

Top Highly Paid Accounting Jobs

Accounting is a sector that opens door to huge job opportunities. Professional or experienced accountants are paid highly with secure career positions. It is the best sector for those who want to build a career with maximum earning potential. There is numerous accounting careers that provides high salaries for accountants.

Some of the top highly paid accounting jobs are Financial Controller, CMA(Certified Management Accountant), Chartered Accountant, Bank Branch Manager, CGA(Certified General Accountant), Senior Accountant, Financial Analyst, Bookkeeper, Staff Accountant, Tax Manager, Tax Accountant, General Auditor, Forensic accountant and more. Now let us check what are the roles and responsibilities in each sector.

Financial Controller

A financial controller is responsible to manage and control the financial section of an organisation or a company. They are considered as the head of the financial department. A financial controller manages financial statement, payroll, account payable, general ledger, account receivable, budgeting and so on.

Responsibilities:

- Prepare financial reports and income statements.
- Monitor financial data and internal controls.
- Involve in budget processing.
- Manage financial transactions and evaluate financial risk.

CMA(Certified Management Accountant)

CMA is a designation that can provide you with a high salary, career enhancement and excellent job opportunities. The CMA is responsible for the both accounting and administrative control of an organisation. They are also responsible for preparing reports for the management team regarding policies and procedures.

Chartered Accountant

Chartered Accountant is a reputed designation with a high salary. They are responsible for auditing the financial statement of an organisation.

Responsibilities:

- They are involved in financial activities such as tax planning, budget forecasting, financing and creating the book of accounts.
- They guide financial actions to boost organisational growth.
- Prepare simple bookkeeping for complex financial analysis.
- Keep track of the company's income and expenses.

Bank Branch Manager

A Bank branch manager work as part of a financial institution. They help in the growth of institutions by assisting employees, finance, credit details and more. They can guide individuals or organisations about financial risk on a particular project.

Responsibilities:

- Make clients understand their loan requirements.
- Analysis and verify client's financial information.
- Explain different financial investment options to clients.
- Present approval and rejection decision to management.

CGA(Certified General Accountant)

CGA in the department of expenditure is responsible for maintaining a sound management accounting system. They are responsible for the preparation and submission of the union government's accounts. They are in charge of exchequer control and internal audits. Ministries and departments seek financial advice from CGAs.

Senior Accountant

A Senior accountant control and verify all financial transaction of an organisation. They also manage a team of employees or junior accountants within an organisation.

Responsibilities:

- Verify accounts payable and receivables.
- Analysis of financial information.
- Manage assistants and bookkeepers.
- Assist tax audit and tax returns.
- Prepare financial statements.
- Prepare budget according to schedule.

Bookkeeper

Bookkeepers monitor and maintain the financial records of an organisation. Proper bookkeeping can help company functionalities such as operating, investing, financing decisions and detect any errors or frauds in the business. They maintain an accurate book on account payable and receivable, payroll and daily financial entries. They are also responsible to maintain and balance subsidiary accounts.

Tax Accountant

A Tax accountant guide clients and companies with financial and income tax statements.

Responsibilities:

- Prepare tax returns and analysis tax regulations.
- Monitor industry trends.
- Manage and maintain company's tax database.
- Guide during auditing processes.

Forensic Accountant

Forensic accountants investigate activities such as fraud money laundering, terrorist financing and also support in legal proceedings.

Are you an individual looking for a top highly paid accounting job? Then, SpotGiraffe an accounting and finance job portal. That can provide a wide list of highly paid accounting jobs in reputed companies.