

On Jan 20, 2023, child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, sent a follow-up “impeachment email” to House Speaker Cameron Sexton. The email was copied to Tennessee Republican and Democrat party leaders. On Jan 21, 2023, House Speaker Cameron Sexton did not disclose to 6.5 million Tennesseans that Gov. Bill Lee is protecting child sex abuse criminal activity, or that a request for the impeachment of Gov. Bill Lee was sent to the Tennessee General Assembly on Dec 29, 2022. From Jan 20 – Jan 22, 2023, Austin Davis received 20+ responses from Republican County Chairman across the state of Tennessee. Contrary to the opinion of at least one Republican County Chairman, two substantiated child sex abuse cover-up cases are not BS. For the public record, Gov. Bill Lee is still protecting former Williamson County Sheriff Jeff Long, and all those who harmed at least two little girls, and possibly others.

“Dad is super manipulative and has manipulated so many people. He even tries to convince me that I am being brainwashed by my mom and everything I remember never happened. He tries to scare me into thinking my mom’s house is unsafe. He knows how scared I am of robberies and kidnapping or getting taken from my mom. In fact, he took me away from my mom for years when I was just ending my kindergarten year. Later on he told me that I was never going back to my mom and that she was actually dead. I don’t remember when I found out that she was alive but I know Grant and I both believed she was dead for years because of him.” Gracie Solomon – A Cry For Help – May 12, 2021

On Aug 13, 2018, two Williamson County Sheriff Deputies helped Aaron Solomon gain physical control of 11-year old, Gracie Solomon. On the night of Aug 16 – 17, 2018, Gracie Solomon alleges her father, Aaron Solomon, raped her across state lines in Asheville, NC. On Aug 17, 2018, Williamson County Juvenile Magistrate Jacques Cabell ruled in favor of Aaron Solomon forcing 11-year old Gracie Solomon to drive back to North Carolina with the man who allegedly raped her the night before the court hearing. On Feb 19, 2020, Judge Deanna Johnson considered previous court rulings to rule in favor of Aaron Solomon five months before the brutal murder of Gracie’s older brother, Grant Solomon. To date, (Feb 16, 2023) Gov. Bill Lee is still protecting those who harmed Gracie Solomon with the power and force of the law. Gracie Solomon stated: “I have been involved in legal cases as long as I can remember and at least since I was six years old. Since then, I have never felt like the courts have listened to me or respected what I have told them. Every time that I have talked about what my father, Aaron Solomon, has done to me they have not done anything about it or done anything to help me.”

May 13, 2013 – Dec 12, 2014 - Divorce Court Rulings - Davidson County Judge Phillip Smith: “The Court finds that it has no choice but to enjoin and restrain Ms. Solomon from making any further referrals to the Department of Children Services regarding their minor children.”

May 4, 2018 – Angie Solomon text message to Williamson County Sheriff Jeff Long: “Hi Jeff. This is Angie. Hope you and your wife are well. The kids and I are in Williamson County now. I need to speak with you urgently please. I fear for my children’s lives and the children at their school. Could you possibly meet today?”

Aug 13, 2018 – Angie Solomon text message to Williamson County Sheriff Jeff Long, or someone under his authority: “Aaron just sent your deputies here to take the kids and if I had not let them go he as charging me w class b felony kidnapping. They went with your officers. He has them now.”

Aug 16 – Aug 17, 2018 – Freedom4 Gracie Timeline - Gracie Solomon sworn affidavit: The last time Aaron molested me I was 11. It was a few months before my twelfth birthday, and it happened in Asheville, North Carolina at the Holiday Inn Express.”

Aug 17, 2018 – Freedom4 Gracie Timeline: Magistrate Cabell holds a preliminary custody hearing. He refuses to watch Gracie’s video testimony and determines that Gracie and Grant will remain in their father’s custody.”

Aug 17, 2018 – Anna Smith Sworn Statement Addendum A: “Suddenly, Angie ran into the back room telling Gracie she had lost and Gracie had to go back with her dad. It was one of the most heartbreaking things I have ever experienced. Gracie clung to her mom and sobbed and begged for anyone to listen to her... Aaron Solomon’s attorney, showed absolutely zero sympathy and told Aaron, ‘Just go rip her off Angie right now and take her. She’s yours.’ He talked about Gracie like she was a piece of property to Aaron.”

Feb 19, 2020 - Williamson County Judge Deanna Johnson: “Lastly, the Court finds it is reasonable to impose pre-filing restrictions upon any civil action Ms. Angelia Solomon attempts to file as relates to Mr. Solomon for a period of 72 months.”

July 20, 2020: Five months after Judge Deanna Johnson’s draconian ruling, Grant Solomon was brutally murdered to cover-up child sex abuse, which is now substantiated. Per at least one witness at the hospital, Aaron Solomon told Angie Solomon “We’re going to be a family now.”

To date (Feb 16, 2023), Gov. Bill Lee is still protecting the Aaron Solomon substantiated child sex abuse cover-up, the cover-up of Grant Solomon's brutal murder, the John Perry substantiated child sex abuse cover-up, the cover-up of Steve McNair's rigged grand jury, and the cover-up of other rigged grand juries. Per Article III, Section 10 of the Tennessee Constitution, the Governor is responsible for the laws being faithfully executed in Tennessee: "He shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed."

"Cruel, criminal abuse of power will not be tolerated in the state of Tennessee." Gov. Bill Lee – Jan 26, 2023.

The Tennessee General Assembly and the Tennessee Supreme Court have been informed about the John Perry child sex abuse cover-up since Sept 2014, or possibly earlier. To listen to a 3-minute recording of Austin Davis speaking with the office of Senate Judiciary Chairman Brian Kelsey, please visit this link: <https://soundcloud.com/valglenn18/sen-kelseys-staff-sept-9-2014> If Sen. Brian Kelsey, or the Tennessee General Assembly, or the Tennessee Supreme Court, had done the right thing in Sept 2014, Grant Solomon would not have been brutally murdered in Gallatin, TN, on July 20, 2020.

To better understand the brutal murder of 18-year-old, Grant Solomon, the Tennessee General Assembly should review “Seven Minutes in Gallatin,” posted by child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, and the “Southern Injustice” video posted by retired Boston Police officer, Dale Lawrence, and Boston journalist, Dave Rattigan.

On Feb 6, 2023, Gov. Bill Lee addressed a joint convention of the Tennessee General Assembly to give his “State of the State Address.” As Gov. Bill Lee continued to protect substantiated child-molester, John Perry, Gov. Bill Lee described the courage and humility of Sgt. Alvin C. York: “Alvin C. York stood behind enemy lines on the Western Front. His platoon had suffered heavy casualties. In fact there were only seven men left with him and they were outnumbered by hundreds. But Sergeant York took command of the seven American soldiers and won the battle... After winning the battle in 1918, Sergeant Alvin C. York and his seven men marched back to American lines. York reported to his brigade commander, and in an effort to explain the unbelievable victory that he had just secured, York humbly said, “A higher power than man guided and watched over me.” (Note: Protected child-molester, John Perry, is a prominent Christian biographer who wrote, Sgt. To date (Feb 16, 2023), Gov. Bill Lee is still protecting President Donald J. "The Judiciary are the sole protection against a tyrannical execution of laws. But if by this system we lose our Judiciary, and they cannot help us, we must sit down quietly, and be oppressed... Why do we love this trial by jury? Because it prevents the hand of oppression from cutting you off. They may call anything rebellion, and deprive you of a fair trial by an impartial jury of your neighbors." June 20, 1788 - Founding Father Patrick Henry – Distant blood uncle of jailed child sex abuse whistleblower Austin Davis.

On Feb 6, 2023, Gov. Bill Lee kicked the tires on his potential future Presidential campaign by proclaiming to 331 million Americans that Tennessee (i.e., Gov. Bill Lee), is leading the nation: “In 2019, I stood in this chamber and said, “Tennessee can lead the nation. Tonight – standing on the shoulders of giants who came before us – I say with great pride that Tennessee is leading the nation... The American people know a leading state when they see one... If the rest of the country can learn one thing from leading states like Tennessee, it’s that when you trust your people, you’ll succeed. The most elite, most educated people don’t always know best – the everyday American people know best.”

Gov. Bill Lee seems to be providing a small glimpse of his Nashville strategy for a 2028 Presidential Campaign: 1) Establish Tennessee as the leading American state; 2) Build a new $2.1 billion Tennessee Titans stadium to host the Super Bowl; 3) Make a deal with the Nashville Metro Council to host the 2028 Republican National Convention.

Nashville to move forward with 2028 RNC and DNC bids – The Tennessean – Feb 17, 2023

On Feb 6, 2023, Gov. Bill Lee was proud to proclaim an achievement and new proposals: “We worked with the General Assembly to create 25 new forensic lab positions to help the TBI reduce the turnaround time for test kits. And we’re investing in District Attorneys, with additional funding for staff and a statewide system upgrade, so they can take dangerous criminals to trial and ensure that justice is served... We’re also proposing new funding to place at least one Homeland Security Agent in each of our 95 counties.” (Note: Ex-Williamson County Sheriff Jeff Long was appointed Homeland Security Commissioner by Gov. Bill Lee.)

In Memphis, at least one alleged sex predator was free on the streets of Memphis when the TBI forensic lab unit had an 11-month backlog on the testing of victim rape kits. As a result, a Memphis teacher and mother of two was kidnapped and brutally murdered by the alleged sex predator, who is now alleged to have kidnapped and brutally murdered Ms. Liza Fletcher. Former Memphian, Austin Davis, who was defamed, demonized, criminalized, and jailed by the State of Tennessee-- for the purpose of protecting a known child sex abuse predator-- was a MUS basketball teammate with Mr. Beasley Wellford, the father of Ms. Liza Fletcher: <https://www.keepandshare.com/doc15/25665/2022-1v-nov-1-mus-photo?da=y> As Gov. Bill Lee proclaimed his first-term achievement before 6.5 million Tennesseans, he did not share with citizens that he is still protecting two substantiated child sex abuse cover-ups, the brutal murder cover-up of 18-year-old, Grant Solomon, and the rigged grand jury of Tennessee Titans QB Steve McNair.

On Feb 6, 2023, as Gov. Bill Lee continued to protect two substantiated child sex abuse cover-ups, and the brutal murder cover-up of 18-year-old Grant Solomon, Gov. Bill Lee announced two pay raises for DCS caseworkers, and $190 million in additional resources for DCS: “Last year, we provided two pay raises for caseworkers, and I intend to boost their pay again in this budget. We’re also proposing more than $190 million in additional resources to support the mission at DCS and provide for the safety and well being of Tennessee children.” Question: Was Gov. Bill Lee arrogant and brazen to “buy off” DCS leadership during his “State of the State Address” to secure a “substantiated perpetrator” reversal on behalf of Aaron Solomon prior to an appeal hearing set for March 2023?

Tennessee Constitution – Article V – Impeachments - Section 1 – “The House of Representatives shall have the sole power of impeachment.” Section 4 – The Governor, judges of the Supreme Court... shall be liable to impeachment, whenever they may, in the opinion of the House of Representatives, commit any crime in their official capacity...”

On Feb 6, 2023, as two substantiated child sex abuse cover-ups and the Grant Solomon murder cover-up continued during Gov. Bill Lee's "State of the State Address," Gov. Bill Lee shook hands prior to his speech with his long-time Grace Chapel friend and political ally, Sen. Jack Johnson. Gov. Bill Lee also hugged Rep. William Lamberth after he finished his speech. Rep. William Lamberth is a state representative for parts of Sumner County, and an attorney who reportedly practices law in Gallatin, Tennessee, the county seat of Sumner County. Grant Solomon was brutally murdered in Gallatin, Tennessee, to cover-up the substantiated child sex abuse of his little sister, Gracie Solomon.

Question: Did Gov. and Mrs. Bill Lee, or Sen. and Mrs. Jack Johnson, ever reach out with compassion to Angie and Gracie Solomon after the brutal murder of 18-year-old Grant Solomon, a student in Gov. Lee's own private school-church community?

In Jan 2018, Candidate Bill Lee introduced himself to Tennesseans by telling voters about his first wife's tragic, fatal "horse accident." The Tennessean noted in an article on July 12, 2018: "He mentions his stances on business and policy but fast forwards to his personal tragedy-- the death of his first wife of 16 years, Carol Ann. It is an unusual and sometimes awkward stump speech early in his bid for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. But the story is a central anecdote Lee has repeated across the state as he has introduced himself to voters in the year that's followed."

Bill Lee's 1st campaign ad in 2018

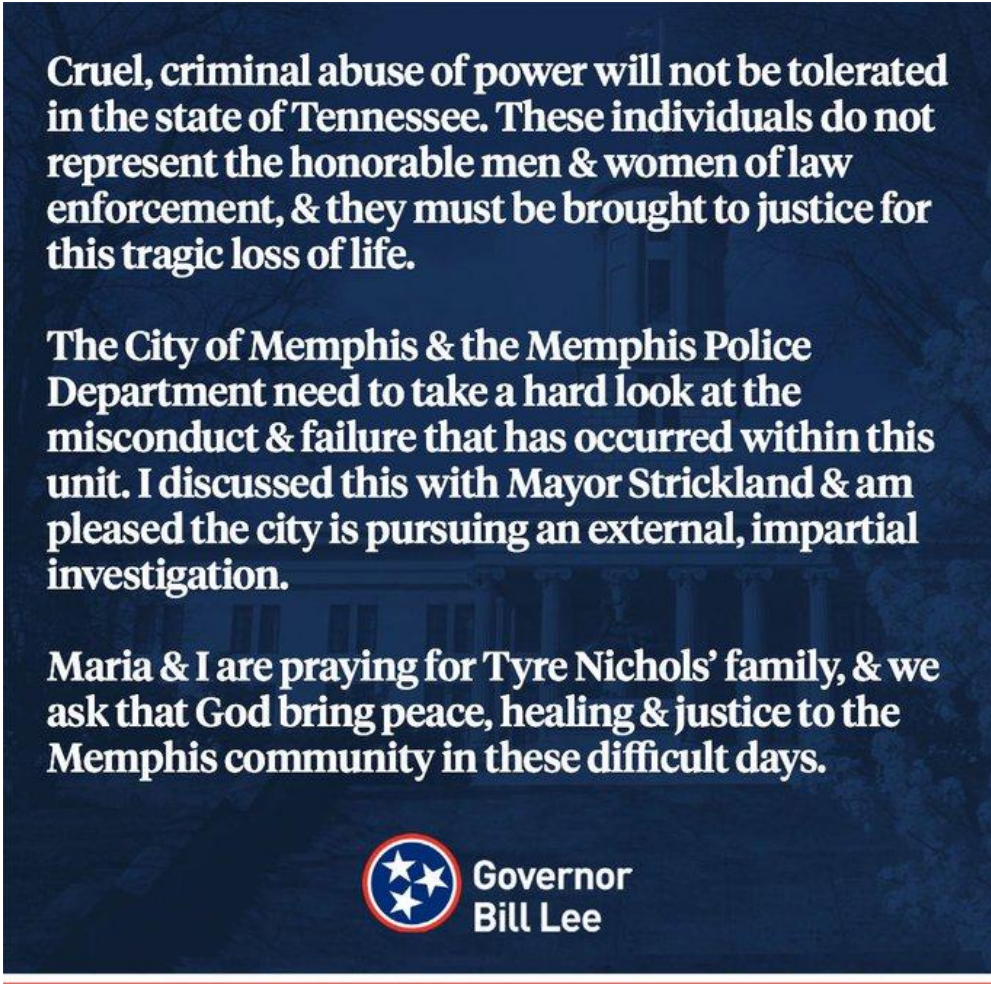

Candidate Bill Lee – 1st campaign ad in 2018

In Candidate Lee's first TV campaign ad, Bill Lee explained to Tennessee voters: "I waved good-bye to Carol Ann and my four-year old as they rode off on horseback. I found my daughter, later, crying alone. And then I found Carol Ann. Her horse had thrown her. She lived for three days." To watch Candidate Bill Lee's first campaign ad, select this link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=s9BjlwQYIT4>

In July 2020, Aaron Solomon explained to a 911 dispatcher: "My son's truck backed over him and drug him into the ditch and it is on top of him. He's trapped under the truck." Approximately 8 days after the brutal murder of 18-year-old Grant Solomon, Aaron Solomon returned to the Gallatin murder scene to stretch out on the rocks to reenact the body position of murder victim, Grant Solomon. Aaron Solomon's loyal friend, Sam Johnson, held a rock near Aaron's head as Aaron Solomon calmly explained to Grant's grieving mother: "He's fully underneath the truck... The right front tire is probably about where Sam's knee is, or right in here..." To watch Aaron Solomon and Sam Johnson mislead a grieving mother about the final position of Grant's body, go here: https://www.instagram.com/p/CQCW6_csdzm/?hl=en

Bill Lee’s greatest strength seems to be communicating to ordinary people that he is an empathetic, caring politician who genuinely cares about every person. On Jan 26, 2023, Gov. Bill Lee released a public statement stating: “Maria and I are praying for Tyre Nichols family, & we ask that God bring peace, healing & justice to the Memphis community in these difficult days.” In the same public statement, Gov. Lee also projected a tough public image saying: “Cruel, criminal abuse of power will not be tolerated in the state of Tennessee.” In two Memphis cases, the Tyre Nichols case, and the Liza Fletcher case, Gov. Bill Lee has projected a public image that he truly cares about families and victims of crime. However, Gov. Bill Lee has demonstrated no genuine care, or concern at all, for substantiated child sex abuse victim, Gracie Solomon, or her 18-year-old murdered brother, Grant Solomon, who were part of Gov. Lee’s own small community at Grace Chapel Church and GCA (Grace Christian Academy).

On Jan 31, 2023, Mayor John Cooper made a surprise announcement that he was not running for reelection. Email records and an audio recording prove that Mayor John Cooper was well informed about police corruption, Steve McNair's rigged grand jury, a child sex abuse cover-up spider web, and a Belmont University student who provided child sex abuse cover-up information to Candidate Bill Lee during the 2018 election campaign.

A Belmont University student was acquainted with the Manning and McNair families via friends of the family and WNSL youth sports. Before the student learned about Steve McNair's rigged grand jury, the Belmont student informed Candidate Bill Lee about the John Perry child sex abuse cover-up on July 26, 2018. Two days earlier, on July 24, 2018, former CPA teacher, Maria Lee, was informed of a major cover-up scandal that involved people that Candidate Bill Lee most likely knew. Daisy,

It was great to meet your dad, I am grateful he took the time to come out and listen to my vision for our state. Thank you for the info, I'll be sharing it with my policy team.

Thanks for the note.

To learn more about First Lady Maria Lee, Christ Presbyterian Academy, CPA Headmaster Richard Anderson, and protected child-molester John Perry, select the link below. (Note: It is possible CPA father, Bill Lee, knew about the John Perry child sex abuse cover-up as early as the summer of 2007, or possibly as far back as 2000, via his Covenant – Christ Presbyterian- Men of Valor relationships, or via his wife, Maria Dinenna, who was a CPA teacher, or via his children who were classmates with John Perry’s son and Victim #1, or via former CPA Headmaster Richard Anderson. John Perry’s Victim #1 left CPA so it is possible that CPA Headmaster Richard Anderson knew about John Perry’s child sex abuse, just as GCA educators knew about the alleged child sex abuse of 11-year old Gracie Solomon. Victim #1’s new school knew about the child sex abuse in July 2007, per Victim #1’s sworn interrogatories. But protected child molester, John Perry, was not reported to Nashville Police or DCS.)

Question: Does Burke Nihill know John Perry, Ken Raetz, and/or Aaron Solomon?

To date (Feb 16, 2023), five rock-solid facts are now certain about Gov. Bill Lee's first term as Tennessee Governor: 1) Candidate Bill Lee knew about the John Perry substantiated child sex abuse cover-up on July 28, 2018, prior to being elected Tennessee Governor on Nov 6, 2018, and possibly as early as 2008, or earlier. 2) Gov. Bill Lee knew about the Aaron Solomon abuse allegations as early as Aug 8, 2022, or possibly during the 2018 gubernatorial campaign. 3) Gov. Bill Lee knew about the Grant Solomon's potential murder cover-up as early as Aug 8, 2022, or possibly as early as May 12, 2021, when 14-year-old GCA student, Gracie Solomon appeared in a YouTube video stating: "My father is a monster... He's a rapist. He's a monster. He's a liar. And he's a killer;" 4) Gov. Bill Lee was provided information multiple times about Steve McNair's rigged grand jury, and other rigged grand juries, but he places his "trust" in the integrity of the Tennessee Judicial System. 5) Gov. Bill Lee appointed Williamson County Sheriff Jeff Long as Homeland Security Commissioner.

Per the Freedom4Grace timeline, two months before Candidate Bill Lee was informed on July 26, 2018, about protected child-molester, John Perry, Angie Solomon sent a desperate text to Williamson County Sheriff Jeff Long on May 4, 2018: “Hi Jeff. This is Angie. Hope you and your wife are well. The kids and I are in Williamson County now. I need to speak with you urgently please. I fear for my children’s lives and the children at their school. Could you possibly meet today?”

Question: Is it reasonable to ask if Gov. Bill Lee appointed former Williamson County Sheriff Jeff Long to be the Safety and Homeland Security Commissioner as a political “payoff” for the sheriff’s protection of Gov. Bill Lee during a Grace Chapel – GCA child sex abuse cover-up prior to the Nov 6, 2018 election?

To date (Feb 16, 2023), Gov. Bill Lee and Homeland Security Commissioner Jeff Long are still protecting WSMV TV, Pastor Steve Berger, accused murderer and substantiated child molester, Aaron Solomon, and the Tennessee Judicial System. Question: Was Gracie Solomon or anyone else ever drugged with a drink to accomplish a rape?

"My father is a monster... He's a rapist. He's a monster. He's a liar. And he's a killer." Gracie Solomon – A Cry For Help – May 12, 2021.

On or about, May 8, 2018, per the sworn court affidavit of Grace Chapel and Ambassador Services International Founder Steve Berger, Pastor Steve Berger claimed he met privately with 16-year-old Grant Solomon to discuss spiritual matters and how Grant Solomon could grow closer to Christ: "I did meet with Grant Solomon on or about May 8, 2016, at 11:30 am. We met privately in my office. Our conversation consisted of a discussion of spiritual matters, namely how Grant could grow closer to Christ. At no time in this meeting (or otherwise) did Grant report to me any sexual abuse allegations of any kind involving his sister, his father, or any other person. At no time in this meeting (or otherwise) did Grant express to me that he was afraid of his father or that his father had abused him or Gracie in any way whatsoever. As a mandatory reporter, I would have had the obligation to report any allegation of abuse to the proper authorities. I take this responsibility very seriously and would have promptly reported any such allegations if they had been made. At some point in time after my meeting with Grant, I learned that Angie Solomon had reported abuse to an employee of Grace Chapel on April 30, 2018. That employee accompanied Ms. Solomon to the Williamson County Sheriff's Department to make a report of allegations on May 4, 2018, and an investigator was assigned to the case. At no time did Grant mention anything to me about his mother's trip to the Sheriff's Department or any claims of abuse."

Pastor Steve Berger admitted in his sworn affidavit that he met privately with Grant Solomon, on or about, May 8, 2014. Pastor Steve Berger also admitted he later learned that Angie Solomon had reported allegations of abuse to an employee of Grace Chapel on April 30, 2018. Pastor Berger also admitted that the same unidentified employee accompanied Angie Solomon to the Williamson County Sheriff's Department to make a report of the allegations on May 4, 2018, four days before Pastor Steve Berger met privately with Grant Solomon. Per at least one source, Angie Solomon went to meet Sheriff Jeff Long with Steve Berger's former personal assistant, Patti Tremblay. On May 4, 2018, per the Freedom4Gracie timeline, Angie Solomon further opened up with Patti Tremblay to share information about the abuse in her family. Patti Tremblay told Angie Solomon that Grace Chapel Pastor Steve Berger controlled Grace Christian Academy (GCA) and the campus: "Patti tells Angie that the GCA Headmaster, Robbie Mason, won't do anything about this and that GCA and the campus are controlled by Steve Berger."

Gov. Bill Lee

Pastor Steve Berger

With 20/20 hindsight, it seems reasonable to consider that Grace Chapel employee, Patti Tremblay, would have been dutiful to inform her church boss, Pastor Steve Berger, of any serious allegations, just as she apparently was dutiful to invite Grace Chapel – GCA Security Director, Bill Woodward, to hear Angie Solomon's concerns prior to accompanying Angie Solomon to the Williamson County Sheriff's Office. Per at least one source, Patti Tremblay is the person who suggested and set up the May 8th meeting between 16-year old Grant Solomon, and Pastor Steve Berger. Based upon Pastor Steve Berger's own sworn affidavit, possibly a Williamson County Sheriff Office record, and at least one source, Patti Tremblay was the unidentified person who told Pastor Berger about the allegations and the meeting at the Williamson County Sheriff's Department. Also, Pastor Steve Berger stated that he learned about the abuse allegations and the Williamson County Sheriff meeting "sometime later" after his private meeting with Grant Solomon, on or about, May 8, 2018. With 20-20 hindsight, it seems reasonable to speculate that such an important disclosure by Patti Tremblay would have occurred within 24 hours of the May 4th meeting with the Williamson County Sheriff's Department, or within no later than a week (May 11). Also, at least one source states Grant Solomon did not seek the meeting with Pastor Steve Berger. Question: Did Pastor Steve Berger instruct Patti Tremblay to set up the meeting with Grant Solomon for the secret purpose of gathering child sex abuse info for Candidate Bill Lee, and to initiate "crisis management" of Angie, Gracie and Grant Solomon within the Grace Chapel – GCA community?

On July 25, 2020, Pastor Steve Berger told a grieving audience at Grant Solomon's "Celebration of Life" Service that ninth grade student, Grant Solomon, made an appointment to see him to talk about Jesus: "I don't know, it was two or three years ago. Listen, you just never get a ninth grader making an appointment with you to talk about Jesus as a crusty old grey-haired preacher. And Grant did, and he sat in my office for well over an hour, and just wanted to know how he could draw closer to Christ. Stands out to me." To watch Pastor Berger, visit the 2:38:24 time mark at this link: https://www.facebook.com/watch/live/?ref=watch_permalink&v=2328012120841903

Pastor Steve Berger was careful and precise to avoid restating the "Grant made an appointment" story in his sworn affidavit filed in Federal Court on behalf of accused murderer and substantiated child-molester, Aaron Solomon. Based upon at least one source, Grant Solomon did not seek out the appointment with Pastor Steve Berger as Pastor Berger stated during the "Celebration of Life" service. Instead, the appointment was allegedly arranged by Pastor Steve Berger's personal assistant, Patti Tremblay, following the May 4, 2018 meeting with Angie Solomon and Williamson County Sheriff Jeff Long. Per Steve Berger's sworn affidavit, Pastor Steve Berger did meet privately with Grant Solomon but no details were given about how the meeting was initiated: "I did meet with Grant Solomon on or about May 8, 2018, at 11:30 am. We met privately in my office. Our conversation consisted of a discussion of spiritual matters, namely how Grant could grow closer to Christ. At no time in this meeting (or otherwise) did Grant report to me any sexual abuse allegations of any kind involving his sister, his father, or any other person. At no time in this meeting (or otherwise) did Grant express to me that he was afraid of his father or that his father had abused him or Gracie in any way whatsoever."

Commissioner Jeff Long Gov. Bill Lee

With 20-20 hindsight, it seems reasonable to ask if Patti Tremblay and Bill Woodward were helping Pastor Steve Berger obtain information for “crisis management - damage control” to protect Grace Chapel Church, Grace Christian Academy, and Gov. Bill Lee’s gubernatorial campaign. Per the Grace Christian Academy website, Patti Tremblay is currently the Assistant to Head School and High School Front Desk Administrative Assistant. Per at least one source, Patti Tremblay was at one time Pastor Steve Berger’s administrative assistant. In 2018, Bill Woodward was the Grace Chapel – GCA Security Director for the campus. Prior to becoming the Grace Chapel – GCA Security Director, it appears that Bill Woodward possibly was a security expert, or security director for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

To date (Feb 16, 2023), Pastor Steve Berger still stands 100% behind his sworn affidavit, but his powerful attorney, Todd McMurtry, informed Austin Davis via email that he has “no involvement in this matter.” Also, Pastor Steve Berger and Gov. Bill Lee still seem to be strong allies during two substantiated child sex abuse cover-ups, and the Grant Solomon brutal murder cover-up. However, Pastor Steve Berger was not present to perform the inauguration invocation for Gov. Bill Lee on Jan 21, 2023, as he did at the first Gov. Lee inauguration on Jan 19, 2019. Apparently, Pastor Steve Berger has been very busy with his new ASI ministry which is focused on ministering to national, and international government leaders: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NCVMU4ux44s> . National leaders would include past and potential GOP Presidential Primary candidates, U.S. Senators, U.S. Representatives, Capitol staff, and other Federal government employees in Washington, DC, and serving overseas. On Feb. 1, 2023, Pastor Steve Berger was a prayer leader at a national repentance event, along with U. S. House Speaker Kevin McCarthy, and U.S. House Majority Leader Steve Scalise, and other prominent leaders. On Feb 7, 2023, Pastor Steve Berger provided a spiritual “State of the Union Address” in front of the U.S. Capitol.

“Good morning everybody from the nation’s capitol. As you can see, I am standing out here in front Capitol Building. Tonight is the President’s State of the Union Address, and, just to give a bit of spiritual State of the Union Address, uh, the United States of America is in desperate need to repent of her many sins, and to cry out to God, and to ask God to heal our nation. I want to encourage you to spend some time praying for the country today, praying for our leaders. Pray that America would return to God. Pray that God would give someone the word like he gave to the ancient prophet Jonah, who with just eight words, shook the entire nation, had Nineveh on its knees in sackcloth and ashes, crying out to God with the simple message that in 40 days Nineveh shall be destroyed. Eight simple words saved a nation. May God give someone in the body of Christ the word that would shake this country to the core, away from sin, and toward the Lord Jesus Christ. May God do something supernatural, miraculous in America. Join Sarah and I as we pray together for God to do a great work in America. God bless you. We look forward to seeing you all soon. Take care.”

Per the Freedom4Gracie timeline, on May 16, 2018, Angie Solomon contacted Pastor Steve Berger's trusted elder at Grace Chapel, Attorney Kurt Beasley. Angie Solomon wrote in an email: "I have been referred to you by Patti Trembley. I am concerned for the lives of myself and my children. I have attached the last conversation held with my former husband. It was Monday at 2:27 pm. There is a larger back story here. Would you be able to find time for me this week?" Per the Freedom4Gracie timeline, Grace Chapel Elder Kurt Beasley told her there is "nothing he can do." Question: Did Grace Chapel Elder Kurt Beasley inform Pastor Steve Berger, and/or Grace Chapel Member and Candidate Bill Lee about Angie Solomon's "larger back story," or a 2nd child sex abuse cover-up connected to CPA father John Perry, and the 2008 Mike Huckabee Presidential campaign? (Note: Gov. Bill Lee was a CPA class father with John Perry. Maria Lee was a 3rd grade teacher when John Perry's victim #1 and Bill Lee's twin boys were all in 3rd grade at CPA led by CPA Headmaster Richard Anderson. In July 2020, Richard Anderson was the GCA High School Principal when Grant Solomon was brutally murdered. In Jan 2008, Kurt Beasley was with Gov. Mike Huckabee the night he won the Iowa Primary. John Perry was Gov. Mike Huckabee's co-author and ghostwriter on two books published in 2007-2008. The John Perry child sex abuse cover-up was at least six months in progress when Candidate Mike Huckabee won the Iowa Primary in Jan 2008. Question: Do Kurt Beasley and John Perry know each other?).

Question: Did Attorney Kurt Beasley provide Candidate Mike Huckabee with any John Perry - child sex abuse cover-up strategy after the upset Iowa victory in Jan 2008?

Per the Freedom4Gracie timeline, on July 9, 2018, two months after Grace Chapel elder, Kurt Beasley, told Angie Solomon there was nothing he could do for her, and two months after Angie Solomon met with Williamson County Sheriff Jeff Long, Williamson County Sheriff Detective Tameka Sanders arranged for Gracie and Grant Solomon to have a forensic interview with the Davis House Child Advocacy Center. Detective Sanders contacted Gov. Bill Haslam's DCS agency after the forensic interviews and was apparently told not to investigate further. The Gracie and Grant Solomon forensic interviews took place about twenty-four days before the Republican Governor Primary Election on Aug 2, 2018. To date (Feb 16, 2023) it is unknown if anyone in the Haslam administration encouraged DCS not to investigate Gracie Solomon's allegations prior to the Aug 2nd Republican Primary. On Aug 2, 2018, Candidate Bill Lee won the Republican Primary during the same period of time when Gracie and Grant Solomon ran away to escape from their father, former WSMV TV news anchor, Aaron Solomon. On the night of Aug 2, 2018, the child sex abuse allegations of Gracie Solomon were unreported to the public and Candidate Bill Lee was able to easily focus and prepare to face off against former Nashville Mayor Karl Dean in a statewide gubernatorial election on Nov 6, 2018.

Sealed Juvenile Court Testimony

Per the Freedom4Gracie timeline, on Aug 13, 2018, Angie Solomon apparently informed Sheriff Long or someone under Sheriff Long's authority: "Aaron just sent your deputies here to take the kids and if I had not let them go he as charging me w class be felony kidnapping. They went with your officers. He has them now." On Aug 17, 2018, fifteen days after Candidate Bill Lee won the Republican gubernatorial primary, a Mann Act Federal rape crime was allegedly committed by Aaron Solomon against 11-year-old Gracie Solomon in a hotel room in Asheville, NC. The alleged Federal rape crime occurred as the race between Bill Lee and Karl Dean was just beginning, and about three months before Bill Lee easily defeated Karl Dean by a 60% to 40% vote to become TN Governor. On Aug 17, 2018, the morning after the alleged rape, Gracie Solomon returned with her father to Williamson County for a juvenile court hearing. The juvenile hearing was most likely sealed from public access, but the Freedom4Gracie timeline states that Juvenile Magistrate Jacques Cabell refused to watch "Gracie's video testimony" and ruled that Gracie and Grant would remain in the custody of accused child molester, Aaron Solomon. Per the timeline, a month later, on Sept 16, 2018, Judge Cabell agreed to watch the "Forensic Interview" he had refused to view the month before. After watching some of the video, Judge Cabell stated, "I've seen enough," prior to allowing Gracie to be with her mother. Also, Gracie Solomon and Anna Smith both provided sworn affidavits stating that Gracie shared details of the alleged Asheville rape within a short period of time. At the present time (Feb 16, 2023) it is unknown if any sworn testimony about the sex abuse or alleged Mann Act Federal crime is sealed by the Williamson County Juvenile Court, but the sealing of sworn testimony by the State of TN possibly serves to further protect substantiated child molester and accused murderer, Aaron Solomon. Question: Did any judge, court officer, or anyone connected to the Williamson County Court System, or the Williamson County Sheriff's Office, or the Grace Chapel – GCA Community, inform Candidate Bill Lee about Gracie Solomon's child sex abuse allegations during the 2018 gubernatorial campaign?

“Gov. Lee has put great faith in me to lead the department and carry out the public safety priorities of the new administration. I will do everything in my power to maintain the integrity and professionalism of the department while continuing to ensure the security and safety of all Tennesseans.” Safety and Homeland Security Commissioner Jeff Long - Jan 19, 2019.

After Gov. Bill Lee was elected on Nov 6, 2018, Gov. Bill Lee appointed Williamson County Sheriff Jeff Long to be his Safety and Homeland Security Commissioner. Three years later, on Nov 26, 2021, Ms. Melanie Hicks sent a letter to Gov. Bill Lee requesting an investigation into the potential murder of 18-year-old Grant Solomon. On Dec. 2, 2021, Austin Davis provided the Tennessee Supreme Court a copy of the same 6-page letter, but the Dec 2nd file-stamped “error” motion with a copy of the 6-page letter (Exhibit 1), was surprisingly returned to Austin Davis a few days later via U.S. Mail. On Feb. 3, 2022, nineteen months after the brutal murder of Grant Solomon, news reporter Alex Willis asked Gov. Bill Lee during a press conference if he had received the 6-page letter from Ms. Melanie Hicks. Gov. Bill Lee was careful choosing his words: “So, uh, whenever I receive a letter like that, and it’s been several months, I may have received a letter... with regard to that, then, that letter moves on to our, either Department of Safety, appropriately so, or legal services, to determine if there is any reason for our engagement there, and I, I, trust the investigative process there, and wouldn’t have anything else to say about that.” Gov. Bill Lee did not provide reporter Alex Willis with the name of former Safety and Homeland Security Commissioner Jeff Long, or identify that Williamson County Sheriff Jeff Long was the same person who spoke to Angie Solomon about the safety of Gracie and Grant Solomon on May 4, 2018. But Gov. Lee did make a specific point to emphasize that it was “appropriate” for the 6-page letter to be given to the Safety and Homeland Security Department run by Commissioner Jeff Long. To date (Feb 16, 2023), Homeland Security Commissioner Jeff Long has not responded to the investigation request sent by Ms. Melanie Hicks. To watch Gov. Bill Lee’s exchange with Alex Willis, select this link:

To date (Feb 16, 2023), it is unknown if the Tennessee Supreme Court justices ever received or read the Dec 2nd "error" motion with Exhibit 1 (Melanie Hicks 6-page letter to Gov. Lee). The file-stamped "error" motion was never scanned and entered into the Tennessee Supreme Court public case history file posted on the internet as was done with all other motions filed in multiple cases since 2013. Per the Freedom4Gracie timeline, Angie Solomon expressed her concerns to former Williamson County Sheriff Jeff Long on May 4, 2018, and she also expressed her concerns to Grace Chapel-GCA Director of Campus Security, Bill Woodward. To date (Feb 16, 2023), it is unknown if Bill Woodward ever provided information about Grant and Gracie Solomon to Gov. Bill Lee, the Bill Lee extended family, or to the Bill Lee gubernatorial campaign staff. With 20-20 hindsight, it would seem reasonable to question if Grace Chapel-GCA Director of Campus Security, Bill Woodward, possibly provided information about Grant and Gracie Solomon to GCA Headmaster Robbie Mason, Grace Chapel Pastor Steve Berger, Grace Chapel Elder Kurt Beasley, Grace Chapel Financial Leader Reese Smith, and/or other leaders within the GCA – Grace Chapel Church community.

Per the Freedom4Gracie timeline, on or about May 4, 2018, Angie Solomon informed Security Director Bill Woodward about Aaron Solomon’s alleged misconduct and private messaging to other children at school. In response, Bill Woodward said he would speak with Judge Deanna Johnson. Later, Bill Woodward called Angie Solomon to report back that Judge Deanna Johnson said she “can only help us if your file comes across her desk.” Prior to Steve Berger’s resignation from Grace Chapel in Aug 2021, Judge Deanna Johnson attended Grace Chapel along with her husband, Republican Sen. Jack Johnson, Gov. Bill Lee, Lee Beaman, Michael W. Smith, Sam Johnson, and protected child-molester Aaron Solomon. Per the sworn affidavit of GCA student Anna Smith, Grant Solomon told Anna Smith in 8th grade (2016-2017) that Aaron Solomon had been molesting Gracie Solomon for many years, prior to the alleged Mann Act Federal rape crime in Asheville, NC. Grant Solomon shared this child sex abuse information with Anna Smith during the 8th grade GCA school year around the same period of time when Candidate Bill Lee announced he was running for Governor of Tennessee in April 2017. With 20-20 hindsight, and with Grant, Gracie and Angie Solomon speaking out to expose Aaron Solomon’s child sex abuse (now substantiated), it now seems reasonable to conclude the alleged repeated child sex abuse of 11-year-old GCA student, Gracie Solomon, was a viable threat to the political ambitions of Grace Chapel member, Bill Lee. (Note: On May 7 or May 8, 2018, Bill Woodward offered his office to Gracie and Grant as a “safe place to hide” after he spoke with Angie Solomon, on or about, May 4, 2018.)

Question: Does Bill Woodward know former Los Angeles Dodgers Hitting Coach, Turner Ward, who is co-owner of Ward Performance Institute where 18-year-old Grant Solomon was brutally murdered?

Grace Chapel-GCA Security Director, Bill Woodward, relayed to Angie Solomon what he learned from Judge Deanna Johnson. However, Angie Solomon was so discouraged and intimidated by her devastating experience in the court of Davidson County Judge Phillip Smith that she did not take the recommended action to file a motion with the Williamson County Circuit Court system until Feb 2019. As she delayed taking action, on August 13, 2018, Aaron Solomon sent two Williamson County Sheriff deputies to regain physical control of Grant and Gracie Solomon, who had run away from Aaron Solomon during the early part of August 2018. In desperation, Grant Solomon reportedly told his mother: “Mom, do something.” The next day, Aug 14, 2018, Angie Solomon filed a “Dependent Neglect - Temporary Restraining Order” petition with the Williamson County juvenile system which was assigned to Juvenile Magistrate Jacques Cabell, initiating a process which included sex abuse allegations similar to what had been filed in Davidson County. Two days later, on the night of Aug 16-17, 2018, in what appears to be a possible act of power-based retaliation, Gracie Solomon alleges that her father, Aaron Solomon, raped her in a hotel room in Asheville, NC, in violation of the Federal Mann Act child sex abuse law.

Grant and Gracie Solomon

The morning after the alleged rape, Gracie Solomon immediately returned with her father to Williamson County for a juvenile court hearing. The juvenile court hearing was most likely sealed from public access, but the Freedom4Gracie timeline states that Juvenile Magistrate Jacques Cabell refused to watch “Gracie’s video testimony” and ruled that Gracie and Grant would remain in the custody of accused child molester, Aaron Solomon. Per the timeline, a month later, on Sept 16, 2018, Judge Cabell agreed to watch the “Forensic Interview” he refused to view the month before. After watching some of the video, Judge Cabell stated, “I’ve seen enough,” prior to allowing Gracie to be with her mother. Also, Gracie Solomon and Anna Smith both provided sworn affidavits stating that Gracie spoke of the alleged Asheville rape within a short period of time after the alleged crime. At the present time (Feb 16, 2023) it is unknown if any sworn testimony about the alleged Mann Act Federal child sex abuse rape is sealed by the Williamson County Juvenile Court, but the sealing of sworn testimony by the State of TN possibly serves to further protect substantiated child molester and accused murderer, Aaron Solomon. Tragically, as 11-year-old Gracie Solomon continued to suffer from the trauma of repeated child sexual abuse (now substantiated), Candidate Bill Lee continued to drive his RV across state campaigning for governor in 95 counties.

On Aug 17, 2018, after allegedly being raped a few hours earlier, Gracie Solomon departed Asheville, NC to return for a hearing before Williamson County Juvenile Magistrate Jacques Cabell. Based upon Gracie's YouTube video (A Cry For Help), Gracie Solomon had a heinous, horrific experience at the Asheville hotel, and at the Williamson County Courthouse: "We were in North Carolina for one of Grant's baseball tournament games. When my dad said we had to go back home for court, it was only my dad and I. Grant stayed. We stopped at a hotel room in Asheville. My dad only got one bed when I asked for two. It made me really nervous before we even got in a hotel room. When we went to bed, I remember him getting slowly closer to me until I was on the edge of the bed. I kept waking up by feeling his feet rub against mine. I kept waking up and then finally realized I felt something hard on my lower back close to my butt. I drew an illustration of what it was like. I felt really scared and knew it was wrong. At court, dad's attorney got inches away from my face and tried to manipulate me into thinking what my dad did to me didn't really happen by saying, "Do you really think your dad would do something like that? Do you actually remember that happening? He was so close to me that I could smell his cigarette breath and his tongue really scared me. I learned I had to go back to North Carolina with my dad, I was completely broken and didn't want to stop hugging my mom. He told my dad to pull me off her and leave because he could."

Gracie Solomon

Anna Smith

Per Anna Smith's sworn affidavit and Addendum A: "Throughout our high school years, Grant and I stayed close (I had also become very close with Gracie) and I had the opportunity to testify for both of him and Gracie, or so I thought. Grant was playing baseball in North Carolina and was unable to be in court. I waited for hours with Wynn Hicks and Gracie in order to testify for them. Suddenly, Angie ran into the back room telling Gracie she had lost and Gracie had to go back with her dad. It was one of the most heartbreaking things I have ever experienced. Gracie clung to her mom and sobbed and begged for anyone to listen to her. Aaron screamed at her and told her she had no choice and she was leaving with him to go back to North Carolina. Angie and Gracie both fell to their knees, completely broken, Scott Parsley, Aaron Solomon's attorney, showed absolutely zero sympathy and told Aaron, "Just go rip her off Angie right now and take her. She's yours." He talked about Gracie like she was a piece of property to Aaron (Grant had told me many times how despicable Scott Parsley is and how Parsley is willing to do ANYTHING to win a case). The court system had yet again failed and a child was once again placed into the hands on an abuser."

Note: The Williamson County Juvenile hearing is most likely sealed, but it appears that Gracie Solomon did not take the witness stand to testify on Aug 17, 2018. Question: Did Aaron Solomon's attorney, Scott Parsley, gaslight and intimidate a 14-year-old witness in the courtroom or somewhere else in the court building or the public property within 24 hours of the alleged Mann Act Federal rape crime in Asheville, NC?

Per the Freedom4Gracie timeline, about twelve days after the alleged rape of 11-year-old Gracie Solomon, on or about Aug 29, 2018, Aaron Solomon reportedly told his 11-year-old daughter: "If we don't do what the courts say, the police might come and take your mom to prison... You guys are breaking the rules." Two days after Aaron Solomon reportedly told his 11-year daughter that her mom could go to prison, Gracie Solomon fled from Aaron Solomon to the office of GCA Elementary Headmistress, Rona Branson, on August 31, 2018. Gracie Solomon frantically sent a message to her mother, and she also took a very courageous step to trust another "authority figure" after years of not being believed. GCA elementary student, Gracie Solomon, spoke out again to expose abuse allegations about her father to a major authority school figure, GCA Headmistress Rona Branson. In response, Rona Branson informed GCA Headmaster Robbie Mason of the Aaron Solomon – Gracie Solomon problem, and GCA Headmaster Robbie Mason instructed 11-year-old, Gracie Solomon, to get in her father's car, forcing her into the custody of the accused child molester: "That's old news Gracie, now get in the car with your dad!"

In subsequent weeks after Gracie Solomon disclosed her “old news” allegations to GCA Elementary Headmistress Rona Branson, GCA began using an app for students to make anonymous reports to school authorities. An older student at GCA, Anna Smith, used the app to make a report of her concerns about Grant and Gracie. A GCA mother passed on information to GCA Counselor Amy Curle about a previous 2014 incident at her house with concerns that Gracie Solomon was possibly being sexually abused in her father’s home. On Sept 16, 2018, Williamson County Juvenile Magistrate, Jacques Cabell, agreed to watch a “Forensic Interview” video he had refused to watch during the Aug 17th hearing the day after the alleged rape of Gracie Solomon in Asheville, NC. After watching some of the video, Judge Cabell said, “I’ve seen enough,” and he allowed for Gracie Solomon to be with her mother. Judge Cabell ruled that Grant would be with his father, and allegedly said that Grant was a “big boy” who could “take care of himself.” After the court ruling, Grant Solomon told his mother: “It’s ok, mom. If I go with him, he won’t be able to hurt Gracie.” On Sept 19, 2018, Grant went to Aaron Solomon’s house hoping to appease his dad since Gracie would not consent to see him. On Sept 20, 2018, Grant called a DCS worker to tell her “My dad is going to hurt us. I am afraid.” On Sept 21, 2018, Grant ran away from Aaron’s home and Aaron punished him by taking Grant’s truck away from him. Is damaging testimony against Aaron Solomon sealed by Tennessee Courts?

Per the Jan 25th Shannon Ashley Medium article, Grant Solomon was struggling with his attendance and class studies at GCA during the first month of school during the fall of 2018. On Oct 2, 2018, Angie Solomon emailed GCA Counselor Amy Curle to discuss Grant's grades and why Grant was missing school. On Oct 10, 2018, the Memphis Flyer published an article by Cari Wade Gervin entitled, A Look At Bill Lee's Uber-Conservative Home Church. The article stated: "Franklin millionaire businessman Bill Lee won a surprise upset during the GOP gubernatorial primary basically because he came across as a nice guy. He didn't run attack ads, and he traveled across the state in an RV twice, setting up highly scripted town halls in all 95 counties. He talks about his faith and how his love for Jesus got him through the worst time in his life, when his wife died in a tragic horse-riding accident. With 20-20 hindsight, If reporter Cari Wade Gervin had known about the alleged rape of an 11-year old GCA student in Asheville, NC, or if she had included the rape and child sex abuse allegations of Gracie Solomon in her Oct 10th article, it is doubtful that Candidate Bill Lee would have maintained his "nice guy" Christian image two days prior to his final debate with Mayor Karl Dean at Belmont University. (Note: Bill Lee is the uncle of a GCA senior who reportedly graduated in the spring-summer of 2018, a few months before 11-year-old, Gracie Solomon, was allegedly raped in a hotel room in Asheville, NC.)

On Nov 5, 2018, the day before the Tennessee gubernatorial election on Nov 6, 2018, GCA Headmistress Rona Branson and GCA Counselor Amy Curle pulled 12-year-old Gracie Solomon into a “private” meeting in what appears to be a crisis management meeting to “squash” Gracie Solomon’s “old news” child sex abuse allegations. Question: Was Pastor Steve Berger or GCA Headmaster Robbie Mason or Gov. Bill Lee or anyone in Grace Chapel – GCA Leadership concerned about Gracie Solomon’s “old news” child sex abuse allegations adversely affecting Gov. Bill Lee’s gubernatorial campaign, or his ability to govern after his expected election as Governor of Tennessee? To read an abbreviated transcript, see partial transcript below the photographs. To read the transcript within the Shannon Ashley – Medium source article, select this link: <https://medium.com/honestly-yours/what-grace-christian-academy-doesnt-want-you-to-know-f79fa9b81772>

Gov. Bill Lee – Grace Chapel – GCA Uncle
Was Bill Lee worried about “old news” harming his gubernatorial campaign?

Gracie Solomon – GCA Student – Substantiated Child Sex
Abuse Victim – Gov. Bill Lee has not expressed any genuine concern for this little girl, or her brutally murdered brother.

Rona: “... I’ve had three parents over the weekend that said, ‘My child came to me and asked what is sexual abuse?’ I’m talking about 10- and 11-year-olds...”

Rona: “ — how do we contain this...”

Amy: “We are trying to squash that. Like... we don’t want other students then going and talking to —”

Rona: “I just said, ‘Who have you talked to about this?’ You know, and we kinda played dumb...”

Amy: “How sensitive this is.”

Rona: “How sensitive it is. That’s what we tried to talk to Gracie about, ‘You need to choose who you talk to about this very carefully...’”

Amy: “We as all, as a group help contain this...”

Angie: “I really don’t, I really don’t know what to say other than I need to think about this. Um... I’ve worried about it since she was five. I worry about it today, I worry about it tomorrow, and God-willing, I’ll worry about it when she’s forty or fifty...”

To date, (Feb 16, 2023), it is unknown if Candidate Bill Lee’s brother, nephew, or his GCA-Grace Chapel family heard any of the “old news” gossip or rumors about the child sex abuse allegations made against Aaron Solomon since at least 2013 in the divorce case before Davidson County Judge Phillip Smith, or since the alleged rape in Asheville, NC, during the 2018 gubernatorial campaign. In 2018, as Gracie Solomon’s “old news” child sex abuse allegations were being discussed person-to-person, or via the new school app within the GCA-Grace Chapel community, some concerned GCA parents called GCA school leadership during the final days of the election campaign on the weekend of Nov 3 – Nov 4, 2018, or possibly sooner. In what appears to be an act of crisis management, GCA Headmistress Rona Branson and GCA Counselor Amy Curle pulled 12-year-old Gracie Solomon into a private conference on Nov 5, 2018, the day before the Tuesday gubernatorial election on Nov 6, 2018. Based on the audio recording, Rona Branson and Amy Curle were very interested in knowing “who” Gracie Solomon had told about her “old news” alleged child sex abuse. After Gracie met with GCA Headmistress Rona Branson and GCA Counselor Amy Curle, Gracie told her mother about the private meeting saying she felt ashamed, confused and silenced by the meeting. The next day on Nov. 6, 2018 (Election Day), Angie Solomon went to GCA and recorded her meeting with Rona Branson and Amy Curle. Rona Branson told Angie Solomon during the meeting: “We’re having parents reach out to us... I mean, I’ve had three parents over the weekend that said, ‘My child came to me and asked what is sexual abuse...” On Nov. 7, 2018, six months after 16-year-old Grant Solomon had a “private” meeting with Grace Chapel Pastor Steve Berger, and the day after Grace Chapel Member Bill Lee was elected as the 50th Governor of Tennessee, Grant Solomon also met and recorded GCA school officials because he was frustrated that no one was hearing or helping his family.

With 20-20 hindsight, it seems reasonable to question if any possible rumors, gossip or “school app tips” about the “old news” child sex abuse of Gracie Solomon within the GCA-Grace Chapel community resulted in the church, school or community members informing Gov. Bill Lee, First Lady Maria Lee, or someone in the Lee family, or on Lee’s campaign staff. On the surface, it appears that the “school app” used by “school authorities” was implemented more as an instrument to collect child sex abuse info, instead of an instrument to report child sex abuse to Tennessee authorities. GCA Headmaster Robbie Mason, GCA Elementary Headmistress Rona Branson, GCA Counselor Amy Curle, Grace Chapel Pastor Steve Berger, GOP Sen. Jack Johnson, Judge Deanna Johnson, Michael W. Smith, Grace Chapel – GCA Security Director Bill Woodward, Grace Chapel Elder Kurt Beasley, substantiated child-molester Aaron Solomon, Sam Johnson, Bill Lee’s brother and nephew, are a few of the individuals who possibly heard some “old news” gossip or rumors about the rape and child sex abuse allegations, and who may have possibly passed on the “old news” rape and child sex abuse allegations to Candidate Bill Lee, Bill Lee’s family, or the Bill Lee Campaign staff, prior to Nov 6, 2018.

After Gov. Bill Lee was inaugurated on Jan 19, 2019, Angie Solomon continued to seek help from the Tennessee Judicial System. On May 1, 2019, Angie Solomon initiated an appeal of a decision made by the Williamson County Juvenile Court to the Williamson County Circuit Court. Sometime after June 3, 2019, Judge Deanna Johnson ruled that Angie Solomon's appeal was allowed to proceed. Seven months later, Judge Deanna Johnson wrote in a judicial order on Feb 19, 2020, that Angie Solomon had a lengthy history of filing baseless petitions and had made numerous untrue, false, malicious, and libelous assertions against Aaron Solomon, which were without any factual basis at all. Per the judicial order signed and filed by Judge Deanna Johnson on Feb 19, 2020, Judge Deanna Johnson imposed a pre-filing restriction upon Angie Solomon for 72 months to prevent more harassment and malicious injury from further damaging accused child-molester, Aaron Solomon (now substantiated). Since Judge Deanna Johnson's husband is Republican Senate Majority Leader Jack Johnson, the judicial order not only protected accused child-molester Aaron Solomon, but it also protected Grace Chapel Church, Grace Christian Academy, Pastor Steve Berger, and the future 2022 re-election campaigns of Sen. Jack Johnson, and Gov. Bill Lee.

"Cruel, criminal abuse of power will not be tolerated in the state of Tennessee." Gov. Bill Lee – Jan 26, 2023.

Judge Deanna Johnson’s 72-month pre-filing judicial restriction imposed upon Angie Solomon relied heavily upon statements in previous court orders written by Davidson County Judge Phillip Smith during the Aaron Solomon vs. Angie Solomon divorce case (May 13, 2013 – Dec 12, 2014): “The Court is quite concerned with the reoccurrence of the allegations of sexual abuse against Mr. Solomon by or through the efforts of Ms. Solomon as relates to the parties’ minor child, Gracie. The Court finds that it has a long history and familiarity with this case, which this Court has recited, and everything presented to this Court leads the Court to believe that nothing of an inappropriate nature occurred between Mr. Solomon and the parties’ minor child, Gracie.... The Court believes this to be the fourth (4th) allegation that has been made to the Department of Children Services. All previous allegations have been returned unfounded by the Department of Children Services. The Court is quite concerned that Ms. Solomon continues to engage in the type of behavior that she engaged in prior to the divorce as relates to such unfounded allegations of abuse. The Court makes a finding of fact upon the Court’s observation of Ms. Solomon as a witness in the past, that she has evidenced in the presence of this Honorable Court a severe mental health disability... The Court finds that Ms. Solomon continues to pose a threat of substantial harm to the children by her behavior and her obvious mental health issues...” On Jan 8, 2014, Judge Phillip Smith wrote in a judicial order: “The Court finds that it has no choice but to enjoin and restrain Ms. Solomon from making any further referrals to the Department of Children Services regarding their minor children.”

On Jan 8, 2014, Judge Phillip Smith effectively banned Angie Solomon from making complaints to DCS about the repeated alleged sexual abuse of her seven-year-old daughter, Gracie Solomon. With the power of his judicial office, Judge Phillip Smith limited Gracie Solomon's mother, Angie Solomon, from protecting her 7-year-old daughter from alleged child sex abuse being committed by former WSMV TV news anchor, Aaron Solomon. Based upon information in the Feb 19th judicial order filed by Williamson County Judge Deanna Johnson, Angie Solomon had apparently made abuse reports to DCS-Coffee County, DCS-Williamson County, DCS-Rutherford County, and DCS-Davidson County, with no one believing Angie Solomon who was determined by Judge Phillip Smith of being a mentally ill "threat" to her own beloved children.

Just as Angie Solomon made her reports to DCS, child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, also provided abuse information to Gov. Bill Haslam which was forwarded to Tennessee DCS Commissioner Kathryn O'Day's office. Instead of DCS taking action in the John Perry child sex abuse cover-up case, DCS turned a blind eye as child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, was wrongfully demonized, arrested, jailed, and financially destroyed by the Nashville Police Department, the Tennessee Judicial System, WSMV TV, Attorney Larry Crain, and many other institutions and individuals.

Tennessee's Children's Services head resigns over handling of child death

CASES — Fox News — Nov 30, 2015 - NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The commissioner of the Tennessee Department of Children's Services resigned Tuesday amid scrutiny of how her agency was handling cases of children who died after investigations of abuse and neglect. Gov. Bill Haslam announced Kate O'Day's resignation in a news release and wasn't immediately available to comment. "She was concerned that she had become more of a focus than the children the department serves," Haslam said in the release. The Republican governor last week defended O'Day's leadership, even after the agency told a federal judge it couldn't say with any certainty how many children died while in its custody. DCS had been sued by The Tennessean, The Associated Press and 10 other news organizations to obtain case records of 151 children who died between January 2009 and July 2012 and had been the subject of state investigations of abuse or neglect. Chancellor Carol McCoy ruled last month that DCS, which had claimed it was keeping the records closed to protect the children's privacy, had to release hundreds of pages from four cases to the news organizations after identifying information was redacted. A decision on whether more records were to be released is pending. (Note: TN Supreme Court Chief Justice Roger A. Page is married to Chancellor Carol McCoy. Judge Carol McCoy was designated as the presiding judge in an Appellate Court ruling against Austin Davis which was filed on Sept 30, 2015).

Dear Austin:

Thank you for writing to me regarding your daughter, Daisy Davis. I was saddened to read your story, and appreciate you sharing this information.

After consideration and review, I believe that your best course of action is to seek legal advice regarding this matter. An attorney of your choice is in the best position to advise you of your options. Unfortunately, this office cannot advise you from a legal standpoint.

I am also forwarding you letter to Commissioner O'Day's office at the Department of Children's Services for further review and consideration.

I genuinely hope that an appropriate resolution is found soon. Please accept my best wishes.

Warmest regards,

Bill Haslam

During the same period of time in 2013 when Angie Solomon was before Davidson County Judge Phillip Smith, child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, was before Davidson County Judge Carol Soloman. Austin Davis was also accused of potential mental illness, in addition to being a potential mass-shooter threat after the Virginia Tech mass shooting in 2007. During the rigged criminal retaliation trial, Federal Judge John Bryant cited Adam Lanza and the Sandy Hook elementary shooting to wrongfully convict Austin Davis of a “trespass” crime at a public Sunday church service where “everyone is invited.” The potential mass shooter threat deception was used to protect known child-molester John Perry, a former Covenant Presbyterian Church deacon with Austin Davis. Covenant Presbyterian Church is a sister PCA church with Christ Presbyterian Church, which is connected to Gov. Bill Lee, Gov. Bill Haslam, Sen. Marsha Blackburn, Tennessee Titans President Burke Nihill, protected child-molester, John Perry, convicted child-molester, Ken Raetz, and a potential, alleged Christ Pres – Boy Scout connection to the rape of a 3-year-old child at Fellowship Bible Church (with a 2nd alleged sexual assault on another 3-year-old FBC child settled quietly before Judge Deanna Johnson and unreported to the public: <https://janespeaksup.com/>). Also, former Christ Presbyterian Academy Headmaster, Richard Anderson, was the GCA High School Principal when Grant Solomon was brutally murdered on July 20, 2020. Tragically, to the great harm of Angie Solomon and her two children, Judge Phillip Smith used the power of his judicial office to protect accused child-molester, Aaron Solomon (now substantiated). Tragically, to the great harm of Austin Davis and his family, Judge Carol Soloman used the power of her judicial office to protect substantiated child-molester, John Perry, and his “safe house” used for other vulnerable children. With their child sex abuse rulings, Judge Phillip Smith and Judge Carol Soloman endangered the safety and welfare of other vulnerable children.

John Perry’s Safe House

For the public record, Austin Davis does not trust anything that occurred in the public courtrooms of Judge Carol Solomon, or Judge Phillip Smith, with both cases having connections to the Nashville Police, the Davidson County Court System, and to WSMV TV long-time colleagues, Aaron Solomon and Demetria Kalodimos. In addition, Angie Solomon and Austin Davis both had similar experiences with favoritism and corruption within the toxic Nashville Police Department. On Dec 5, 2012, Austin and Catherine Davis met with 8 high level Nashville Police authorities at the MNP West Precinct. Nashville Police intentionally lied to Austin and Catherine Davis by stating that the statute of limitations on child sex abuse charges against John Perry had expired. Per the Freedom4Gracie timeline, Angie Solomon also had involvement with the Nashville Police West Precinct around the same period of time on May 14, 2013: “She calls MNP West Precinct. They seem to take her complaint seriously until a higher up gets Aaron on the phone.” Two years later, in 2015, just as Angie Solomon was later jailed on Easter Sunday weekend to stop her from speaking out about Gracie Solomon’s abuse, Austin Davis was also arrested and jailed about 11 days before Thanksgiving for speaking out about the John Perry child sex abuse cover-up, and his “safe house” used for other children.

Judge Carol Solomon and Judge Phillip Smith were tough Tennessee judges who were confident, and had no fear of voters (or young girls) ever finding out about child sex abuse cases concealed, and protected in their courtrooms. Judge Phillip Smith demolished Angie Solomon as a mentally ill threat to her own beloved children. Per the Freedom4Gracie timeline, Judge Phillip Smith arrested and jailed Angie Solomon over the 2015 Easter Weekend.

With 20-20 hindsight, it now seems reasonable to question if anyone from the Governor's Office, TN Supreme Court, Attorney General's Office, Nashville Police Department, Department of Children's Services, WSMV TV, Judge Phillip Smith, Judge Muriel Robinson, Attorney Worrick Robinson, and/or Judge Carol Solomon, ever discussed the two alleged child sex abuse cases with connections to Nashville Police, WSMV TV, and many other institutions and individuals. Prior to a court hearing on Sept 19, 2013, Judge Carol Solomon possessed extensive knowledge about the child sex abuse history of child-molester John Perry. However, Judge Carol Solomon demolished the John Perry child sex abuse cover-up lawsuit pretending from the bench that she did not know anything about protected child-molester, John Perry. Judge Carol Solomon also accused Austin Davis and his family of "hiding" facts from her court, during the same judicial hearing when she was "hiding" her extensive knowledge about the child sex abuse history of John Perry, and Defendant Worrick Robinson. (Note: Demetria Kalodimos and a WSMV TV camera were present to record the Mann Act Federal crime cover-up as it occurred in court, but the video evidence captured in the courtroom has not been released to the public for a decade, and the video evidence has possibly been destroyed by WSMV TV). The Court: I have 48 times or 34 times or almost 50 times a man's name by the-- by the name-- a man by the name of-- and you say it the same every time, an unprosecuted child sex abuser, confessed child molester, John Perry, the book author, who is associated with it. You name him, but he is not charged in this complaint. I don't know what he did.

The Court: Why is this person named 48 times? You didn't file against him, you didn't sue, you didn't-- I mean, I have no idea who that person is.

The Court: I think you have tried to-- not you, but your clients have tried to hide what they're talking about. And that's not what court is about. That's not what pleadings are about. We don't deal with the shadows. We don't deal in the star chamber. We bring everything out. There is no trial by ambush.

The Court: You know what it appears? Because this man, who you have not tied to the lawsuit in any way, this man that you say is a convicted child molester, and you have named him almost-- numerous times, almost 50 in your complaint, but he's not sued, and there are no allegations about him harming your people, there are no damages asked from him, he is not a defendant, it appears that-- that this lawsuit is a pretext of some type to embarrass people. And I don't know the pretext. But I-- I don't see any substance in this lawsuit.

The Court: You're telling me that you-- you-- your plaintiffs don't like the fact that there is a sexual abuser around. Is that what your telling me?

Davis Attorney - Duncan Cave: We state when the police were called out, they had weapons. They were under the color of authority... They were a victim of cover-up of the sexual abuse... my client finds out information that they had a big public meeting that my client was a big threat to coming in and shooting up the church... my client doesn't even have a gun... you have all these people running around the country shooting people up: Virginia Tech, Knoxville. This even happened before in Knoxville... The church didn't want this information getting out.

How many substantiated child-molesters is WSMV TV protecting? By actively participating in an on-going child sex abuse cover-up, WSMV TV has endangered children similar to three ex-Penn State officials who were sent to prison for endangering children.

On Sept 19, 2013, WSMV TV protected Judge Carol Soloman, a rigged court hearing, and the John Perry child sex abuse cover-up. Judge Carol Soloman protected child-molester, John Perry, during numerous rigged court hearings in three John Perry child-sex abuse cover-up lawsuits filed in 2013-2014. During the same time period, Judge Phillip Smith protected former WSMV TV news anchor, Aaron Solomon, as Angie Solomon was demolished and ultimately jailed. In the John Perry related case, Attorney Michael Brezina represented the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) located in Lawrenceville, GA. Davidson County resident, John Perry, co-wrote two books with GOP Presidential Candidate Mike Huckabee which were published in 2007 – 2008. After Judge Carol Soloman demolished the John Perry child sex abuse cover-up lawsuits in her rigged court, Austin Davis learned that Attorney Michael Brezina’s sister, Bonnie Brezina, was a Republican consultant who worked closely with Mike Huckabee’s 2008 campaign manager, Chip Saltsman. In 2016, Bonnie Brezina was the Iowa Field Operations Director for the Huckabee Presidential campaign. To date (Feb 16, 2023) it is unknown if Bonnie Brezina, and/or Attorney Michael Brezina, know Grace Chapel Elder, Attorney Kurt Beasley.

About five weeks after MBA-Harpeth Hall father, Austin Davis, was released from a 2nd retaliation arrest and 18-days in jail on Nov 6, 2017, Judge Deanna Johnson dismissed the Brentwood Academy alleged gang rapes lawsuit, and she almost jailed retired Chick-fil-A General Counsel, Bureon Ledbetter. If Judge Deanna Johnson, Judge Jacques Cabell, Judge Phillip Smith, Judge Carol Solomon, Gov. Bill Lee, Gov. Bill Haslam, WSMV TV, Nashville Police, and many other institutions, corporate owned news organizations, and individuals, had done the right thing, Grant Solomon would not have been brutally murdered in Gallatin, Tennessee on July 20, 2020.

Lee Beaman, a Belmont University and Men of Valor board member with Gov. Bill Lee, was also in attendance at the Steve Berger – ASI fundraiser in Washington, DC. Lee Beaman is a loyal supporter of Grace Chapel Founding Pastor Steve Berger. Lee Beaman helped Gov. Bill Lee get a private school voucher program passed in Gov. Bill Lee’s first four-year term in office. Lee Beaman was the MBA board secretary when child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, was falsely arrested and jailed for 18-days to protect a child sex abuse cover-up spider web, which included the John Perry child sex abuse cover-up, the alleged gang rapes of a 6th grade Brentwood Academy student, the alleged rape of a 3-year-old child at Fellowship Bible Church (Brentwood), and Brentwood Attorney Larry Crain. On July 26, 2018, an abused Harpeth Hall - Belmont University student provided Gov. Bill Lee information about MBA Headmaster Brad Gioia, the 2nd retaliation arrest of Austin Davis, and the alleged gang rapes of a 6th grade Brentwood Academy student. However, Austin Davis and the Harpeth Hall - Belmont University student did not yet know about the sex abuse lawsuit filed by at least 10 former Darlington School students against a former Darlington School teacher, and the Darlington School in Rome, GA. Apparently, former Darlington School Headmaster, Brad Gioia, had a Darlington School secret when he falsely reported Austin Davis to Nashville Police, resulting in the 2nd retaliation arrest and unlawful 18-day jailing of Austin Davis prior to the MBA Spaghetti supper, and the Brentwood Academy vs. MBA football game.

Approximately ten days after the 2nd Inauguration of Gov. Pastor Steve Berger participated in the “National Gathering For Prayer and Repentance” as the John Perry substantiated child sex abuse cover-up, the Aaron Solomon substantiated child sex abuse cover-up, and the cover-up of Grant Solomon’s brutal murder continued with the on-going protection of Gov. Bill Lee. To learn more about Pastor Steve Berger, watch this video: <https://www.instagram.com/p/CUAzJ7vpNwU/>

After Pastor Steve Berger’s powerful attorney, Todd McMurtry, threatened to silence Ms. Melanie Hicks on Aug 11, 2021, Pastor Steve Berger resigned from Grace Chapel Church and relocated to his new Ambassador Services International Ministry location in Washington, DC. Pastor Steve Berger continues to stand 100% behind his sworn affidavit which stated he was not told by Grant Solomon about Gracie Solomon’s alleged child sex abuse at any time, including the day of their private meeting, on or about, May 8, 2018. Pastor Steve Berger did admit in his sworn affidavit that he learned about the child sex abuse allegations in some undisclosed manner following his “private” meeting with Grant Solomon. To date (Feb 16, 2023), Pastor Steve Berger has not revealed “when” or “how” he learned about Gracie Solomon’s child sex abuse allegations, or if he passed on the alleged child sex abuse information to his long-time friend, Candidate Bill Lee, during the 2018 campaign for Governor of Tennessee. Question: Do you think Pastor Steve Berger warned Candidate Bill Lee about the explosive child sex abuse allegations made by GCA elementary student, Gracie Solomon, or do you think Pastor Steve Berger remained silent allowing Candidate Bill Lee to be vulnerable to a possible destructive news story during the final weeks of the 2018 campaign?

Grace Chapel Member Bill Lee elected the 50th Governor of Tennessee – Nov 6, 2018

Six months after Grant Solomon’s “private” meeting with Pastor Steve Berger, Grant Solomon met with GCA Headmistress Rona Branson, and GCA Counselor Amy Curle, in a meeting which Grant recorded on Nov 7, 2018. During the Nov 7th meeting, Grant made a slow, disheartened comment the day after Gov. Bill Lee was elected as Governor of Tennessee on Nov 6, 2018: “It’s almost too late... to be doing something about it now.” To hear Grant’s recording, select the link below: https://twitter.com/Saint_Dymphna/status/1437406082314473488

With 20-20 hindsight, it seems reasonable to conclude that Grant Solomon was mature for his age and possessed enough social “pecking order” sensitivity to realize that a majority of the Grace Chapel – GCA parent-adult community supported Gov. Bill Lee, Sen. Jack Johnson, Judge Deanna Johnson, Pastor Steve Berger, Sam Johnson, and his father, Aaron Solomon, instead of him, his little sister, and his mom. Grant Solomon surely knew that he, his little sister, and his mom, were on the bottom end of the Grace Chapel – GCA popularity totem pole. Grant Solomon most likely contemplated that his father would never be held accountable for the alleged sexual abuse of his little sister, Gracie, after Candidate Bill Lee was elected Tennessee Governor on the night before he met with GCA educators on Nov 7, 2018. Grant Solomon expressed belief to others that he would have to confront his father directly as an adult courtroom witness if there was ever any chance of protecting his little sister, Gracie. On Feb 19, 2020, Judge Deanna Johnson effectively banned Angie Solomon from making a complaint against Aaron Solomon for 72 months, which appeared to bring an end to all legal avenues available to protect Gracie Solomon. After Judge Deanna Johnson demolished Angie Solomon with her Feb 19th judicial order, Grant Solomon was the only person left in his small, three-person family who could stand up against his powerful father after he turned 18. Only four months were left to June, when Grant would turn 18.

Here is one example of a source confirming that Grant Solomon was dedicated to protecting his little sister, Gracie, after he turned 18: “Me and grant we’re talking about what had happened in his past and we got to the subject of Gracie. He said while he witnessed numerous incidents, he felt his witness (in court) to the incidents would not be taken the same as if he were an adult. That night Grant left no doubt in my mind that he was going to do something about it once he was 18. He was very clear in saying that he wanted to protect his sister and that she should not have to bear the weight of what happened to her and that Mr. Solomon should’ve been charged for it.” (Note: A majority of the Grace Chapel – GCA parent-adult community may have turned their backs on Grant, Gracie, and Angie Solomon, but many GCA kids, classmates, and a minority of parent-adults supported Gracie and Grant, and were first to speak out that something did not add up about the “truck accident” story told by Aaron Solomon.)

After Judge Deanna Johnson’s Feb 19th ruling, Grant Solomon clearly knew that he was the David” versus his “Goliath” father in a future courtroom battle. As a result of previous judicial rulings made by Davidson County Judge Phillip Smith, and Williamson County Judge Deanna Johnson, Grant Solomon knew he was the only person left who could stand up to his powerful father, former WSMV TV news anchor, Aaron Solomon. In 2014, Judge Phillip Smith effectively banned Angie Solomon from making more reports to Tennessee DCS, and in 2020, Judge Deanna Johnson effectively banned Angie Solomon from bringing more legal complaints against accused child-molester, Aaron Solomon, for a period of 72 months. With his mother legally restrained, Grant Solomon was the last man standing.

The Court believes this to be the fourth (4th) allegation that has been made to the Department of Children Services. All previous allegations, have been returned unfounded by the Department of Children Services... The Court finds that Ms. Solomon continues to pose a threat of substantial harm to the children by her behavior and her obvious mental health issues...”*

May 13, 2013 – Dec 12, 2014 - Divorce Court Rulings - Davidson County Judge Phillip Smith: “The Court finds that it has no choice but to enjoin and restrain Ms. Solomon from making any further referrals to the Department of Children Services regarding their minor children.”

Nov 6, 2018 – Williamson County Juvenile Court: “The Court finds that the allegations of sexual abuse were not proven, and further, these are the same allegations of sexual abuse that have previously been before the courts in Davidson and Coffee County that were dismissed, assessed, or investigated by the Dept of Children’s services in Rutherford County. It is therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED, that “Petition to Adjudicate the Children Dependent and Neglected and for Emergency Temporary Restraining Order,” filed August 14, 2018, is dismissed in its entirety and possession of the minor child is ordered immediately restored to Father, Aaron Solomon. All previous orders of this Honorable Court are dismissed.”

Feb 19, 2020 – Williamson County Judge Deanna Johnson: “The Court in considering parts (F) and (G) can hardly imagine a more damaging allegation against a parent to damage, impair, and diminish a parent’s reputation, etc., than to be falsely accused of sexually abused one’s own child.”

Feb 19, 2020 - Williamson County Judge Deanna Johnson: “Lastly, the Court finds it is reasonable to impose pre-filing restrictions upon any civil action Ms. Angelia Solomon attempts to file as relates to Mr. Solomon for a period of 72 months.”

July 20, 2020: Four months after Judge Johnson’s draconian ruling, Grant turned 18 a few weeks before he was brutally murdered. Per at least one witness at the hospital, Aaron Solomon told Angie Solomon after Grant was pronounced dead: “We’re going to be a family now.”

On July 20, 2020, after Grant Solomon was pronounced dead at 9:30 am, Aaron Solomon reportedly told Angie Solomon: "We're going to be a family now." Per a source at the hospital, Aaron Solomon wanted to reach out to Tim McGraw, but Tim McGraw was out of town. (Note: Taylor Swift was kind to send flowers to the grieving family in honor of Grant Solomon.)

On July 20, 2020, after Grant Solomon was pronounced dead at 9:30 am, Aaron Solomon reportedly contacted Vince Gill. Per at least one source at the hospital, Aaron Solomon requested for Vince Gill to sing at Grant Solomon's "Celebration of Life Service" which occurred on July 25, 2020. At the celebration service, Vince Gill dedicated a song to substantiated child sex abuse victim, Gracie Solomon, on behalf of his long-time friend, Aaron Solomon. Vince Gill's long-time friend, Michael W. Smith, has attended Grace Chapel Church and is a long-time friend of Pastor Steve Berger, and Gov. Bill Lee.

Subject: Urgent - Please Forward To Amy Grant or Vince Gill

Dear Ms. Hill:

On Feb 10, 2017, Harpeth Hall Alumnae Director Scottie Coombs signed a letter instructing Harpeth Hall alumnae on how to block my email messages during the John Perry - child sex abuse cover-up which is still on-going in 2022.

I later learned that Scottie Coombs was a member of the 1st contaminated secret grand jury session that wrongfully indicted me seven months earlier to cover up John Perry's child sex abuse on Aug 1, 2016.

On July 25, 2020, Vince Gill knowingly, or unknowingly, assisted in an alleged cover-up with accused child molester and accused murderer, Aaron Solomon, via the dedication of a song for substantiated child sex abuse victim, Gracie Solomon.

Vince Gill's song dedication took place during the "celebration of life service" for former GCA-Ensworth student, Grant Solomon.

Since I do not have contact information for Amy Grant or Vince Gill, please provide them this email. If Vince or Amy wish to review new evidence obtained since the initial "accident" incident report, I am willing to meet with them.

Thanks for your assistance.

Are Vince and Amy too scared to step forward, or do they believe Gracie and others are lying?

Nine months after 18-year-old, Grant Solomon, was brutally murdered at WPI in Gallatin, 14-year-old Gracie Solomon was courageous to appear in a YouTube video posted on May 12, 2021. The YouTube video was entitled, A Cry For Help: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bpNRRNuaFhAk>

The opening of the video stated: “This is a cry for help. Fourteen year old Gracie Solomon has endured a lifetime of sexual abuse at the hands of her father. She is begging for protection from him. The legal system has failed her. DCS has failed her. Her Christian school has failed her. Her church has failed her. Her older brother, Grant (who never failed her and intended to fight legally on her behalf once he turned 18), died suspiciously one month after his birthday. Despite significant evidence of foul play, all requests for an investigation have been denied. Gracie has decided to read her written story and release it publicly as a final attempt to be heard. Please hear her.”

Gracie Solomon

The quotes below are from the FreedomForGracie Instagram Acct: <https://www.instagram.com/p/CTuomG4rein/>

“We just wanted Gracie to know that some boys knew.”

“We just wanted to tell her to be careful, you know, who you’re talking to... what you’re saying.”

“Her peers are 11... They aren’t the people she needs to talk to about this.”

“We’ve got parents calling saying their kids are asking very hard questions after hearing about Gracie.”

Update: A very courageous Dekalb County – DCS office investigated the child sex abuse allegations made by Gracie Solomon resulting in Aaron Solomon being substantiated as a child sex abuse perpetrator on Jan 31, 2022: <https://www.instagram.com/p/ChtAhhXMeO1/>

Six months after Gracie Solomon appeared in the YouTube video, Ms. Melanie Hicks wrote Gov. Bill Lee a letter on Nov 26, 2021, which revealed a potential motive for the brutal murder: “Potential motive: Written statement from friend suggest that Grant was going to testify against his father when Grant turned 18, regarding the abuse of his little sister, and mother. Grant was killed two weeks after his 18th birthday. Grant had also seen concerning and potential illegal activity on his father’s computer.” To date (Feb 16, 2023), five rock-solid facts are now certain about the on-going criminal activity still protected by Gov. Bill Lee: 1) Candidate Bill Lee knew about the John Perry substantiated child sex abuse cover-up on July 28, 2018, prior to being elected Tennessee Governor on Nov 6, 2018. 2) Gov. Bill Lee knew about the Aaron Solomon abuse allegations as early as Aug 8, 2022, or possibly during the 2018 gubernatorial campaign. 3) Gov. Bill Lee knew about the Grant Solomon’s potential murder cover-up as early as Aug 8, 2022, or possibly as early as May 12, 2021, when 14-year-old GCA student, Gracie Solomon appeared in a YouTube video stating: “My father is a monster... He’s a rapist. He’s a monster. He’s a liar. And he’s a killer;” 4) Gov. Bill Lee was provided information multiple times about Steve McNair’s rigged grand jury, and other rigged grand juries, but he places his “trust” in the integrity of the Tennessee Judicial System. 5) Gov. Bill Lee appointed Williamson County Sheriff Jeff Long as Homeland Security Commissioner.

On Aug 8, 2022, Gov. Bill Lee’s chief legal counsel, TN Attorney General Candidate Jonathan Skrmetti, admitted before the Tennessee Supreme Court that Gov. Bill Lee did receive a letter from Ms. Melanie Hicks which included numerous investigation concerns about the “potential murder” of Grant Solomon, which was quickly ruled a “truck accident.” Seven months earlier on Jan 8, 2022, Jonathan Skrmetti, in his role as Gov. Bill Lee’s Chief Legal Counsel, referred to Grant Solomon’s “potential murder” as a “homicide investigation” during the “drafting” of a possible “talking points” letter which was prepared for Gov. Bill Lee. Jonathan Skrmetti also referred to Grant Solomon’s initial death scene as a “crime scene” during his response to Ms. Melanie Hicks at the Tennessee Attorney General public hearing. On Oct 17, 2022, prior to the re-election of Gov. Bill Lee, Ms. Melanie Hicks met with Tennessee Attorney General Jonathan Skrmetti’s chief of staff, Brandon Smith, to provide him evidence on the brutal murder of 18-year-old Grant Solomon. To date (Feb. 16, 2023), Gov. Bill Lee has been reelected and Tennessee Attorney General Jonathan Skrmetti has not followed up with Ms. Melanie Hicks. It is unknown if AG Skrmetti is quietly conducting his own investigation, or if he is protecting Gov. Bill Lee.

On Jan 21, 2023, Attorney General Jonathan Skrmetti watched Chief Justice Roger Page administer the oath of office to Gov. Bill Lee during two substantiated child sex abuse cover-ups, the on-going cover-up of Grant Solomon's brutal murder, and the on-going cover-up of Steve McNair's rigged grand jury. During his fraudulent oath of office, Gov. Bill Lee continued to protect substantiated child sex abuse criminal activity, even as he placed his left hand on a Bible, and raised his right hand to take his public oath: "I, William Byron Lee, do solemnly swear, that as Governor of the State of Tennessee, I will support the Constitution of the State of Tennessee, and the Constitution of the United States, and that I will perform with fidelity, and faithfully execute the duties of the office of Governor, to which I have been elected, and which I am about to assume, to the best of my skill and ability, so help me God."

Subject: Another Call For Gov. Bill Lee To Resign

Dear Ms. Van Dyke: I first reached out to you on Oct. 23, 2019, prior to John Grisham's appearance at Montgomery Bell Academy. I write you today to follow up again.

On April 17, 2022, I made a citizen call for Gov. Bill Lee to resign. On April 28, 2022, I requested for Sen. Jeff Yarbro to provide Tennessee Senators and Representatives information about Gov. Bill Lee, new Tennessee Supreme Court Justice Sarah K. Campbell, four alleged child sex abuse cover-up cases, the alleged murder of 18-year-old Grant Solomon, and Steve McNair's unsigned grand jury report.

I provided information about Judge Steve Dozier to Ms. Amanda Knox and she was kind to respond. As expected, Judge Steve Dozier was unopposed and re-elected in the election yesterday (see Amanda Knox - Steve Dozier link below).

I pray the Tennessee Innocent Project will support Grant's Army.

And there will be decisions that come at great personal cost. And there will be mistakes that we make. And there will be times when we feel failure. But as you endeavor to serve other people from whatever position or place you hold in life, remember the often quoted words of Theodore Roosevelt, and I will paraphrase: ‘It is not the critic who counts, nor the man who points out how another man stumbles when the doer of deeds could have done it better. The credit belongs to those who actually strive to do the deeds. Who know great enthusiasm and great devotion. Those who spend themselves in a worthy cause. Who at the best, know in the end the triumph of high achievement. And who at the worst, if they fail, at least failed while daring greatly. So that their place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who neither know victory nor defeat.’”*

Brutal Murder Scene – Grant Solomon

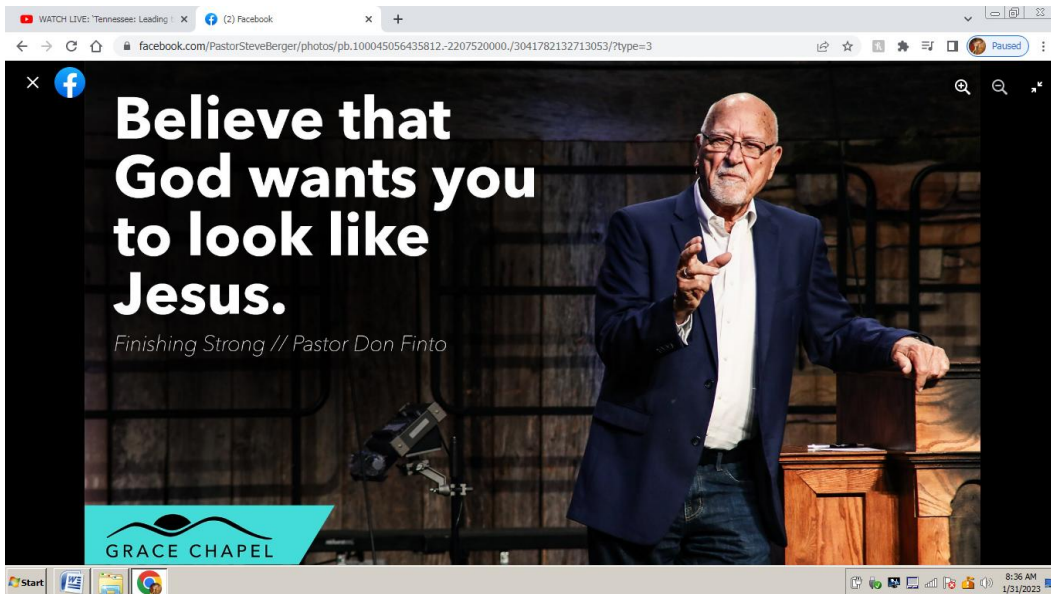

WPI – Gallatin, TN

“Cruel, criminal abuse of power will not be tolerated in the state of Tennessee.” Gov. Bill Lee – Jan 26, 2023.

On Jan 21, 2023, as Gov. Bill Lee continued to protect Grace Chapel Church, Grace Christian Academy, Stephens Valley Church, Covenant Presbyterian Church, The Covenant School, Christ Presbyterian Church, Christ Presbyterian Academy, the Nashville Presbytery, and the Presbyterian Church in America, Gov. Bill Lee's long-time friend, Pastor Don Finto, referenced King Solomon while pointing at Gov. Lee: "About a hundred years before Christ when Solomon became the King of Israel, and he prayed, and his prayer was, Lord, I don't know how to carry out my duties. So please give me an obedient heart to govern your people and to distinguish right from wrong. So Lord, in Jesus, I know that's your heart. And so Lord, I pray, that in the hearts of all Tennesseans, those in government, those in every other sphere of society, that we will all acknowledge that we don't have the energy, nor enough wisdom to do what we are called to do, but that we will be obedient in heart, and we'll pray that we'll do our job well, and that we can distinguish right from wrong."

"Cruel, criminal abuse of power will not be tolerated in the state of Tennessee." Gov. Bill Lee – Jan 26, 2023.

To date (Feb 16, 2023), Gov. Bill Lee is still protecting on-going child sex abuse criminal activity, and has failed to “Do The Right Thing” as Tennessee Governor. Gov. Bill Lee is one of the most popular governors in the history of Tennessee, and Tennessee Democrats and Republicans continue to support him and his protection of criminal activity: 1) The John Perry substantiated child sex abuse cover-up; 2) The Aaron Solomon substantiated child sex abuse cover-up; 3) The cover-up of Grant Solomon’s brutal murder; 4) The cover-up of Steve McNair’s rigged grand jury.

Since Bill Lee graduated from Franklin High School, he wanted to be a politician. Sadly, Grant Solomon was brutally murdered by his own father at a baseball practice facility, and never had the opportunity to graduate from high school. Psalms 55:19 teaches: "God will hear, and afflict them. Even He who abides from of old. Selah. Because they do not change, therefore they do not fear God."

Bill Lee is our Most Outstanding Senior Boy this year. Among some of his past accomplishments during his three years at FHS are the titles of Vice President of the Student Council, President of the National Honor Society, and 4-H Club State Officer.

Bill plans to go to Auburn where he hopes to study biological sciences. He also seems interested in political sciences and would like to be a politician. No matter what he chooses to do, Bill has the drive and integrity to succeed in everything he does.

Proverbs 16:18 teaches: “Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before the fall.” Daniel 5:20 teaches: “But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him.” Daniel 5:26-27 records the history of the mysterious handwriting on the wall: “This is the interpretation of each word. MENE. God has numbered your kingdom, and finished it. TEKEL. You have been weighed in the balances, and found wanting. PERES. Your kingdom has been divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.”

“And He changes the times and the seasons; He removes kings and raises up kings; He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding. He reveals deep and secret things; He knows what is in the darkness, and light dwells with Him.” Daniel 2:21-22

You have not strengthened the weak or healed the sick or bound up the injured. You have not brought back the strays or searched for the lost, but with force and severity, you have dominated them.
