Dear Jess,

You were kind to me on Daisy's behalf the other day. Honestly, I am still in shock because I always envisioned Daisy graduating from Harpeth Hall as me and my sisters did.

After our meeting, I went home and read through all of Ann's letters written to me and Daisy. There is no mention of Daisy not being welcomed back to return to Harpeth Hall.

I still believe it is in Daisy's best interest to be at HH and I do not understand Ann's reasoning. The Harpeth Hall community of educators, board members, alumnus, and students can only benefit by opening their arms to embrace one of their own Harpeth Hall's girls to finish the task of educating her.

I hope you read the information I provided to you. I also hope that Harpeth Hall does not endorse an outside organization who attacks a Harpeth Hall student in their effort to shield and protect a young girl molester.

Again, thanks for meeting with me.

Catherine

Dear Jess:

There is additional information in the email attachment so you, redacted, redacted and others definitely should read them very carefully. I was hopeful that Harpeth Hall would take care of one of it's own wounded (who desired to finish out) but I do understand Harpeth Hall's rejection of Daisy after hearing redacted's very honest comments to my mother-in-law about the atmosphere of hatred that exists for me in the Nashville community.

I am well aware of the visceral dislike towards me but I did grow up playing a lot of sports (as redacted, redacted and others can tell you) and I never paid much attention to those who booed me during a game. I grew up in Nashville and I did attend Woodmont School and I did have my first date at a Harpeth Hall dance (in 7th grade) so I do have many good friends inside and outside of the Harpeth Hall community who also share my convictions that a child molestation should never be covered up.

I know this may sound old school and way to judgmental but 25 actions against an 11-year old redacted is not something one should cover up, and especially not using public resources and the police. To make matters worse, I was outspoken about some other children who were also placed in the "safe house" which is the reason police were used to silence me in the first place.

No matter how much someone lies or kicks their heels together to make this unattractive wart disappear, this tragic molestation is a fact and nothing anyone says or does will ever make it go away.

As for Covenant Members within the Harpeth Hall community/board, I do not know if any were knowingly and actively involved in the use of police to silence and intimidate me but I do know that many were actively hostile towards my family in the cover-up years that followed once the institutional poison was released into the stream of the wider community.

For years I have tried to explain that something very wrong was occurring with Daisy but unfortunately no one really was able to believe the seriousness of the situation so nothing ever got resolved in the best interest to help a suffering young girl on the Harpeth Hall campus. (It would break your heart as an educator if you really knew all that Daisy had experienced).

In watching the unraveling at Penn State, I did learn one interesting piece of information that an "adopted son" was one of the earlier victims of his own father (Jerry Sandusky) and that other young victims would also be molested by the same man.

I know that people do not understand some of my passions about children but I genuinely love the innocence of kids and I genuinely love to coach boys as I have been doing since the early 1980's.

I spent many years coaching with my close friend, Robert Inman, and I could not live with myself if I learned a few years from now that other children were also molested in the past or the future while I sat by idle and did nothing.

In closing, I am honestly surprised by the "hardness of heart" demonstrated by the Board towards Daisy but I do trust that the Lord will have something better for her as we meet with other schools beginning in the morning. Again, I will always love the Hill family and I know these type decisions are well beyond your control.

Best,

Austin

I spoke to Austin this morning and it sounds like he is planning to call Redacted. I am keeping my fingers crossed for Daisy. I have read the information you provided and I am saddened to hear of the horrible chain of events.

I hope to see Daisy some time soon so that I can give her a hug. Sending one to you too.

Austin, if some of our students have been rude to Daisy over the past few weeks since school has started, I will be happy to speak with them. I am so sorry that has happened at this time for Daisy.

I will keep Daisy in my thoughts and prayers during this time of transition.

Subject: Four+ Years of Cover-up is Too Long - Distributed to Many

Jim Bachmann:

I requested for you to be truthful about an internal church scandal on June 25, 2008. Instead of telling the truth, you and others did your very best to destroy my innocent family.

I will never understand why you and Joe Paterno made the same choice to shield a child molester?

In contrast to Joe Paterno, I will never understand why you utilized the Metro Police Department to attack my family to conceal a child molester from public discovery, arrest, and prosecution?

Do you have any idea the destruction you have brought upon my family (and others) and the negative impact this molestation cover-up will have upon a private school(s) within our community?

Elected public servants, church leaders, 2000 church members, wealthy donors, and private school educators can all choose to protect you and the child molester if they wish.

But not me.

Austin

Update - Sept 17, 2021: Ex-Covenant Pastor Jim Bachmann was fired in Oct 2016 after a Covenant congregational vote and church split. Pastor Jim Bachmann, along with devoted followers, formed a new church named Stephens Valley about nine miles from Grace Chapel in Leipers Fork. Nashville Police are still protecting Pastor Jim Bachmann, child-molester John Perry, and John Perry's "safe house" used for other children.

“After I sent my first letter on September 29, 2017, suggesting that we need laws mandating disclosure to parents should their be allegations of abuse against an individual in a supervisory capacity, I received a message back from Senator Johnson's office. We met several weeks later to discuss the issues. He did indicate that he believed that parents should have access to this kind of information and that waiting one year was too long. He also said that it is important to anticipate concerns from potentially affected groups such as the Boy Scouts. He indicated the need for legal research... Curiously, during the discussion, he said, ‘Of course there are allegations you don't hear about. There are a lot of churches in Williamson County.’” <https://janespeaksup.com/>

Dear Pastor Sauls,

I recently saw this article on the TGC website.

<https://www.thegospelcoalition.org/article/tennessees-reformed-republican-governor-champions-free-college/>

I see that Governor Haslam is a participating member of your congregation. Due to your exposure to the referenced situation via my contact in December 2017 and your proximity to our governor, I am forwarding you this email in which I express a need for legislative change regarding child sexual abuse cases. I would appreciate your review of the email and advocacy on behalf of the vulnerable in Tennessee.

Personally, I feel like the system is broken related to sexual abuse cases. In the stories I have read over the last several years in which abuses have occurred in institutional settings, the narratives are strikingly similar. It is almost like you have the same storyline with a different set of actors.

What I have suggested just scratches the surface of the issues, but it is a start. I believe it time to make some changes so that the same tragic stories are not repeated time and again.

Sincerely,

(Jane)

Subject: Applauding Covenant

Dear Mr. Slatery,

I am disappointed you chose to applaud Covenant's contribution to the community last Monday, mostly because you did not contact me or search the matter out: <https://soundcloud.com/valglenn18/herbert-slatery-speech>.

I do not care how big and important a church is, if a church does not provide human beings love and truth, it is a clanging cymbal, passing away. To demonstrate love and truth, Covenant members need to stop the rampage of lies, slander and gossip long enough to ask me about what their leadership has done, and they should care more about abused young children than they presently do. It does not matter if a person is a despised beggar like me, or a Governor like Bill Haslam, or an important lawyer like yourself, the rules and laws apply to all of us and no person is above the law, not even the DA's office or the Metro Police.

Some emails sent to me in recent days have struck me as decidedly unloving (see in red below). You, Governor Haslam, Covenant Members and those who sent me these emails all seem to be "locked-in-arms" that Covenant Leaders have not concealed a known child-molester with access to a private elementary school by using Metro Police?

Have all the parents of The Covenant School been informed of this inappropriate conduct or is this still a private, internal matter undisclosed to The Covenant School parents, especially to those parents who are non-church members? Is the known child molester banned by police from returning to the church-school property or is my family still the only people subject to unwarranted arrest by Metro Police?

I realize you do not want any questions on "litigation" and the Covenant audience found this comment to be funny (start at 33:44 in audio link above). However, the deliberate shielding of a child-molester while attacking my family with police does not amuse me.

This Sunday morning, and every public church gathering hereafter. each Covenant man or woman who stands before the congregation or a Sunday School class is effectively participating in a public endorsement of a child-molestation cover-up which has now lasted for almost six years under the cover of Metro Police.

If you and the Governor do not search the matter out, and if the courts of Tennessee continue to block us from ever getting our rightful day in court, and if the Tennessee Media never reports a single word about the the concealment of a child-molester with the help of Metro Police, it is a tragic day for all Tennesseans and will ultimately set a precedent for all Tennessee houses of worship to become "safe sanctuaries" for the hiding of child-molesters if First Amendment arguments by PCA attorneys prevail in Tennessee civil courts.

For the moment, a California news agency is the only media organization in the United States to serve the public interest by reporting on any aspect of two lawsuits and Covenant Members probably do not even know about the 2nd lawsuit filed in October 2013:

<http://www.courthousenews.com/2013/10/24/redacted>.

Did Covenant Leadership share this California news report with you or Governor Haslam prior to your speaking at Covenant on Monday?

Again, I beg with you, I plead with you. I plead with Governor Haslam. Please, please, please, do not provide the Governor's seal of approval for the use of Metro Police to invade my family's property, or anyone else's private property, for the sole purpose of suppressing First Amendment rights in an effort to conceal a known child molester.

Respectfully yours,

Catherine Davis

Subject: Have Gov. Bill Lee and the TN Supreme Court listened to a Grant Solomon recording at GCA?

Have Gov. Bill Lee and the TN Supreme Court listened to a Grant Solomon recording with Grace Christian Academy staff (1 min partial clip)?

Is Attorney General Herbert Slatery protecting Gov. Bill Lee's church, Grace Chapel Church (see slides 8, 13, 16, 19, 22-23, 124-136 below)?

<https://www.keepandshare.com/doc15/24397/2021-2a-sept-13-tn-attorney-general-letter-and-recusal-motion-for-tn-supreme-court?da=y>

Does the TN Legislature support Grace Chapel Attorney Larry Crain, and "private" sex between adults and children?

<https://twitter.com/freedomgracie?lang=en> Watch the pinned 1st video.

Will more recordings and/or videos be released? Are there more cases not yet disclosed?
