Need to ship furniture long distance?

Are you looking to ship just one item or maybe a few items of furniture? It can certainly be difficult to find a reliable furniture shipping company that can offer just such a service. Often times it requires a few different companies to get the job done, one to pack, another to consolidate, ship, and then even yet another to deliver. Well, at Ship Smart we have rewritten the rules when it comes to shipping furniture, making the process a whole lot simpler while at the same time keeping the costs affordable. For the last two decades we have been perfecting our methods to ensure that we can offer the best possible service at the most cost effective rates. And, with over 300 locations nationwide, we can ship furniture long distance from state to state, coast to coast, and even internationally.

Our shipping services

We handle loads that are too large for traditional parcel services like FedEx and UPS. You can be sure no matter how small the piece or pieces are we can get it done for you, and at a fair price. So if you are looking to ship just one piece, two pieces, or a whole set of furniture then you've come to the right place.

We have experience shipping items like:

- Living room sets – couches, ottomans, end tables, and TV stands
- Dining room sets – tables, chairs, china cabinets, and hutches
- Bedroom sets – beds, dressers, nightstands, and mattress sets
- Office furniture – desks, bookcases, and cabinets
