

Austin Davis (24) played MUS basketball with a cousin of Minna Treadwell Thompson Glenn, wife of Criminal Appellate Court Judge Alan E. Glenn. On June 29, 2021, Memphis Judge Alan E. Glenn denied the appeal of Austin Davis to protect a child sex abuse spider web, which included connections to former Second Presbyterian Pastor Sandy Willson, and now includes the alleged child sex abuse of 11-year old Gracie Solomon, and the alleged murder of 18-year-old GCA basketball player Grant Solomon. To learn more about a child sex abuse spider web connected to Gov. Mike Huckabee, Rev. Franklin Graham, U.S. Alabama Senate Candidate Roy Moore, and Presidential Politics, please read the pages in this link and visit The Silent Bell web site: <https://www.thesilentbell.org/>

In the 2019 Sundance NOW Original documentary series, The Oslo Killing, Judge Alan E. Glenn's wife, Minna Treadwell Thompson Glenn, was finally exonerated of an international murder accusation after almost 50 years of being the #1 suspect of Oslo Police in Norway. In stark contrast to Minna Glenn's recent exoneration, Judge Alan E. Glenn protected corrupt police and the malicious prosecution of Austin Davis by rendering his written appellate opinion on June 29, 2021: "The Defendant believes the church was involved in a cover-up of child abuse... The Defendant has failed to show any reason the judge's impartiality should be questioned... The Defendant does not explain why the employment of the judge's father or uncle as police officers, if that indeed is the case, rendered the judgment impartial, other than it is the Defendant's belief that the police and district attorney and other governmental authorities are part of a vast conspiracy to silence him... We affirm the judgment of the trial court." The Defendant graduated from MUS, and played basketball with Minna's cousin. Will the Defendant have to wait 50 years until he is finally exonerated, and children in Tennessee are finally afforded protection?

April 6, 2018 - Judge Cheryl Blackburn – Court Transcript Excerpts – Austin Davis Sworn Testimony After MBA Headmaster Brad Gioia Provided Untrue Sworn Testimony To The Court

Austin Davis: I was trying to communicate to people about a child sex abuse cover-up and its connection to the rape of a, an alleged rape of a sixth grade student.

Judge Cheryl Blackburn: Okay, Mr. Davis, that is an issue I think that has gotten you in a lot of trouble.

Austin Davis: It shouldn't..... the DA's office should be prosecuting child molesters instead of covering them up... There's a molester living on Belle Meade Boulevard about twelve doors away from--... She's asking me why, because I don't want to be shackled on that issue.

Judge Cheryl Blackburn: Okay. Well. You're going to be shackled on that issue, one way or another, and that would be by me telling you something or I'm going to put you in jail again."

Austin Davis: So the state wants us not, the citizens not talk about child sex abuse if we know where a molester is?... It's called First Amendment freedom of speech. You just have a right to speak.

Judge Cheryl Blackburn: Well, in this particular issue, you don't have a First Amendment freedom of speech.

Austin Davis: Okay. That's good to clarify.

On June 29, 2021, Austin Davis met with a Memphis attorney to discuss an evangelical child sex abuse spider web, which includes connections to Pastor Jim Bachmann, Pastor Sandy Willson, protected child-molester John Perry, and numerous other church pastors within Tennessee, and beyond Tennessee. On June 29, 2021, Memphis Judge Alan E. Glenn filed his written appellate opinion denying the appeal of Austin Davis to protect the evangelical child sex abuse cover-up spider web. On June 29, 2021, Austin Davis learned about the discovery of child sex abuse at Lookout Mountain Presbyterian Church, which took place in the 1980's. An intern at Lookout Mountain Presbyterian Church was also accused of sexual abuse from the 1970's. Pastor Jim Bachmann and Pastor Sandy Willson were both on staff at Lookout Mountain Presbyterian during the 1980's, and both are long-time friends in the ministry.

SANDY WILLSON'S CHURCH PLANTED DOWNTOWN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rick Trotter By Jody Callahan of The Commercial Appeal

Posted: Aug. 09, 2016

Two days after the Downtown Church fired Rick Trotter because of "deception and moral failures of a sexual nature," the Memphis Police Department opened an investigation into the Grizzlies announcer. On Tuesday, that investigation led police to issue an arrest warrant for Trotter on four counts of charges that he photographed someone without their consent at the Downtown Church. The warrant added that there were at least three reported victims, and that Trotter was "making upskirt videos of church members," apparently "while services were going on."

Does Judge Alan E. Glenn have any other conflicts of interest at Second Presbyterian Church that are still undisclosed to Austin Davis?

Austin Davis provided truthful child sex abuse cover-up information to Pastor Sandy Willson on Dec 30, 2014. Pastor Sandy Willson was a guest preacher in Nashville at Covenant Presbyterian during the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up on April 30, 2017, May 7, 2017, and possibly three other Sundays. Pastor Willson publicly provided his moral and physical presence to support Covenant Leadership during the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up about seven months after the Covenant congregation voted to terminate their 25-year relationship with Pastor Jim Bachmann. Pastor Willson also provided his preaching talents to encourage the Covenant congregation about four months before DA Glenn Funk's malicious prosecution of Austin Davis began on Sept 11, 2017, to cover-up child sex abuse. As of Dec 6, 2021, Pastor Sandy Willson has never responded to child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis. However, Second Presbyterian Youth Director, Kevin McQuillen, did instruct Austin Davis not to send any more emails to Second Presbyterian Church staff members on June 20, 2017, about a month after Sandy Willson preached at Covenant.

Dear Professor Haynes,

I graduated from MUS and enjoyed learning about the 50th commemoration of the 'kneel-in' protests at Second Presbyterian Church this past March. I was mindful of the 'kneel-in' history as my family was unlawfully blocked from entering a PCA church here in Nashville. Here are excerpts from an interview project which I hope you will watch when you have a few minutes of free time. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=z8YySmeDcE>

Also, here is my 3-minute statement before the Tennessee Supreme Court during the Attorney General hearings. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BvH9UTHnB6c&feature=youtu.be>

Here is the only story written about my family's sub-human experience in six and a half years. <http://www.wadeburleson.org/2014/05/austin-davis-covenant-presbyterian-and.html>

Best,
Austin Davis

Minna Treadwell Thompson Glenn was cited in The Last Segregated Hour. Judge Alan E. Glenn supported the banning of Austin Davis and three ladies in his family via his deceptive, untrue appellate ruling filed on June 29, 2021.

Judge Alan E. Glenn violated the Tennessee Supreme Court Code of Judicial Conduct – Rule 10 when Judge Glenn refused to recuse from the appeal of Austin Davis to protect the long-time legacy and friendships of his wife and brother-in-law’s family church, Second Presbyterian Church (Memphis). Rule 10 states: “A judge shall act at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the independence, integrity, and impartiality of the judiciary, and shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety.” Does the former Chair of the Board of Judicial Conduct, Memphis Judge Chris Craft, support the conduct of Memphis Judge Alan E. Glenn? Does the new Chair of the Board of Judicial Conduct, Judge Dee David Gay (Sumner County), support the alleged child sex abuse of 11-year-old Gracie Solomon, and the alleged murder of 18-year-old GCA basketball and baseball player, Grant Solomon, who tried to protect his little sister, Gracie?

Will the Tennessee Supreme Court actively participate in the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up to protect Judge Alan E. Glenn, ex-Judge Casey Moreland, Judge Cheryl Blackburn, Judge Steve Dozier, and a child sex abuse spider web from Chattanooga, to Nashville, to Memphis, and beyond Tennessee? Will the Tennessee Supreme Court ignore the alleged child sex abuse of 11-year old Gracie Solomon, and the alleged murder of 18-year-old Grant Solomon, who tried to protect his little sister, Gracie?

Coach Peters would not ignore, or turn a blind eye to the alleged gang rape of any student in a team locker room. Coach Peters taught his basketball players to obey the MUS Honor Code, to conduct themselves as a gentleman at all times, including the team locker room, and to always “do the right thing.” Austin Davis is very grateful for the words of wisdom offered by his old coach during a private meeting in his office during the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up which is still on-going.

Coach Jerry Peters taught MUS students to cherish First Amendment “free speech,” but “free speech” is not so “free” for those who speak out against child sex abuse. Brentwood Attorney Larry Crain was granted a limited injunction against Austin Davis in a related child sex abuse cover-up case, and he also represents Grace Chapel Church in Leipers Fork, Tennessee. Based upon Attorney Larry Crain’s June 16th “cease and desist” letter sent to a Medium writer on behalf of Grace Chapel Church, Grace Chapel Church disagrees with the Medium article which was based upon statements made by 14-year old Gracie Solomon in a you tube video posted to the internet on May 12, 2021: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bpNRNuaFhAk>

Grace Chapel Church threatens legal action against blogger over 'defamatory statements' - By Alexander Willis - Jun 18, 2021 – Franklin Home Page

Franklin's Grace Chapel Church's lawyers at Crain Law Group sent a cease and desist letter on Wednesday to Shannon Ashely, an online blogger, after the writer published a lengthy story alleging "evangelical abuse" against the Franklin church.

The story was posted on the online publishing platform Medium.

The letter, dated June 16, demands that Ashley publicly retract her statements and that she not make "any such false statements in the future regarding Grace Chapel." The letter further reads that Grace Chapel has directed Crain Law Group to proceed with legal action if the demands are not met by Monday, June 21.

On June 12, Ashley published a piece about the allegations levied against former WSMV Channel 4 News anchor Aaron Solomon, who has been accused by his 14-year-old daughter Gracie Solomon of sexual abuse and of being involved with the death of his then-18-year-old son Grant Solomon.

Does Mississippi Solicitor General Scott Stewart know about the alleged child sex abuse of 11-year old Gracie Solomon, the alleged murder of Grant Solomon, and Grant Solomon's "private" meetings with Pastor Steve Berger and GCA educators?
