What kind of data can you find on the xing site?

You can scrape the public information from the xing site using Xing Data Extractor. You can get the details of users from the xing site by visiting their profiles either individual or a company's profile but you cannot download or create a database of that data manually. There is no fake data on the xing site because people make their profile for getting jobs or make their company's profiles.

Email marketing or telemarketing is very important for growing your business in this digital era. For this purpose, you need data from your related audience. Data is basically the basic need for business growth. It takes time in searching before starting a business online or offline because this search will help you in marketing your product.

How does the search feature work in the xing site?

You can use the member search for searching your query related contacts on the Xing site. You just need to enter the search term in the search bar and you will get the results only the relevant matches you will get when searching by name or position etc. you can also add them as contacts on your profiles like LinkedIn you can also use the filter through which you can get the results of new members or an old one.

People share their personal details on Xing sites like phone numbers, job skills professions and companies, or businesses. Some of their data is public and they are free to keep their data private on xing site. Free jobs posting on online destinations permit managers and organizations to present employment in contact with an enormous crowd on social sites like xing. There are many free job posting sites

How to get data for growing my business?

For creating a huge database you need to scrape data from sites like xing using Xing Data Extractor, where people share their details or company's details. This cannot be done by manual because this is not as easy as you think. For scraping data, there are many tools that you can use for scraping from websites.

Which is the best tool for scraping data from the Xing site for marketing purposes?

Xing Data Scraper is best for your needs as you need to scrape data quickly and accurately from xing site you should use this desktop application and create your own database and start marketing your product to the related targeted audience.

Why should you use Xing Data Scraper for scraping?

This tool is designed in such a way that a nontechnical user can use this tool without any difficulty. There is no rocket science for using this scraping tool; you don't need to learn a course or degree for using this tool; you just need an internet connection and PC. You can easily scrape this will save your time and money too. But if you find any difficulty in scraping data form xing then a guide is attached with a tool you can learn easily.