

Sept 18, 2019 - DA Glenn Funk informed the Nashville Community Oversight Board that he wanted to cooperate with COB investigations, but he did have limitations upon his ability to share information. DA Funk announced that Asst. DA Jenny Charles was the DA-COB Liaison, and DA Funk invited General Charles to stand at his side during his comments before the COB. DA Funk did not inform the COB, citizens, and media in attendance that Asst. DA Jenny Charles had won a major legal victory against Austin Davis on Sept 17, 2019, via Judge Cheryl Blackburn. After DA Glenn Funk and Asst. DA Jenny Charles concluded their appearance before the COB, Austin Davis was provided the opportunity to inform the COB, citizens, and media about an ongoing Mann Act Federal crime "child-molester" cover-up effort which involves the Nashville Police Department. Austin Davis made a public call for the resignation of Nashville Police Chief Steve Anderson. This Mann Act Federal crime cover-up effort connected to the Ukraine continues with the support and protection of the Nashville Police Department, the Davidson County Sheriff's Office, DA Glenn Funk's Office and Judge Cheryl Blackburn. Austin Davis is grateful to the Community Oversight Board for the opportunity to "freely speak" in Nashville.

2027. MANN ACT

Cases arising under the Mann Act, 18 U.S.C. § 2421 et seq., are investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation... Sections 2421 to 2423 of the Act set forth several offenses including the offense of knowingly transporting any individual, male or female, in interstate or foreign commerce or in any territory or possession of the United States for the purpose of prostitution or sexual activity which is a criminal offense under the federal or state statute or local ordinance. Section 2423 is concerned solely with the transportation of minors under the age of 18 years and provides for an enhanced penalty. This section should generally be used when minors are victims, although the other two sections also cover minors ("any individual").

18 U.S. Code § 3283. Offenses against children

No statute of limitations that would otherwise preclude prosecution for an offense involving the sexual or physical abuse, or kidnaping, of a child under the age of 18 years shall preclude such prosecution during the life of the child, or for ten years after the offense, which ever is longer.

Subject: Federal Mann Act Cover-Up - Scott Troxel's Perjury - Steve McNair's Grand Jury

Date: Wed, Aug 7, 2019 10:44 am

Dear Mr. VanDevender:

I am a victim of a Mann Act Federal crime cover-up still on-going before Tennessee Appellate and criminal courts. In 2017, Mr. Scott Troxel committed perjury to criminalize and convict me to protect child molester, John Perry.

In Nov 2018, Attorney Jim Todd reviewed sworn testimony obtained in a related civil lawsuit to inform me about the Federal Mann Act.

Frankly, I am cautious to report a Mann Act Federal crime cover-up, or information about Steve McNair's Grand Jury, following the hatred, harassment, and humiliation extended to my family by many in the Nashville community over many years.

On a personal note, your father has been my mother's physician; Ann Patchett was a childhood friend who attended my father's funeral at Covenant Presbyterian Church; and my wife, Catherine Fleming Davis, used to house sit for your mother.

I am also copying retired FBI Agent Walt Valentine, Judge Cheryl Blackburn, and Tennessee Titans President Steve Underwood on this email.

Did Judge Cheryl Blackburn protect Steve McNair's grand jury at the same time she protected her own grand jury and secret grand juror Sgt. Solomon Holley?

TRANPARENCY? JUDGE CHERYL BLACKBURN TOSSED OUT A SIGNED DECLARATION BY AUSTIN DAVIS ABOUT RULE 10: CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT. JUDGE CHERYL BLACKBURN MAKES UP HER OWN RULES. HOW MANY INNOCENT PEOPLE HAS JUDGE CHERYL BLACKBURN JAILED DURING HER CAREER IN THE DA'S OFFICE AND AS A DAVIDSON COUNTY JUDGE SINCE 1979?

RULE 10: CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT.

CANON 1 — A JUDGE SHALL UPHOLD AND PROMOTE THE INDEPENDENCE, INTEGRITY, AND IMPARTIALITY OF THE JUDICIARY, AND SHALL AVOID IMPROPRIETY AND THE APPEARANCE OF IMPROPRIETY.

Sept 6, 2019 - In a minority opinion written in dissent of a $2.1 million judgment against Austin Davis, Tennessee Appellate Judge Andy Bennett wrote: "The right to a fair trial before an impartial tribunal is a fundamental constitutional right... I believe Mr. Davis did not receive an impartial trial." Sept 17, 2019 - In a related criminal case, Judge Cheryl Blackburn denied a New Trial Motion to protect her own secret grand jury, grand juror Solomon Holley, and an on-going Mann Act Federal crime cover-up, to the great detriment and harm of Austin Davis. (See Judge Bennett's written opinion at the back of this link).

Sept 6, 2019 – Tennessee Appellate Court - In a minority opinion written in dissent of a $2.1 million judgment against Austin Davis, The Honorable Andy D. Bennett wrote: "The right to a fair trial before an impartial tribunal is a fundamental constitutional right... I believe Mr. Davis did not receive an impartial trial." Sept 17, 2019 - In a related criminal case, Judge Cheryl Blackburn ruled exactly opposite by denying a New Trial Motion to protect her own secret grand jury, grand juror DCSO Sgt. Solomon Holley, and a Mann Act Federal crime cover-up connected to the Ukraine.

If Judge Bennett's minority opinion and legal analysis is correct, there may be a problem with a legal victory granted to fired ex-Covenant Pastor Jim Bachmann in a "defamation" lawsuit filed by Austin Davis.

Update: The Memphis attorneys for Austin Davis quit after Judge Blackburn's "Solomon Holley" ruling. Austin Davis is searching for an attorney who still believes unbiased grand juries and judges are important for the integrity of the Tennessee Judicial System.

Transparency? Judge Cheryl Blackburn ordered the arrest of Austin Davis on Oct 20, 2017. At the time of the arrest, Judge Cheryl Blackburn did not disclose to Austin Davis that DCSO Sgt. Solomon Holley was a paid and contaminated member of Judge Cheryl Blackburn's secret grand jury. Judge Blackburn's tainted grand jury convened about nine months earlier on Jan 24, 2017, to wrongly indict Austin Davis after ex-Judge Casey Moreland bound Austin Davis over for a rigged indictment.

Transparency? Judge Cheryl Blackburn refused to recuse from a rigged retaliation case against Austin Davis, even though Judge Cheryl Blackburn presided over the Vanderbilt Rape Trial "special prosecutor" bench trial against Austin Davis who was secretly banned from the 1st Vanderbilt Rape Trial without just cause or notification to the victim, defendants, courtroom audience, jurors, or the public. In the photographs below, Judge Cheryl Blackburn's hand-picked grand juror, DCSO Sgt. Solomon Holley, was paid to participate in a false arrest of Austin Davis at a public Sunday church service. After the false arrest of Austin Davis, grand juror Sgt. Solomon Holley served with a contaminated grand jury that wrongly indicted Austin Davis with Judge Cheryl Blackburn presiding over the secret grand jury. All of this "betrayal of public trust" was done to protect child-molester John Perry and an on-going Mann Act Federal crime cover-up.

Judge Cheryl Blackburn ordered the arrest of Austin Davis prior to the 2017 MBA Spaghetti supper. Austin Davis was jailed for 18 days before there was any proof of a probation violation. The arrest protected a rigged arrest-indictment process which included the Nashville Police, ex-Judge Casey Moreland and Judge Cheryl Blackburn's secret grand jury with DCSO Sgt. Solomon Holley, a paid armed security guard for Covenant Presbyterian Church. Austin Davis was not allowed an appearance before the night commissioner, and was coerced to concede a possible probation violation or spend Thanksgiving and Christmas in jail. A $3 million extortion effort against Austin Davis was led by Attorney Larry Crain at the same time.

Date: November 22, 2015 7 days after the false arrest of Austin Davis

July 21 2014 Monday

In the absence of action by the Session to investigate the serious events that had come to light in Session meetings during the previous sixty days, all of the Emeritus Elders, along with inactive elders and two active elders signed a resolution (ref. Exhibit A) encouraging the Session to authorize the Moderator REDACTED to appoint an investigative committee to look into the events that had transpired. The resolution was passed due to a tie-breaking vote by the moderator. REDACTED changed his vote so the Moderator wouldn't have to break a tie. One amendment was made to the resolution. The task of the committee was to "conduct an investigation of its own actions and inactions...as well as members of the pastoral staff." REDACTED RRR was not under investigation though he was interviewed twice by the committee. All told the committee conducted 18 interviews from July 28-August 9 over 168 hours. Among those interviewed were 7 pastors, 7 ruling elders 1 inactive ruling elder, 1 deacon, and 1 member.

NOVEMBER 15, 2015 – COVENANT ARREST. Austin Davis was falsely arrested by Nashville Police with the active participation of Davidson County Sheriff Sergeant Solomon Holley, a paid Covenant armed security guard. On Sept 17, 2019, Judge Cheryl Blackburn protected her own secret grand jury and grand juror Sgt. Solomon Holley by denying Austin Davis a New Trial.

BANNED

November 16, 2015

At the session meeting, moderated again by REDACTED, a formal request is made for all Session information, records, and reports to be provided to all church members. The Session was given until Tuesday November 24th to respond.

Eight members who were present at the Saturday November 14th Session Meeting brought charges against elder REDACTED for his comments about REDACTED during the Saturday November 14th Session Meeting which included accusations of writing a schismatic communication to the congregation, lying, moral failure, heinous sin, and sedition. The substitute moderator ruled them out-of-order due to a lack of compliance with the steps advised in Matt. 18: 15-17.

I would like for the truth to come out... Let people see what was really going on behind the scenes... There was nothing going on that just truly couldn't have been worked out over a cup of coffee... ST. LOUIS, Missouri – August 20, 2012 – Covenant Theological Seminary has never taught, and in no way affirms, that the female body is capable of preventing pregnancy caused by rape.

Covenant Theological Seminary affirms that rape, in all its forms, is wicked. In regard to rape against women, men, and children, we believe that the Gospel calls us to show love, compassion, and support for the victims and their families. In all circumstances surrounding the trauma, we must name the evil, seek justice, and care for those affected by such horrendous acts. In instances of rape against women that result in pregnancy, this includes caring for the unborn child as well.

Sheriff Hall told the sheriffs of America: *“I am honored to represent this nation’s sheriffs... Case No. 2017-A-62

WILLIE AUSTIN DAVIS, JR.

Defendant.

DECLARATION OF WILLIE AUSTIN DAVIS, JR.

1. My name is Willie Austin Davis, Jr., and I was the defendant at trial in this matter.
2. I believe that Judge Steve Dozier failed to disclose family, donor and friend relationships that should have been brought to light before my case went to trial.
3. The preamble of the Tennessee Code of Judicial Conduct says: "Judges should maintain the dignity of judicial office at all times, and avoid both impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in their professional and personal lives. They should aspire at all times to conduct that ensures the greatest possible public confidence in their independence, impartiality, integrity and competence."
4. Rule 2.4 B of the Tennessee Code of Judicial Conduct says: "A judge shall not permit family, social, political, financial or other interests or relationships to influence the judges judicial conduct or judgment."
5. Rule 2.11 of the Tennessee Code of Judicial Conduct says: "A judge shall disqualify himself or herself in any proceeding in which the Judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned, including but not limited to the following circumstances: 1) The judge has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party... 2) The judge knows that the judge, the judge's spouse or domestic partner, or a person within a third degree relationship to either of them, or the spouse or domestic partner of such a person is: a) a party to the proceeding... 3) The judge knows that he or she, individually or as a fiduciary, or the judge's spouse, domestic partner, parent or child, or any member of the judge's family residing in the judge's household, has an economic interest in the subject matter in controversy or is a party to the proceeding... 4) The judge knows or learns by a timely motion that a party, a party's lawyer, or the law firm of a party's lawyer has made contributions or given support to the judge's campaign that the judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned."

6. Rule 2.15 A of the Tennessee Code of Judicial Conduct says: "A judge having knowledge that another judge has committed a violation of this Code that raises a substantial question regarding the judge's honesty, trustworthiness, or fitness as a judge in other respects shall inform the appropriate authority."
7. Section 11 of Article VI of the Tennessee Constitution says: "No judge of the Supreme or Inferior Courts shall preside on the trial of any cause in the event of which he may be interested, or where either of the parties shall be connected with him by affinity of consanguinity, within such degrees as may be prescribed by law, or in which he may have been of counsel, or in which he may have presided in any Inferior Court, except by consent of all the parties."
8. In this case, I learned after trial that: a.) Judge Dozier's uncle and aunt, Don and Chris Dozier, were members of Covenant Presbyterian Church. Don and Chris Dozier departed Covenant Presbyterian Church after my arrest in Nov 2015 to follow and support fired ex-Covenant Pastor Jim Bachmann as founding charter members in a new church start-up called Westminster Chapel Church, which is now called Stephens Valley Church. Stephens Valley Church presently meets at Julia Green Public School where Austin Davis and his family are banned from a tax-payer owned public park and elementary school property. b.) Judge Dozier's long-time friend and campaign sponsor was Covenant Member and Covenant Attorney Worrick Robinson, a long-time friend of ex-Judge Casey Moreland, who is now serving time in Federal Prison for public corruption. c.) Judge Dozier's father was Major Tom Dozier, the longest serving police officer in the history of the city of Nashville. The Nashville Police Department's Firearms facility located on the grounds of the Nashville Police Training Academy is named for Major Tom Dozier. Judge Dozier's blood-kin uncle, Don Dozier, was also a former Nashville Police officer. d.) Judge Dozier's possible friendships with dozens of Covenant Presbyterian Church members was not disclosed until the recusal order after the trial, sentencing and jailing of Austin Davis. c). Judge Dozier's former Woodmont Baptist Church membership and friendship with last-minute surprise prosecution witness, Federal Judge John Bryant, was not disclosed until cross-examination was underway during the trial.

9. If I had known this before trial, I would have not given my consent for Judge Dozier to be my pre-trial and trial judge making so many significant decisions affecting my freedom and liberty. During pre-trial hearings I expressed numerous concerns about Judge Casey Moreland, Covenant Attorney Worrick Robinson, and the integrity of the judicial process (which included the grand jury process), but Judge Dozier did not disclose, recuse and apparently took no action regarding my concerns.
10. During the pre-trial, trial, and sentencing hearings, Judge Dozier and the DA Prosecution Team appeared in agreement that my truthful allegations about a child-molester cover-up was a "myth" or "conspiracy" without any merit. The DA Prosecution Team requested a ban on my internet use to restrict my free speech even though truthful information was provided to the DA Prosecution Team during discovery about Gov. Mike Huckabee and Roy Moore's co-author, John Perry, a protected child-molester. During the sentencing hearing, Judge Dozier and the DA Prosecution Team were made aware of a $3 million "defamation-invasion of privacy" lawsuit filed against me, and the DA Prosecution Team cross-examined my wife, Catherine Davis, about the lawsuit. Judge Dozier said several times during the sentencing hearing that we need to put the John Perry-Covenant cover-up behind us and the Police, DA, Governor Haslam, and the FBI had looked into the issue and nothing could be done. For the record, the FBI was not informed about John Perry's violation of the White Slave Traffic Act (Mann Act) during my two previous visits to the FBI years earlier. After my trial and sentencing in this criminal case, and after I obtained a copy of the sworn deposition of child sex abuse therapist, Caroline Post Cone, I reviewed the information with Attorney Jim Todd and several other attorneys to learn that a child taken across state lines and sexually abused is a violation of Federal Law with NO statute of limitations. On June 25, 2019, I provided Ms. Cone's sworn testimony and other information about the Federal Mann Act violation to U.S. Attorney Cecil Van Devender and others within the Court. On July 6, 2019, the FBI arrested Billionaire Jeffrey Epstein on a similar "Mann Act" Federal sex-traffic charge involving a minor.

I swear under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

IN THE COURT OF APPEALS OF TENNESSEE
AT NASHVILLE
June 5, 2019 Session

REDACTED v. AUSTIN DAVIS

Appeal from the Circuit Court for Davidson County

REDACTED REDACTED

No. REDACTED

ANDY D. BENNETT, J., dissenting.

Upon reading the majority opinion, both what is said and what is left unsaid, one may sum it up as follows: Mr. Davis is at fault, he did not follow the rules, and he is getting what he deserves. Mr. Davis may indeed deserve what the majority is giving him, but not in the way they do it. I respectfully dissent.

The Tennessee Supreme Court has said that:

"The right to a fair trial before an impartial tribunal is a fundamental constitutional right." State v. Austin, 87 S.W.3d 447, 470 (Tenn. 2002). Article VI, section 11 of the Tennessee Constitution provides, "No Judge of the Supreme or Inferior Courts shall preside on the trial of any cause in the event of which he may be interested..." This provision is intended "to guard against the prejudgment of the rights of litigants and to avoid situations in which the litigants might have cause to conclude that the court had reached a prejudged conclusion because of interest, partiality, or favor." Austin, 87 S.W.3d at 470. We have recognized that it is important to preserve the public's confidence in a neutral and impartial judiciary. Bd. of Prof'l Responsibility v. Slavin, 145 S.W.3d 538, 548 (Tenn. 2004).

Bean v. Bailey, 280 S.W.3d 798, 803 (Tenn. 2009). In furtherance of this right, the Tennessee Supreme Court has established a Code of Conduct for Judges and a specific procedure for seeking the recusal of judges. See TENN. SUP. CT. R. 10, 10B.

I believe Mr. Davis did not receive an impartial trial. The recitation of facts reveals two blatant, interrelated problems not raised by either party. First, there was a violation of Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 10B. Mr. Davis filed a motion to recuse on January 25, 2018.¹ On February 2, 2018, the trial judge granted REDACTED motion for sanctions in the form of attorney's fees. However, Rule 10B, § 1.02, mandates that a judge cannot make further orders in the case while the Rule 10B motion is pending. Entering the sanctions order tainted the judicial process. Almost immediately thereafter, Mr. Davis filed another motion to recuse identical to the prior one and five days later, on February 7, 2018, the trial judge recused himself without explanation.² The recusal allows us to infer a bias or conflict.³

The second problem occurred because, on September 24, 2018, the subsequent trial judge found that "the Court's previous award of attorney's fees has been an insufficient deterrent and that the Defendant has continued steadfast in a course of contumacious conduct." The trial court then granted REDACTED a default judgment as to liability using the first judge's improper order as a basis for more extreme sanctions. This reliance on the first sanction order by the second trial judge compounded the taint created by the first judge. The jury determined damages only.

It may be said that we should not take up these matters because no party raised them. Indeed, there is ample authority for this proposition. See Childress v. Union Realty Co., Ltd., 97 S.W.3d 573, 578 (Tenn. Ct. App. 2002) (holding that an issue is waived if party fails either to argue the issue in his or her appellate brief but fails to designate it as an issue or to raise the issue but fails to address it in the argument section of his or her brief); Parker v. Shelby Cnty. Gov't Civ. Serv. Merit Bd., 392 S.W.3d 603, 615 (Tenn. Ct. App. 2012) (stating that "[u]sually an issue not raised on appeal is considered waived by this Court"). However, Tenn. R. App. P. 36(b) provides some leeway: "When necessary to do substantial justice, an appellate court may consider an error that has affected the substantial rights of a party at any time, even though the error was not raised in the

¹ The extensive commentary in footnote 4 of the majority opinion is aimed squarely at this dissent. In footnote 4, the majority speculates that "Judge REDACTED was likely unaware that the recusal motion was pending when the sanctions motion was heard." My main focus is the order issued one week later, not the January 26 hearing. I would note, however, that the Court of Appeals cannot speculate away the express mandate of the Tennessee Supreme Court that "While the motion is pending, the judge whose disqualification is sought shall make no further orders and take no further action on the case, except for good cause stated in the order in which such action is taken." No leeway is given for the judge's lack of knowledge of the motion. No "good cause" language is found in the trial court's February 2, 2018 order.

² No explanation is required if the motion to recuse is granted. TENN. SUP. CT. R. 10B, § 1.03 ("If the motion is denied, the judge shall state in writing the grounds upon which he or she denies the motion.").

motion for a new trial or assigned as error on appeal.” Additionally, Tenn. R. App. P. 13(b) expressly states that the appellate court “may in its discretion consider other issues in order, among other reasons: (1) to prevent needless litigation, (2) to prevent injury to the interests of the public, and (3) to prevent prejudice to the judicial process.” See also Bell v. Todd, 206 S.W.3d 86, 90-91 (Tenn. Ct. App. 2005). I firmly believe that the tainted orders created by the undeniable violation of Rule 10B injure the judicial process if left uncorrected.⁴

Our courts have repeatedly maintained that “Public confidence in the performance and impartiality of the judiciary is maintained only when judges rigorously adhere to the Code of Conduct. Violations of the Code, if left unaddressed, diminish public confidence and injure the entire judicial system.” In re Bell, 344 S.W.3d 304, 320 (Tenn. 2011) (quoting In re Williams, 987 S.W.2d 837, 844 (Tenn. 1998)). Specifically our Supreme Court has said, “[i]f the public is to maintain confidence in the judiciary, cases must be tried by unprejudiced and unbiased judges.” Davis v. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co., 38 S.W.3d 560, 564 (Tenn. 2001). The state’s interest in preserving public confidence in the judiciary has even been described as “compelling.” Bd. of Prof’l Responsibility v. Parrish, 556 S.W.3d 153, 166 (Tenn. 2018) (quoting Disciplinary Counsel v. Gardner, 793 N.E.2d 425, 432 (Ohio 2003)). Furthermore, “preservation of the public’s confidence in judicial neutrality requires not only that the judge be impartial in fact, but also that the judge be perceived to be impartial.” Kinard v. Kinard, 986 S.W.2d 220, 228 (Tenn. Ct. App. 1998).

To allow a recusal motion to be filed, followed by the trial court’s grant of sanctions against the party seeking recusal, and then a grant of the recusal motion rightly invites a questioning of the impartiality of the trial and appellate courts. Thurgood Marshall once said, “We must never forget that the only real source of power that we as judges can tap is the respect of the people.” THE QUOTABLE LAWYER 149-50 (David Shrager et al. eds., 1986). How can we keep the respect of the people if we ignore rules designed to ensure impartiality? Under the admittedly odd circumstances of this case, the integrity of our system requires appellate consideration of the issues related to the Rule 10B motion.

I do not undertake this dissent lightly. I am sympathetic to the REDACTED REDACTED But I see no other appropriate option. Because of the Rule 10B violation, I would vacate the trial court’s February 2, 2018 order and, because the trial court relied on the February 2, 2018 order when deciding to grant REDACTED a default judgment on

⁴ I readily acknowledge that Davis’s motions to recuse had deficiencies. However, the first trial judge considered the motions and did, in fact, recuse himself. “[B]ecause the trial court found sufficient basis to withdraw from the case, it should not have entered substantive rulings on contested matters while the recusal motion was pending.” Carney v. Santander Consumer USA, No. M2010-01401-COA-R3-CV, 2015 WL 3407256, *7 (Tenn. Ct. App. May 28, 2015) (describing Rodgers v. Sallee, 2015 WL 636740).

liability, I would also vacate the trial court's September 24, 2018 order and the October 3, 2018 order adopting the jury's damages awards.
