

INSTITUTE OF ADULT EDUCATION

JANUARY 26, 1970

Open to All
Non-Credit
Once a Week
Eight Weeks
Interesting
15 Day Courses
35 Evening Courses
MOST COURSES
$10 or $20

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA

THEOLOGY OF SIN

REV. MICHAEL GRIFFIN, O.C.D., S.T.B.

Tues., 8:00-9:00 p.m.
Jan. 27-Mar. 17

Rm. 117, Caldwell
4th & Mich., N.E.

Sin has always been an important subject, and now it has even become a most popular one. Considerable theological thought and discussion has centered about the nature and definition of original sin. Actual sin, too, is coming in for much attention because of situation ethics, personalism, existentialism, concept of natural law, freedom of conscience, and the birth control question. You will find this a valuable course. $10.00

CITY, SUBURB & NATION

PAUL PEACHEY, Ph.D.

Tues., 7:00-8:00 p.m.
Jan. 27-Mar. 17

Rm. 117, Caldwell
4th & Mich., N.E.

What makes a city, Do cities die? Are cities necessary today? What's happening in the suburbs? Does the Nation need cities and suburbs? Separation of residence from jobs and job opportunities. Are people getting closer together or farther apart? Is a slum basically physical or psychological? Have we reached the limits of livable space in the U.S. Practical problems in the D.C. metropolitan area. Dr. Peachey is an internationally known urban sociologist. $10.00

READING SPEED & COMPREHENSION

CLEMENT J. GRESOCK, Ph.D.

(Section 1)

Tues., 7:00-9:00 p.m.
Jan. 27-Mar. 31
318 McMahon Hall

(Section 2)

Thurs., 7:00-9:00 p.m.
Jan. 29-Apr. 9
318 McMahon Hall

Learn to read more rapidly and accurately. We make no sensational claims, but promise you great improvement through educational laboratory films, Science Research Associates' reading materials, and a text on Reading skills. Please note that this is a ten-week course. $30.00 per Section

INTRODUCTION TO BLACK HISTORY

ALLAN KULLEN, B.S.

Wed., 7:00-8:00 p.m.
Jan. 28-Mar. 18

Rm. 117, Caldwell
4th & Mich., N.E.

Those interested in Black history in America will want to attend these lectures which cover early American history, the Civil War period, Reconstruction Days, World War I era up to 1954. Learn about Black congressmen, churchmen, inventors, artists, educators, scientists, and their contributions to this country. Mr. Kullen is the production editor of the International Library of Negro Life and History. $10.00