Re: Pastor Steve Berger

Dear Ms. Hicks:

This letter serves as a demand to cease and desist from further making or disseminating any defamatory statements regarding my client, Pastor Steve Berger. As well, he demands that you take down the defamatory video described below and related defamatory posts on social media sites, including ones on freedomforgracie on Instagram. If you are represented by counsel, please forward this letter to that person immediately.

My investigation into this matter indicates you are familiar with the circumstances surrounding the defamatory video and its dissemination since you were present when the video was created. I will briefly recount the facts here.

Earlier this year, [REDACTED] recorded a video of Gracie in which she reads various statements, including a statement that Grant Solomon shared allegations of child abuse with Pastor Berger. The video further states that Pastor Berger did nothing after being told of the child abuse. Those accusations are false and defamatory.

As you should know, just days before Grant met with Pastor Berger, a representative from Grace Chapel (where Steve Berger served as Pastor) took Gracie's mother to the police station after the Solomons made the Church aware of allegations of child abuse. After an investigation by the police department, the allegations apparently were not substantiated. The fact, however, is that Pastor Berger takes his legal obligations seriously and would have fulfilled his reporting obligations had such allegations been made. Of equal importance, Grace Chapel had already taken protective action. Thus, Pastor Berger, through his church, had already taken appropriate action. As a result of the dissemination of the video which implies that Pastor Berger failed to fulfill his legal obligations, including those obligations set forth in Tenn. Code Ann. §37-1-403(a)(1), he has been and continues to be defamed. To be clear, at no point did Grant ever inform Pastor Berger about any allegations of abuse. Had Grant done so, Pastor Berger would have ensured that the allegations were reported, just like they were a few days before.

Pastor Berger has a cause of action for defamation against those who orchestrated the publication of the defamatory video. Our investigation indicates that you helped create and publish the video. As a result of your actions, the Williamson Home Page republished the defamatory statements further damaging Pastor Berger's reputation. Through this conduct, you and others are now potential defendants in a defamation action.

To start to attempt to mitigate the damages you have caused Pastor Berger, we demand that you take down the video and all related defamatory comments found on related social media sites. Should you fail to act fully and promptly, we may be forced to take legal action against you. Please understand that we will not accept the excuse that you do not know who now controls the video. You either know or can find out who can access the social media sites to take down the video.

If the video and offending social media posts are not taken down from Instagram, YouTube, and other social media sites by 5:00 PM on Friday, August 20, we will assume that you have chosen to ignore our request.

We hope you will do the right thing.

Sincerely,

Four days before Kentucky Attorney Todd McMurtry wrote a “cease and desist letter” to Melanie Hicks, Grace Chapel Founding Pastor Steve Berger was seated next to former CIA Director and Secretary of State, Mike Pompeo, at a Williamson County Republican Party event on Aug 7, 2021. Three months prior to the GOP event, 14-year-old Gracie Solomon made a public statement about her alleged child sex abuse, her older brother’s alleged murder, and Grace Chapel Pastor Steve Berger. Question: Was Secretary of State Mike Pompeo informed about Gracie Solomon’s May 12th You Tube video which stated that Gracie was an alleged child sex abuse victim, and her brother, Grant, was an alleged murder victim, and that “Pastor Steve” did nothing after a private meeting with Grant.

Re: Grace Chapel Church
Cease and Desist Letter

Dear Ms. Ashley:

This firm is legal counsel to Grace Chapel Church located at [REDACTED] Road, Franklin, Tennessee.

This letter concerns a recent blog posted by you on June 12, 2021 on Medium.com entitled "14yo Gracie Says Her Father Raped Her and Murdered Her Brother". This blog contains several material misstatements regarding Grace Chapel Church which, taken as a whole, present a false and defamatory publication and which cast the church in a false light. In addition, your post appears to adopt wholesale and re-publish certain false and defamatory statements contained in a video statement published by Gracie Solomon.

Specifically, you state in your blog post the following false characterizations regarding the church and its present and former staff:

(a) Let me warn you --- it's a really difficult video to watch. In it, Gracie describes many instances of sexual abuse. She talks about the various ways their father belittled, intimidated, and controlled her brother, and how her whole family has suffered at the hands of Aaron Solomon...not to mention Grace Christian Academy and Grace Chapel.

This statement is patently and demonstrably false as it relates to Grace Chapel. To the contrary, Grace Chapel has provided financial assistance to Angelia Solomon with a benevolence gift. In addition, when Ms. Solomon first reported to a member of the church staff her concerns about abuse on April 30, 2018, four days later, on May 4, 2018, the staff member accompanied her to the Williamson County Sheriff's Department where a report was promptly taken of this allegation.

Shannon Ashley
June 16, 2021, p. 2

(b) Gracie attends Grace Christian Academy, which is effectively run by Grace Chapel in Franklin, Tennessee.

Grace Chapel Church is a wholly separate corporate entity from Grace Christian Academy. The two entities have their own independent boards and there is absolutely no oversight, control or governance by Grace Chapel of Grace Christian Academy.

(c) Aaron, a member of their (Grace Chapel's) church is currently suing more than 20 people including a GCA classmate Anna Smit for giving video testimony about her talks with Grant, Gracie, and school counselors.)

Aaron Solomon is not a member of Grace Chapel.

(d) As a survivor of evangelical abuse and a mother who lives less than three hours away from Grace Chapel, I have a pretty good feel for the garbage Gracie and her mother are up against.

This statement is susceptible of a false and malicious inference that Grace Chapel engages in "evangelical abuse" and is constitutes defamation by innuendo.

The purpose of this letter is to place you on formal notice that these false and defamatory statements constitute actionable and threaten to injure the reputation and standing of Grace Chapel in the community. On behalf of my client, I am hereby making demand that you publicly retract these statements forthwith and that you cease and desist from making or publishing any such false statements in the future regarding Grace Chapel. You are further advised that unless I receive at my office proof of a retraction by you of these comments by June 21, 2021, I have been directed by my client to proceed with an action to enforce its legal and equitable remedies and to seek compensatory as well as punitive damages, costs and attorney's fees.

I look forward to a prompt response from you to the concerns set forth herein.

Very truly,

Larry L. Crain

Do Attorneys Todd McMurtry and Larry Crain believe Pastor Steve Berger, Sam Johnson, and accused child-molester and accused murderer, Aaron Solomon, instead of Gracie Solomon and Anna Smith?

14yo Gracie Says Her Father Raped Her and Murdered Her Brother - Why aren't we hearing her story? – Shannon Ashley – Medium – June 12, 2021

Tennessee Attorney Larry Crain stated in his June 16, 2021, “cease and desist” letter that Gracie Solomon published the May 12, 2021 video. Kentucky Attorney Todd McMurry stated in his Aug 11, 2021, “cease and desist” letter that he investigated a You Tube video in which Gracie Solomon made a public statement that she was a victim of child sex abuse. Gracie Solomon also stated that her older brother, Grant Solomon, was killed by her father, Aaron Solomon. Attorney Todd McMurry wrote in his “cease and desist” letter that Gracie’s allegations that Pastor Steve Berger “did nothing” were “false and defamatory.” Also, in an artful choice of words used for the Aug 11th “cease and desist” letter, Todd McMurry framed some of Gracie’s allegations as “child abuse,” instead of more accurately stating “child sex abuse.” To date (June 6, 2022), it is also possible that Attorney Larry Crain made at least one untrue statement in his June 16, 2021, “cease and desist” letter to Medium Writer Shannon Ashley.

Attorney Todd McMurtry, Attorney Larry Crain, and WSMV TV Attorney Robb Harvey are connected to two alleged Mann Act Federal crime cover-up cases, and the alleged murder cover-up of 18-year-old, Grant Solomon, who tried to protect his little sister, Gracie.

Both alleged child sex abuse cover-up cases are connected to Tennessee and Kentucky. Accused child-molester and accused murderer, Aaron Solomon, is a former WSMV TV news anchor and sports reporter who provided "news" to the American citizens of Middle Tennessee, South-Central Kentucky, and Western Kentucky during his 15-year career with WSMV TV.

Protected child-molester, John Perry, was born in Greensburg, Kentucky, and his departed mother lived in Lexington, Kentucky. John Perry is a prominent Southern Baptist biographer who co-wrote books with GOP Presidential Candidate Mike Huckabee, U.S. Alabama Senate Candidate Roy Moore, and Rev. Franklin Graham. He also wrote two books about Chuck Colson, former White House Special Counsel to President Richard Nixon prior to President Nixon's resignation during the Watergate cover-up scandal. WSM TV was originally owned by National Life and Accident Insurance Company. WSM first signed on the air as WSM TV on Sept 30, 1950. The original WSM call letters reflected National Life's company motto: We Shield Millions. The WSM call letters later became WSMV TV (aka, We Shield Molesters). Presently, WSMV TV is still shielding and protecting two alleged Mann Act Federal crime cover-up cases, and the alleged murder cover-up of 18-year old Grant Solomon, further endangering children in Middle Tennessee, South-Central Kentucky, Western Kentucky, and beyond Tennessee and Kentucky.

Subject: Another Call For Gov. Bill Lee To Resign

Dear Ms. Van Dyke: I first reached out to you on Oct. 23, 2019, prior to John Grisham's appearance at Montgomery Bell Academy. I write you today to follow up again.

On April 17, 2022, I made a citizen call for Gov. Bill Lee to resign. On April 28, 2022, I requested for Sen. Jeff Yarbro to provide Tennessee Senators and Representatives information about Gov. Bill Lee, new Tennessee Supreme Court Justice Sarah K. I provided information about Judge Steve Dozier to Ms. Amanda Knox and she was kind to respond. As expected, Judge Steve Dozier was unopposed and re-elected in the election yesterday (see Amanda Knox - Steve Dozier link below).

I pray the Tennessee Innocent Project will support Grant's Army.
