the issues involved. After discussion of your latest request, the Session decided that we will no longer respond to communications from you, Austin, or other family members regarding past actions. Any communication in the future from you, letters, emails, etc., should be addressed to the Clerk of the Session.

CULTIVATING WILLIS'S NASHVILLE ROOTS

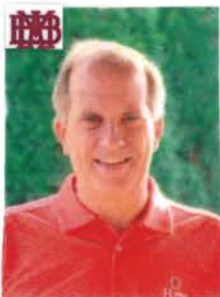

Jake Wallace joined his uncle's agency, Branford, Sharp & Co., a Willis predecessor firm, in 1954 and spent a career leading the brokerages that grew into one of the world's top insurance firms.

After a 40-year insurance career in his Nashville home, he retired and was named chairman emeritus of Willis Corp.

His experience in reinsurance placed him front and center for industry analysis after 9/11, and his broad understanding of the market won him a seat on the board of Advocat, which in March 2013 re-branded as Diversicare, a provider of post-acute care.

Wallace also was a founding director of State Volunteer Mutual Insurance Co., served as chairman of the Development Council of the University of the South, and was on the board of the American Diabetes Association, the Bank of America of Tennessee, and Junior Achievement, among other distinctive board seats.

Reflecting his major role in the civic life of Nashville, Wallace was honored as a Father of the Year by Nashville's Father's Day Council and inducted into the Tennessee Insurance Hall of Fame.

5 Convicted in Chicago Sewage Contract Bribe Scheme

By Rob Warden
November 9, 1977

A federal trial on charges surrounding an alleged $1.3 million in bribes paid to win contracts to haul Chicago's sewage ended today with the convictions of a prominent Southern businessman and four other persons.

The Southerner is Frederic B. (Fritz) Ingram, 43, the handsome and socially correct chairman of Ingram Corp. of New Orleans, one of the largest family-held enterprises in the United States. He admitted on the witness stand that he had authorized $730,000 in payoffs in the early 1970s to win contracts from Chicago's Metropolitan Sanitary District to transport treated sewage by barge and pipeline to a landfill 160 miles south of the city.

Ingram contended that he was a victim of extortion by sanitary district officials and "members of the Daley machine" - the late Mayor Richard J. Daley's Democratic organization - but the jury didn't buy it. He was found guilty of conspiracy, 15 counts of interstate travel in furtherance of

His brother, E. Bronson Ingram, 47, who brought golfer Arnold Palmer to the stand as a character witness, was acquitted of similar charges, although he admitted that he arranged a $100,000 loan to meet one alleged payoff demand from Chicago officials for a 1972 contract.

Former Ingram Corp. senior vice president William Joseph Benton, 55, testifying under a grant of immunity, was the government's star witness during the eight-week trial before U.S. District Court Judge John F. Grady, Benton told an almost incredible story of international financial maneuvers and surreptitious meetings in hotels to deliver payoffs for $43 million worth of contracts.

Defense lawyers contended that Benton fabricated much of the bribery story to escape prosecution and cover up his own illegal activities.

James Neal, a former Watergate prosecutor who defended Bronson Ingram, declared that Benson "would rather climb trees and tell lies than stay on the ground and tell the truth." Other defense lawyers called Benton a "master thief," "cheat," "Machiavelli," "artful dodger," "conniver," and "con man."

We are delighted to share that we have moved forward in breaking ground as part of the From The Hill to the Horizon Capital Campaign. We are grateful for the early support we have received from our community, including Frank Burkholder's remarkable $103M gift. You may recall that the Board has earmarked this gift to pay off all outstanding debt and pension liabilities ($25M), increase the Endowment ($48M), and fund part of the Wellness Center ($30M). We hope to raise an additional $50M to complete this ambitious and aspirational project.

MBA's mission is to build young men to be great citizens throughout not only Middle Tennessee, but also our state, the country, and the world. It is our hope that the MBA experience will equip our students with the skills, courage, and determination to make a positive impact throughout their lives. We still have important needs and aspirations for MBA and are confident our community will make them possible.

Over the course of the campaign, which ends June 30, 2023, we hope to raise an additional $120M as follows — the Endowment ($50M), Capital Projects ($50M), and the Annual Fund ($20M).

The Trinity Forum, Montgomery Bell Academy, and St. Paul Christian Academy are delighted to invite you to an Evening Conversation with Senator Ben Sasse to discuss the themes of his best-selling book Them: Why We Hate Each Other and How to Heal.

During this Evening Conversation, we will examine the growing problem of loneliness in the country — the ways in which our alienation from each other is destroying individual lives and the fabric of society — and what can be done about it.

Join us on Wednesday, April 24th from 6:00pm to 8:00pm at Montgomery Bell Academy in Nashville, TN for this not-to-be-missed conversation! Our program will begin with light appetizers and drinks at 6:00pm, followed by remarks and audience questions.

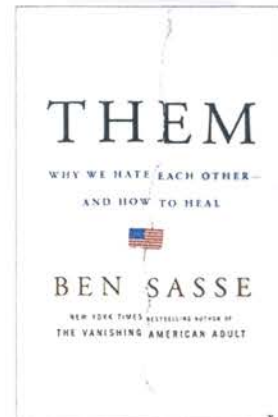

Our Featured Speaker:

Ben Sasse is a US Senator representing Nebraska. Previously, Sasse spent five years as president of Midland University, as one of the youngest college presidents in the nation. During his tenure, he revitalized the college, making it the fastest growing college in the state. Previously, Sasse taught at the University of Texas Center for Politics and Governance, and served at both the US Departments of Homeland Security and Health and Human Services. He also worked with the Boston Consulting Group and McKinsey and Company. He received his B.A. at Harvard University and M.A. from St. John's College, and later earned his M.Phil as well as a Ph.D. in American history from Yale University, where his dissertation won both the Field Prize and the George Washington Egleston Award. He also was an editor for Modern Reformation journal.
