

Solve the mystery: Find the Missing Linden Tree.

Courtesy Bff

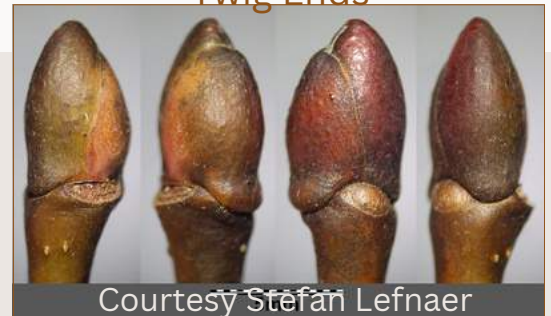

- Flowers: Hang in clusters of 5-7, highly fragrant, bloom in mid-June or early July.
- Leaves: Singular, alternate, heart-shaped, finely toothed, often fuzzy undersides, asymmetrically attached to stem end.
- Fruit: Nut-like drupe, round shape, often slightly fuzzy.

Linden Tree

www.friendsareas.ca

Twig Ends

Courtesy Stefan Lefnaer

- $50 cash reward for the first person to find the Linden Tree.
- It is thought to be on the west side of Richard St. Barbe Baker Afforestation Area.
- Locate the Linden Tree planted in 1979 by the Richard St. Barbe Baker Foundation
- Take a photo of your Linden Tree observation using the free iNaturalist app.
- Send iNaturalist observation link to friendsafforestation@gmail.com for confirmation.

Courtesy Gilles Ayotte

