How to Register for Americans All and Create a Legacy Story for an Individual or a Group (Important to an Individual) for the Heritage Honor Roll.

Contents

This tutorial covers several topics and processes:

Benefits of Storytelling for Students

Storytelling benefits high school students who are participating in non-curriculum school actives, as well as in their personal lives.

- Stories begin at birth, and legacies are built each time a personal, academic or professional milestone is achieved. Every student has important experiences and lessons learned to share with family, friends and future generations. Creating and publishing a story about themselves helps students develop skills in critical thinking, communicating, researching and, especially, writing—skills needed to help ensure their success in college and/or the workforce.

- Students can use their story to create virtual yearbooks for all the clubs and team they participate in. If they already have created a story, they can repurpose it by adding additional photographs and other media, and publish it in multiple languages. This will give them a permanent, accessible social media presence that truly describes who they are.

- Storytelling can also be a wonderful intergenerational bonding experience that builds empathy, compassion and understanding. By helping others less skilled in the art of writing and the use of technology to incorporate images and recordings into their legacy stories, a student can earn service-learning credits.

- Students will find it easy to start creating their life stories. Our template only requires individuals to fill in their name, date of birth and a summary not to exceed 60 words. Additional story text, hyperlinks and photographs can be added over time.

- Helping others create a story also demonstrates to prospective employers and postsecondary institutions a student's character and appreciation for how volunteerism benefits a community.

Even though Americans All is no longer active in any curriculum arena, members can access our online K–12, nonpolitical supplemental classroom resources presented in multiple perspectives, which were sold to more than 2,000 schools and libraries nationwide.

Benefits of Storytelling for Students' Families and Their PTA

Storytelling helps families pass on knowledge and experiences to current and future generations. Research by the National Library of Medicine has shown that patterns of memory sharing begin early in one's life, informing relationships, one's history, and one's sense of cultural belonging. Intergenerational knowledge of one's family history is associated with positive mental health, wholeness and well-being. Life stories are central to one's sense of self and the social world that they inhabit. Indeed, considerable research indicates that storytelling is fundamental to human development, cultural frameworks, and the cultivation of relationships. And by sharing stories, we can all recognize the contributions of every individual, reinforcing the values of diversity and respect, and promote tolerance, acceptance, empathy, and understanding. This can help our increasingly polarized communities and nation focus on commonalities, rather than differences.

PTA organizations support schools in getting both unrestricted funds and resources. We can fill this dual role by providing them with a program—our Heritage Honor Roll and Legacy Partner landing pages—to add as a fundraising tool. In addition, many of the members of the PTA (as well as other school families) own or participate in local businesses and as professional service providers and can use this program to gain additional exposure and reach a larger audience for their entities.

Example of an individual story from our Heritage Honor Roll

Allan S. Kullen Author, Business Printer, Social Entrepreneur, Traveler

"Her name is Ester Baumgartner. Do you know her?" Allan Kullen had posed the question in a broken mixture of Hebrew and English to whoever would listen and could understand him. Allan had met Ester while on an archaeological dig at Masada in Negev, Israel. All he knew by the time they parted ways was her name and the fact that she was staying in Tel Aviv. So, after finishing his work, he decided he would try to find her. He hitchhiked his way to Tel Aviv and, despite all odds, found her. It was to play an important role in his life.

Allan S. Kullen (February 20, 1942 - ?) Author.

Allan was born in Washington, DC, on February 20, 1942, to Eunice (Statland) and Sol Kullen, both originally from Baltimore, MD. His sister, Marian, was born two years later. He grew up in the DC metropolitan area. His father had built a successful career in the printing industry so, in 1959 after a very uneventful four years culminating in his high school graduation, Allan chose to attend the School of Printing Management at Carnegie Institute of Technology (CIT) in Pittsburgh, PA.

Americans All features photographs and texts on the contributions that immigrants made to the nation's development when they come through Ellis Island. At the same time, he was printing for the Coordinating Committee for Ellis Island, a nonprofit group focused on the same topic. This action rekindled the passion generated by his travels abroad, and he founded and became president of the People of America Foundation and became co-

- Stories can be:
  - about individuals, groups or issues/topics
  - up to 2,000 words (1,000 can be password protected for privacy)
  - augmented with images, logos, hyperlinks, photographs, and audio-video media.
  - published in underlined multiple languages, including a second story in English.
  - updated easily and have all prior versions archived
  - started by filling in only a few required fields and then be completed over time
  - also created in a shorter version (up to 500 words) and printed in an 8½" x 11" format

A Champion for Social History

Allan Kullen
February 20, 1942 -

Allan Kullen was born on February 20, 1942, in Washington, DC, and grew up in the area. His father had success in the printing industry, so Allan chose to attend the Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh, PA, after graduating from high school in 1959. He graduated from its School of Printing Management in 1963.

To gain more business training, Allan then entered an MBA program at the University of California, Berkeley. During his first year, he met representatives of NBBS, a Dutch travel organization that organized student trips to Europe, and began putting out a daily newspaper for the eight-day crossing by sea. He also accepted an internship as a consultant for a printing company in Amsterdam. That fall, rather than returning home, he traveled extensively where, for the first time, he recognized the contributions that diverse cultures make to world history. Allan subsequently decided to enter the workforce rather than resume his schooling at Berkeley.

He began his career as marketing director for his father?s printing firm, Kaufmann Press, Inc. When his father?s company was acquired by a public company, Publisher?s Company, Inc. (Pubco), he went to work for Pubco, first assisting with its acquisitions program and later joining its publishing division. When Pubco began to fail, Allan realized he needed to build a future where he could better control his own destiny, especially since he was now married to the former Diane Klein and they had two children, Allison and Todd. In 1974, he acquired the assets of a struggling printing company and formed Todd Allan Printing Co., Inc., which he ran until 2013. During that period, he grew the company through internal sales and roll-up acquisitions of eight smaller firms, at its peak achieving $16 million in annual sales and employing 127.

While working at Pubco, he observed that some of its large printing vendors also owned commercial educational properties, and he brought that manufacturing strategy to Todd Allan. He set up his own publishing company in the early 1980s by buying a program called The First Experience, which featured photographs and texts on the contributions that immigrants entering through Ellis Island made to our nation?s development. At the same time, he was printing for the Coordinating Committee for Ellis Island, a similarly focused nonprofit group.

Drawing inspiration from his extensive travels and reinforcing his interest in history, Allan then founded and became president of the People of America Foundation and became co-developer of its social studies resources program, Americans All. The program includes printed texts and recordings, period-specific posters and photographs, and simulations and teacher?s guides, all developed by a team of scholars led by Americans All co-developer Dr. Gail C. Christopher. More recent program components support excellence in social studies instruction by increasing access to high-quality resources for classrooms and professional development opportunities for teachers.

Create a legacy story or a landing page in an additional language.

View published   Modify/Update   Revisions   Create this page in an additional language

Our Web site displays information in English using a standard Latin character set. At no additional cost, you can create your honoree's legacy story or a Legacy Partner's landing page in as many additional languages as you desire. However, each additional language cannot be used more than one time, except for those languages on the list that have been modified. To help you create either a story or a landing page, we have provided you with a copy of the English-language version to use as a guide. To create this new version, delete the English-language text and replace it with the new language text. Text and image fields that are not modified will remain the same as in the English-language version.

Similarly, you can post your Heritage Honor Roll stories to as many Legacy Partner landing pages as you desire, but each Legacy Partner landing page cannot accept more than one story from each member. Therefore, you must delete the 6-digit number of the landing page you selected for your English-language-version story from the new "additional language" template. This will not affect the English language version being posted to that Legacy Partner landing page.

To help you gain more exposure for your story, you can hyperlink all language-versions of your story to each other, or to the story of another member on our site.

Click here to learn how this can easily be done.

You can create your new story in two ways:

- If you can change your keyboard settings to the desired language, delete the English-language text and replace it with the new language text.
- If you cannot change your keyboard settings, prepare your honoree's story in the desired language offline and cut and paste it into the template to replace the English-language text

If you do not find the additional language you desire listed below, please contact us and put the word "Additional Language" in the subject line.

Note: Many words and expressions do not have the same meaning in all languages. To ensure your honoree's legacy story or Legacy Partner landing page in the new language carries the same meaning as the English-language version, we advise that you do not rely on an automatic translation app.

To assist you in creating your honoree's legacy story in an additional language, we have provided you a copy of the English-language version to use as a guide. To create this version of your story, delete the English-language text and replace it with the new language text. If a field is not changed, the data from the English version will remain. Moreover, since Legacy Partner landing pages can only accept one story from each member, delete the 6-digit number of the landing page you selected for your English-language-version story from this new "additional language" template. Your English language version of the story will not be affected.

To help you gain more exposure for your story, you can hyperlink all language-versions of your story to each other, or to the story of another member on our site. Click here to learn how this can easily be done.

Sample Americans All Website Tutorials

Americans All members will find it easy to start creating their life stories. Our template only requires individuals to fill in their names, pertinent dates, and a summary that does not exceed 60 words. Additional story text, hyperlinks, and photographs can be added over time. The following tutorials will help you create and publish your legacy story. You can update your story anytime, for free; all previous versions are archived.

There are four major roles that Americans All members can have. A person (an individual or a group for which he/she is affiliated), a nonprofit organization, a school or education (a specific form of a nonprofit organization), and a business or professional service provider (and their respective offices and locations). A person can also be an agent (or Point of Contact) for a nonprofit or business member but must register separately using that organization's email address. Registration tutorials for each of the roles are below.

For individuals are used to using website templates, a shorter version of each tutorial has been provided.
