Q. In the lawsuits, they've given the ages 11 and then they changed it; they went to 12. Do you know what the age was?

A. I believe the age when [REDACTED] was first sexually abused -- is that what you're asking me?

Q. Uh-huh.

A. Was 11.

Q. Eleven? The lawsuit says -- uses the word "incident," which seems to indicate it's only one time. Is it one time or is it multiple times?

A. Multiple times.

Q. Is it constrained just to Tennessee?

A. No.

Q. What other states?

A. I'm not sure what other states there are, but I think some of the incidents occurred outside of the state of Tennessee.

Q. Did [REDACTED] go over that or give you any information on those states, where it was?

Dear Austin:

Thank you for writing to me regarding your daughter, Daisy Davis. I was saddened to read your story, and appreciate you sharing this information.

After consideration and review, I believe that your best course of action is to seek legal advice regarding this matter. An attorney of your choice is in the best position to advise you of your options. Unfortunately, this office cannot advise you from a legal standpoint.

I am also forwarding your letter to Commissioner O'Day's office at the Department of Children's Services for further review and consideration.

I genuinely hope that an appropriate resolution is found soon. Please accept my best wishes.

Warmest regards,

Dear Harpeth Hall Alumnae,

Many of you recently received an unauthorized email from a former Harpeth Hall student email is an improper use of Harpeth Hall contact information and a clear violation of our Privacy Policy as stated on the alumnae portal of our website which states.

"The information in the Alumnae Directory may NOT be reproduced in any form or used for commercial, nonprofit, or political solicitation purposes or mass communication not previously approved by the Alumnae Office. It is NOT to be copied or provided to anyone outside the Harpeth Hall community. Re: Austin Davis, et al. v. Covenant Presbyterian Church of Nashville, et al.
Davidson County Circuit Court Case No. : REDACTED

Dear Duncan:

Our client, Nashville Presbytery, was served recently with the Complaint in the referenced action. Pursuant to Tenn. Rule of Civ. Proc. 11, we request that your client dismiss his claims against the Nashville Presbytery in this case. If he fails to do so, we expect to file the attached Motion for Sanctions.

For the most part, the basis for this request is set forth in the draft Rule 11 motion for sanctions sent to you by the attorneys for Covenant Presbyterian Church of Nashville and Jim Bachmann. Additionally, this lawsuit appears to be based on the allegations that were asserted in the June 19, 2013 lawsuit (No. REDACT filed by your client in the Circuit Court of Davidson County. The dismissal of the claims in that lawsuit against the Nashville Presbytery has been confirmed by the Tennessee Court of Appeals. Regardless of whether that court allows for the rehearing that Mr. Davis requested, the fact remains that the claims in this lawsuit against the Nashville Presbytery mirror claims in that previous lawsuit. Further, based on your client's prolific communications about the subject matter of both lawsuits, it is clear that this latest suit was filed for in improper purpose with the sole intention of harassing the Nashville Presbytery and other defendants.

August 1, 2014

In sum, Mr. Davis' claims against the Nashville Presbytery in the referenced lawsuit are not warranted under the law and were brought for an improper purpose. I trust that you will agree that this latest lawsuit should be dismissed and act accordingly. If not, we reserve the right to file the attached motion.

Respectfully,

William L. Campbell, Jr.

TBI joins investigation of misconduct admissions by Nashville judge

The Tennessee Bureau of Investigation has been asked to assist prosecutors in reviewing allegations of misconduct against Davidson County Circuit Court Judge Kelvin Jones, NewsChannel 5 Investigates has learned.

An investigation into possible misconduct allegations against a Nashville judge. It follows disclosure by NewsChannel 5 chief investigative reporter Phil Williams that Judge Kelvin Jones made a number of stunning admissions of potentially illegal conduct during his divorce proceedings.

The alleged comments made by Davidson County Circuit Court Judge Kelvin Jones during a sworn deposition include claims that he said he buried $100,000 cash in his backyard to hide it from the state and creditors; falsely claimed a particular lawyer was going to represent him; accessed his then-wife's work emails looking for evidence; deposited small amounts of money in multiple bank accounts to avoid suspicion; and impersonated a man to get a hotel to send him a copy of that man's itemized bill. The complaint was filed by suspended Nashville attorney Brian Manookian, who has faced a number of ethics complaints and disciplinary action. When contacted, Jones' office said he would have no comment on the allegations.

Judge slams Casey Moreland for 'disgraceful' behavior, sentences him to 44 months in prison

Adam Tamburin - The Tennessean - Nov 30, 2018

Casey Moreland, once one of Nashville's most powerful judges, was sentenced to 44 months in prison Friday, capping what prosecutors called "one of the most shocking cases of misconduct of an elected public official" in the city's history.

Chief District Judge Waverly Crenshaw handed down the sentence in federal court, blasting Moreland's "persistent pattern of conduct that showed a profound disrespect for the law" and reflected a "reckless and self-centered mentality."

"For a judge, it's disgraceful," Crenshaw said.

Moreland, 60, resigned from the General Sessions bench in 2017, after federal authorities arrested him on an array of corruption charges.

Investigators had launched a probe to determine if he had traded preferential treatment for sexual favors. Moreland took steps to thwart that investigation by attempting to bribe and frame a former lover, prosecutors said.

The former judge struck a deal with prosecutors earlier this year after federal authorities arrested him again on charges that he had continued attempts to hamper the investigation while he was awaiting trial.

As part of the deal, he pleaded guilty to funneling thousands of dollars away from a nonprofit he started to help recovering drug addicts working their way through the General Sessions drug court. Moreland also pleaded guilty to attempting to bribe and intimidate a witness and to conspiring to hamstring federal investigations into his behavior.

Moreland, who appeared in court wearing a green prison jumpsuit, said he accepted the consequences of his actions.

"I want the people of Davidson County to know my regret," he said, reading from a prepared statement while standing before the judge. "They expect and deserve better."

Moreland's 44-month sentence was slightly longer than the range suggested by federal sentencing guidelines discussed in court Friday. It was short of the five-year sentence prosecutors sought.

U.S. Attorney Don Cochran, who prosecutes federal crimes in Nashville, said he was pleased with the outcome of the case.

"I don't think it gets a whole lot worse than this for judicial misconduct," he said. "It's a serious sentence."

Dear Mr. Chapman:

I know you are very busy with a new Netflix “A Week Away” movie launch, a speaking engagement at Liberty University, and a Drive-In Theater tour. However, I wish to respond to some confusion about my recent email concerning Gov. Bill Lee's new “adoption” initiative with your non-profit organization, Show Hope.

I am under the impression that you, Michael W. Smith, Amy Grant and Gov. Lee are all Christian friends, so maybe one, or all of you can persuade Gov. Lee to do the right thing?

For clarity, I did not state that you were personally involved in the on-going John Perry child sex abuse cover-up. However, I did truthfully state that you were connected to Gov. Bill Lee's new DCS “adoption” initiative: <https://www.keepandshare.com/doc15/23727/2021-11-apr-1-rise-of-a-titan-gov-bill-lee-adoption-initiative-child-sex-abuse-cover-up?da=y>

For clarity, John Perry, a CPA Alumni Father, is a protected child-molester here in the Nashville community. Since you are also a CPA Alumni Father, I encourage you to read the sworn testimony of child sex abuse expert witness, Caroline Cone, a CPA Alumni Mother. <https://www.keepandshare.com/doc15/22758/2020-31-dec-3-rise-of-a-titan-john-perry-global-statement-caroline-cone-sworn-testimony?da=y>

On March 14, 2016, child sex abuse expert witness, Caroline Cone, testified before MBA Father and Davidson County Judge Kelvin Jones. Judge Kelvin Jones presided over four John Perry child sex abuse cover-up lawsuits that were blocked from local news reports and all were won by fraud and lying.

On March 22, 2021, the same day Gov. Bill Lee announced the DCS - Show Hope “adoption” initiative, Phil Williams of NewsChannel5 reported that Judge Kelvin Jones is now under investigation by the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation. However, Phil Williams did not mention a word about the John Perry child sex abuse cover-up, or John Perry's child sex abuse across state lines which has NO statute of limitations under the Federal Mann Act: <https://www.newschannel5.com/news/newschannel-5-investigates/tbi-joins-investigation-of-misconduct-admissions-by-nashville-judge>

In closing, I pray you will read Matthew 5:13 and Matthew 18:6 as I continue to receive hate mail and threats while Gov. Bill Lee, Attorney General Herbert Slatery, Nashville Police, Phil Williams and Nashville news organizations continue to stand down as new threats are made: <https://www.keepandshare.com/doc15/23471/2021-1d-feb-4-rise-of-a-titan-billy-lyell-email-acct-court-docs?da=y>

I look forward to hearing from you by April 16, 2021.

In Christ,

Austin Davis
