Daisy,

It was great to meet your dad, I am grateful he took the time to come out and listen to my vision for our state. Thank you for the info, I'll be sharing it with my policy team.

Thanks for the note.

In an abundance of caution, protected information is REDACTED in submission to Attorney Larry Crain's permanent injunction granted on 9/24/2018.

Gentlemen - I do not understand the objective. If the victim is on record having said the church dealt appropriately with the allegations of abuse, and if the church in question did indeed terminate its affiliation with the accused, for whom are you advocating? Has the victim asked you to defend RED against these charges that RED seems to have now let rest? Or is there something I am missing here? Is the victim lying or telling you something different? Judging objectively from the chain below, it almost appears as though you are on a crusade against Huckabee, which is your right, of course, but the media isn't going to find anything newsworthy in that. I am not suggesting this is your purpose. On the contrary, I am just letting you know how it comes across, objectively, in sequence. Perhaps this is why few are willing to pick up the story and run with it. I am sincerely trying to help you see here why you might not be getting any traction and trying to determine why you inserted yourself into this. I mean no offense. Just speaking very frankly. - Kevin

Democrat Asst. DA Jenny Charles ignored exculpatory evidence to protect Mike Huckabee, Roy Moore and Rev. Franklin Graham’s co-author, John Perry, an unrepentant child-molester who committed child sex abuse across state lines in violation of the Federal Mann Act. Asst. DA Jenny Charles was deceptive to lie to a trusting jury: “Ladies and gentleman, he’s created this spider web of conspiracy that is non-existent... His daughter’s entire childhood has been soiled because of her father. Not because of Harpeth Hall, or the governor, and the police, and it’s sad.”

Wrong answer, Landstreet. Do you think your too special to wear handcuffs to the jail for your support of an institutional child-molestation concealment effort which was grotesque in the abuse of my daughter? Call the police if you want. I have a criminal trespass hearing in the morning before Judge Casey Moreland and a VU Rape Post-Trial hearing on the 25th. I am very glad to see that Mayor John Cooper and Nashville SC have successfully agreed upon a plan for The Fairgrounds Nashville that puts the city first. Knowing the parties, it's clear that putting Nashville first has been the goal of the negotiations from the beginning. Businessman John Ingram brought Major League Soccer to town because it is the fastest-growing professional sport, and many of Nashville's new and longtime citizens are fans. Mayor Cooper also put Nashvillians at the forefront, working to minimize the fiscal impact of the soccer stadium and preserving options for our historic Fairgrounds Speedway....I was impressed with how Cooper and Ingram managed a tough public process.... Compromise has resulted in a win for Nashville!

I had breakfast with my old friend and MUS classmate, Mac McCorkle, who is here this morning in Nashville. Mac has been following my family's four lawsuits during the past year on an elaborate child-molestation cover-up case and he told me of your article this morning and suggested I contact you.

I was particularly struck by the profound words in your article which stated: "But there is also corruption that we may not easily see, and it carries an eye-watering stink. This level of corruption-- back room, who-you-know-, wink-wink, welcome to the club-- impacts us in more subtle and perverse ways beyond raising the cost of government and lining the pockets of the few. It erodes the public trust and denies broad swaths of our population a fair chance to participate in the governance of their state."

Last August, Nashville attorney Worrick Robinson asked me to have lunch with him and his long time friend, Casey Moreland... The invitation came about two months after I had written two harsh columns disparaging Judge Moreland – one for his decision to release Nashville businessman David Chase without serving a 12-hour hold after being arrested on a domestic disturbance, and the second, echoing at-large councilwoman and recently announced mayoral candidate Megan Barry's call for his resignation... "I have known Judge Casey Moreland for many years, and I have always maintained a great amount of respect for him as a judge... There is no hidden agenda here... and there will be no plea for leniency or mercy when you write your next op-ed about him..." We still meet about once a month to talk about life and the lessons we've learned... It is a blessing.

I am curious how you were treated prior to the end of Sunday school. Certainly the people there recognized you. Were you told to leave? Was it uncomfortable?

With all due respect, I think your Dad's determination and zealous outreach has been misinterpreted as potentially dangerous by many entities, not just Covenant. I am quite sure there is a mandate there to call security at the first sighting of any member of the Davis family.

What, in your opinion will help put this matter to rest, short of a prosecution of John Perry and Covenant leaders?

Dear Harpeth Hall Alumnae,

Many of you recently received an unauthorized email from a former Harpeth Hall student email is an improper use of Harpeth Hall contact information and a clear violation of our Privacy Policy as stated on the alumnae portal of our website which states:

"The information in the Alumnae Directory may NOT be reproduced in any form or used for commercial, nonprofit, or political solicitation purposes or mass communication not previously approved by the Alumnae Office. No one at the school had any prior knowledge of the sender's intended unauthorized use of such information and would not have approved it had such request been made. Harpeth Hall takes every precaution to protect your contact information and strives to communicate with you in an appropriate and professional manner.

Dear Harpeth Hall Alumnae,

We are aware that large groups of alumnae continue to receive unsolicited emails from the va/glenn18@aol email address belonging to Austin Davis. We deeply regret this repeated intrusion into your privacy. As background, alumnae contact information was acquired from the Harpeth Hall online alumnae directory through 1979 alumna Catherine Fleming Davis's account. Her access to our website and our online directory was terminated on September 9, 2016, as soon as we became aware of the Davis family's first mass email to our alumnae community and their violation of our privacy policy which is clearly stated on the alumnae portal of our website.

"The information in the Alumnae Directory may NOT be reproduced in any form or used for any commercial, nonprofit, or political solicitation purposes or mass communication not previously approved by the Alumnae Office. It is NOT to be copied or provided to anyone outside the Harpeth Hall community. Individuals violating the Privacy Policy will be removed from the directory and will not be permitted to have any future access to the directory."

As we communicated to you in September, the Davis family brought a suit against Harpeth Hall that was dismissed. The court's decision is final and unappealable.

Unfortunately, you may receive more unwanted emails from Austin Davis as he is still in possession of the alumnae email addresses acquired in September. He continues to violate our privacy policy with each mass email to our community. If you wish to block emails from the va/glenn18@aol email address, you can mark the emails as spam or filter the emails so that they will not appear in your inbox.

Subject: B - Harpeth Hall - Rev. Billy Graham - Amy Grant - Child Sex Abuse Cover-Up

Will HH-MBA Boards terminate employment of Scottie Coombs (secret grand juror) and Brad Gioia (DA witness)? Did Scottie Coombs provide email blocking instructions so that thousands of HH Alumnae could become involved in a Mann Act Federal crime cover-up?
