

ONLY JESUS Bible Study

Preliminary Work

Think about the following question below. Don't share your answer (with me or anyone). Wrestle with it. Ponder it. We will visit this question in our first formal session.

“If you had to abandon ship, with just enough time to call the Coast Guard, providing them with your GPS coordinates, and they confirmed and said they were ‘coming to rescue you,’... are you saved while waiting for them in the water, or are you saved after they pluck you from the water?”
