

How to implement a free, lifetime membership in Americans All for students, schools, and other nonprofits, and also how to join our optional Social Legacy Network for high school students and their families in our pilot program in Howard County.

Our 36-year-old nonprofit foundation is ready to implement a type of program that has never been done before. During our year-long grass-roots efforts to gain support and direction, we have modified the program (and will continue to do so) to meet the specific needs and concerns of each entity we contacted. These include the Office of Purchasing, Economic Development Authority, School Partnership Office, Historical Society, Community Service Partnership, Office of the Local Children's Board and Library System, and HCPSS's Community, Parent, and Outreach Division. We are still waiting for additional responses.

Although we were a supplier of social studies resources, with county input, we have now become a hybrid charity that raises money for schools and education nonprofits using our revenue-generating, multipurpose storytelling tool. Most charities request donations but do very little for their sponsors/members. We are different. We are a hybrid because we provide an optional storytelling tool; have only one level of giving; two separate components; and do not produce, sell or send out merchandise. Rather, we offer our members multiple opportunities to benefit themselves and their families when they make their charitable gifts.

Here are some of the areas we address:

- Community members, including the parents of high school students, want to find discounts when they shop. If students and can shop on their own, they are included in this group.
- All schools need an unrestricted stream of annual revenue that requires minimal staff to administer.
- Students of all ages and their families can benefit from having an easily accessible "virtual yearbook" to share and serve as a keepsake for each of their years in school.
- Businesses and professional service providers need to expand traffic and look for affordable, effective and appropriate ways to do so.
- The nation needs a vehicle to help reinforce and appreciate the commonalities that unite, rather than divide, the American people.

To do this, we modified the business model created by CVS. In their "CarePass" program, without a trial period, membership is $4 per month (if paid annually). In addition to other benefits, their members receive a $10 CarePass reward that can be used to pay for many items in store or online. Pay $4 each month and get back $10 each month. A financially sound, risk-free reason to participate! To improve on their model, we offer a trial period, and a much larger base of businesses from which to get discounts.

Our program has two main components. The first is a free, lifetime membership for students, schools and nonprofits in our Heritage Honor Roll (HHR) that hosts stories created by its members, and includes a free, 3-month trial subscription to our Social Legacy Network (SLN), which enables members to gain discounts from our business and professional service provider partners. The second is Legacy Partner (LP) landing pages for entities to share information about themselves—in multiple languages if desired, and to host stories created by our members if they choose to do so. Extensive research that confirms that life stories (oral for children until they can write) are central to people's sense of self and the social world they inhabit. It also asserts that intergenerational knowledge of one's family history is associated with positive mental health, wholeness, and a sense of belonging. When people belong, they feel emotionally connected and welcomed.

On January 26, 1863, Secretary of War Edwin M. Stanton helped to create volunteer companies of all ages and ranks of infantry for the volunteer units to be organized in the summer of 1862. Captain Shaw, a commissioned officer in the Boston on October 10, 1837, and admitted to Harvard in the third year to join the army. He entered the 7th as second lieutenant in the 2nd Massachusetts and his appointment to command the 64th Massachusetts Infantry.

The other persons nominated to command the regiment were carefully selected by Governor Andrew; four of them had been previously commissioned. Several were Harvard men, and others were descendants of soldiers of the War of 1812. The motives of these white soldiers in joining this experiment were significant since the country men in the Army, because they would not make good soldiers. It required courage for those who were men to act.

One of Shaw's first military actions was participating in the raid on Darien, Georgia. The senior officer in the regiment was killed during the raid.

After the free trial expires, SLN members can continue to receive discounts on goods and services for a $4/month subscription fee. Our local businesses and professional service providers, who, after their 3-month free trial, pay a membership fee of $98 per year in two installments to join. They can update their landing pages daily at no cost, a feature that is not available with other outreach programs. Importantly, 77 percent of our gross revenue goes to participating schools chosen by the business or from Social Legacy Network after their 3-month free trials. In addition, 3 percent of our gross revenue is gifted to the county.

To register, individuals go to our homepage and "Create New User Account." This sets up a free personalized "Welcome Back" page that contains links to all program functions and benefits. We only request a name, email address and Zip Code. If privacy is an issue, insert initials, rather than your full names, in the "Name" fields. That name will be printed on your membership card. Internally, we identify our members only by their email address. The Zip Code will enable us to know how many anonymous members are registered in each geographic area. Importantly, we do not collect, share or publish contact information or store credit card information.

Because multiple email addresses could be needed, individuals can register with free services, such as "@proton.me" (which our program also uses). They can create multiple accounts--name@proton.me or name1@proton.me-- to register since the email is only going to be used to register for Americans All.

For schools, the first step is to appoint a point of contact (poc) to register the school as a free, lifetime nonprofit member so it can create its free landing page. This page contains has a brief description of the school and gives the school a 6-digit ID Number so it can receive funds. The poc can also create and publish the school's own story for the HHR (see next page).

Second, the poc should notify school staff and parents/guardians about the program so they can register as individuals for a free and create their own stories and get their free 3-month trial in our SLN.

Third, encourage teachers to set up their own free non-profit landing pages so they can create a "virtual yearbook" for their class or other groups in which the students participate. Since students are older, they can set up (through their staff supervisor or with parental permission) their own "virtual yearbooks" for each club or team in which they participate. This will enable students and teachers to get a permanent, visual, easy to access memory of their time in school.

Fourth, let the PTA, Booster Clubs or other groups that help fundraise, know how this program can become an important element of their fundraising program.

For example, registering 100 individuals + 100 businesses = $1,053 annual benefit to the school. Since many members of the PTA (as well as other school families) own or participate in local businesses and as professional service providers, they can all benefit from the program.

Because this is a pilot, we will gladly help schools create the materials they need.

Teachers can create free landing pages to make annual "virtual yearbooks" for their classrooms. Student advisors can do the same for all clubs and teams in which their students participate.

Benefits of Storytelling to Students

Our unique storytelling tool offers many benefits for students participating in non-curriculum school activities. It can also make a positive difference in their personal lives.

- All stories begin at birth, and legacies are built each time a personal, academic or professional milestone is achieved. Every student has important experiences and lessons learned to share with family, friends and future generations. Creating and publishing a story about themselves (or their families) helps students develop skills in critical thinking, communicating, researching, and, especially, writing—skills needed to help ensure their success in postsecondary education and/or the workforce. For student-athletes, this is an ideal opportunity to showcase their talents to post-secondary institutions.
- Americans All enables each school club or team to set up its own free Legacy Partner landing page to host stories created by its members on our Heritage Honor Roll. Each of these landing pages can become a virtual annual yearbook. Students can post their current story on as many landing pages as they desire. If the members of the clubs and teams update their stories after graduation, their peers are kept current on their classmate's activities. For additional exposure, students can also post their stories on any Americans All legacy partner landing page.
- Our program also provides students with an opportunity to demonstrate that they understand and appreciate the value of community service and volunteerism. By helping others less skilled in the art of writing and the use of today's technology to incorporate images and recordings into their legacy stories, a student can earn service-learning credits. Moreover, storytelling can also be a wonderful intergenerational bonding experience, building compassion, empathy and understanding.
- Even though Americans All is no longer active in curriculum areas, our resources remain online to provide background for many of our Heritage Honor Roll stories. We will continue to host resources (now called issues/topics) that are academically well-researched and written, especially those that feature individuals or groups that make up local histories. A student can use their second Heritage Honor Roll story in English or set up an additional, free email membership account, such as "@protonme" and select a "Group" story instead of an "Individual" story. Students will find it easy to start creating their stories. Our story template only requires individuals to fill in a name, date of birth and a summary not to exceed 60 words. Additional story text, hyperlinks, photographs and audio-visual media can be added over time. The story does not have to be completed in one session and can be updated at any time. All previous versions of the story are archived. Moreover, stories can be published in multiple languages. Only the student can edit the story, and half of the story can be privacy-protected with a second password.

As part of their lifetime membership in Americans All, we offer our members a free, three month subscription to our optional Social Legacy Network to receive additional benefits. After the trial period expires (students keep their free trial until their class graduates), the cost is $4 per month to continue receiving these benefits, which includes discounts on goods and services offered by our program partners, such as restaurants and other businesses that cater to their needs. We believe the financial benefits that a member can receive from our business partners will more than cover their monthly subscription fee.

Because this is a pilot, we will gladly help schools create the materials they need.

Contact with the Howard County Partnership Office

Hi Allan,

I heard back from our Curriculum Office and learned that they are not interested in partnering because we already have a program in place that meets similar objectives. The existing program is called Story Strong. When we find that a potential opportunity is not possible, we try to offer other ideas that may be helpful, which is why I listed some plan B thoughts.

PTAs - If you are looking for contact information for high school PTAs, please see this link for the listing of all high school websites - Schools – HCPSS. Once you click on a school's website, scroll down to the bottom of the homepage to see a link to PTA information. For PTAs, they are separate organizations that have their own procedures. They do not typically need to contact our office; however, if they mention the need to reach out to us, you can refer them to me.

Clubs - Certain school clubs may be interested in your program. To get information about the various clubs at each high school, please see this link for the listing of all high school websites (this is the same link as the one listed above) –Schools – HCPSS. Once you click on a school's website, look under Student Life, Activities & Clubs for the listing of clubs. Each club should have a point of contact listed on the school websites. They are typically teachers who are serving as advisors. Those are the contacts you should be reaching out to.

If you find a potential match with a particular extracurricular club or PTA, please reach out to the point of contact directly.

Community News & Programs Page - Nonprofit organizations can distribute information through the school system by requesting that it be posted on the HCPSS Community News & Programs page. If you would like to share information about your programs with the public, please submit a post by clicking on the Add your Program link at the top of the page. For questions about this page, please contact publicinfo@hcpss.org.

HC Historical Society - I encourage you to continue working with the Howard County Historical Society.

Hi Allan,

Thanks for sending over this information and for thinking of us to participate in the Americans All program. It certainly looks like an incredible opportunity for the county.

Can you share with us what level of involvement you envision from HCEDA regarding a potential partnership? I'm cc'ing my colleagues, Chuck Bubeck (Exec Director of Maryland Innovation Center, our startup incubator as part of HCEDA) and Doug Holly (Entrepreneur in Residence for the MIC). I believe we are the best contacts for this but will be happy to connect you with others on our team as we determine more details around the potential partnership with HCEDA.

I'm also wondering if this partnership should take place between AA and Howard County Public Schools (HCPSS). Have you been in touch with anyone there? Happy to connect you.

To: Allan Kullen <allantapco02@gmail.com>

Hi Allan,

Thank you for updating me on your progress with Americans All. As I mentioned in our call, I believe this is an ideal program for the entire county to implement. Our Historical Society provides access to materials that aid in historical exploration, research and discovery for all ages and cultural groups. Continuing to add stories about those who have been instrumental in our county's growth is clearly part of our goal and this initiative would give us another vehicle to engage with students to do so.

I am pleased that your foundation recognizes that life stories are central to one's sense of self, of the social world they inhabit, and that knowledge of one's family history is associated with positive mental health, wholeness, well-being and a sense of belonging. As educators, we all share in that mission, especially in these times where our nation has become divided in so many ways. That environment can be especially troubling to our youth as they recover from the disruption and isolation created by Covid-19. Participating in activities that involve storytelling can help them feel more emotionally connected and welcomed.

By offering another way for our businesses to connect with our schools adds another dimension to the value that Americans All brings to our county. Our schools need access to unrestricted funds and this provides an ongoing way to achieve that goal.

Designing a program that will be owned by the county is a great concept. Let's plan on sitting down soon to discuss the specifics on how we can maximize its value to Howard County and the Howard County Historical Society.

Best wishes and let's talk soon,
Mark

Founded in 1958, the Howard County Historical Society is the primary public repository of historical records and artifacts related to Howard County's rich history. The Howard County Historical Society provides access to materials that aid in historical exploration, research, and discovery for all ages and cultural groups.

Throughout the year, the Howard County Historical Society presents a wide variety of engaging public programs, concerts, lectures, and other activities. The Society also welcomes school groups, scouts, homeschoolers, adult groups, and the public to participate through field trips and outreach programs.

The Museum of Howard County (HCHS) Court House is housed in the former First Presbyterian Church, which was generally donated to the Society in 1959 by Mrs. Alta Rogers Clark in memory of her late husband, Judge James Clark, Jr. The Clark Family was instrumental in founding the Historical Society. Donations of Clark have been on the board since the organization's founding, including Senator James Clark, Jr. and currently Martha Clark, Senior of Clary's Elbow Farm.

Located next to the Court House in Ellicott City, an original church was a modest building constructed in 1837 that collapsed during renovations in 1934. Rebuilt later that same year, the current Gothic-style structure with its soaring 100-foot tall tower, stately steeple roof and stained and leaded glass windows was designed by George Keiser and constructed by Frederick A. Heiser. Along with an extensive collection of outstanding artifacts, textiles, furniture and memorabilia, the Museum is home to a refurbished 1855 organ built by the A.B. Fagermacher Organ Company of Erie, PA.

The Howard County Historical Society Archives and Research Library were originally kept in the Museum and then moved to the Elliott's Mill Quaker School, now known as the West Building, in 1998. In the fall of 2011, the Society moved its treasure trove of historical maps, deeds and property records, marriage licenses, voter records, slave manumission records and other histories as well as over 4,000 historical photographs, local 4th documents, business receipts, and many rare and invaluable private documents to the Charles E. Miller Branch Library and Historical Center on Peppers Road in Ellicott City.

Reading our past, weaving into the future.

Howard County's rich military history, our Maryland heritage, and the Society's mission of community outreach are the essential elements in the Official Howard County Historical Society Flag.

Formally adopted by the Board of Directors on July 9, 2002, our flag was inspired by the headquarters banner of General Bradley T. Johnson, a unique burgee (oval-shaped flag) with a white field and red border in the center is a large cross bottony in red – an original symbol of Maryland and one that appears the date field. It's the same symbol as used in the Howard County flag.

Surrounding the cross is an elliptical circle of 12 stars with a thirteen star in the center, replicating the star pattern of the Third Maryland Regiment's colors. One of the Continental Army's most reliable units, the Third Maryland played a major role in the victory by American forces at the Battle of Cowpens, South Carolina in 1781. It was commanded by Captain John Sager Howard, for whom the County is named.

The white stars on the regional cross are gold with black interiors – representing our state colors, white, red, black, and gold. The stars are arranged so that a point on the star reaches out in all directions – symbolizing the Society's desire to reach out to future generations.

Over the cross bottony in the shape of the Howard County Historical Society Museum, where the flag is from. We invite you to view the flag which was designed by the Society's Richard T. Clark, by visiting the Howard County Historical Society Museum.

Fagermacher Organ Company of Erie, PA.

The Howard County Historical Society Archives and Research Library were originally kept in the Museum and then moved to the Elliott's Mill Quaker School, now known as the West Building, in 1998. In the fall of 2011, the Society moved its treasure trove of historical maps, deeds and property records, marriage licenses, voter records, slave manumission records and other histories as well as over 4,000 historical photographs, local 4th documents, business receipts, and many rare and invaluable private documents to the Charles E. Miller Branch Library and Historical Center on Peppers Road in Ellicott City.

Founded in 1958, the Howard County Historical Society is the primary public repository of historical records and artifacts related to Howard County's rich history. The Howard County Historical Society provides access to materials that aid in historical exploration, research, and discovery for all ages and cultural groups.

Throughout the year, the Howard County Historical Society presents a wide variety of engaging public programs, concerts, lectures, and other activities. The Society also welcomes school groups, scouts, homeschoolers, adult groups, and the public to participate through field trips and outreach programs.

The Museum of Howard County (HCHS) Court House is housed in the former First Presbyterian Church, which was generally donated to the Society in 1959 by Mrs. Alta Rogers Clark in memory of her late husband, Judge James Clark, Jr. The Clark Family was instrumental in founding the Historical Society.

Located next to the Court House in Ellicott City, the original church was a modest building constructed in 1837 that collapsed during renovations in 1934. Rebuilt later that same year, the current Gothic-style structure with its soaring 100-foot tall tower, stately steeple roof and stained and leaded glass windows was designed by George Keiser and constructed by Frederick A. Heiser. Along with an extensive collection of outstanding artifacts, textiles, furniture and memorabilia, the Museum is home to a refurbished 1855 organ built by the A.B. Fagermacher Organ Company of Erie, PA.

The Howard County Historical Society Archives and Research Library were originally kept in the Museum and then moved to the Elliott's Mill Quaker School, now known as the West Building, in 1998. Who We Are Beginning in 1989, Americans All (AA) was one of the nation's first education nonprofits to provide K-12 schools with multiple-perspective, diversity-based, supplemental social studies classroom resources as well as activities for English Language Arts programs. After nine pilot programs, our resources were distributed nationwide to more than 2,000 schools and libraries. However, as our nation became more politically polarized, we needed to offer a program that would be accepted by as many schools and students as possible.

Although many of our resources are still useful in academic areas, especially our Ellis Island Simulation Workshop and our Photograph Collection, we repurposed two of the major components of Americans All—our Heritage Honor Roll and Legacy Partner landing pages, and used our storytelling tool to create a unique community activities, and greater audience.

This will allow us to share our political data and storytelling to commonality citizen, while understanding

Lifetime membership offers the opportunity to share your legacy stories. A one-year trial membership is available through Corporation, and gain future program benefits by subscribing to the optional SLN for only $4 per month. Members will not be automatically billed and can cancel their subscription at any time and no credit card is required to be put on file for the free trial.

What Volunteers Do

To accomplish this, we are in the pilot phase of implementing the AA program in three Maryland counties and in DC. (We will add PTSAs shortly.) Students participating in non-academic school activities can demonstrate their appreciation for the value of community service, create virtual yearbooks for their clubs and teams, and publish well-written and documented research. They are connected to local businesses through our unique storytelling tool which also produces a turnkey, revenue-generator for their schools and communities. Using lessons learned, we will expand the program to other Maryland counties and then to the nation. We provide students with an opportunity and a vehicle to use storytelling to:

- Learn how to use concise language and enhancing stories with photographs and other media. Students can record important events and memories as well as share their pride in their ethnic and cultural identity.
- Publish a legacy story on our Web-based Heritage Honor Roll to ensure the significance of a lifetime will not be forgotten and enables students to have a permanent and an accessible social media presence that truly describes who they are.
- Utilize storytelling as a wonderful intergenerational bonding experience that builds empathy, compassion and understanding.
- Help others less skilled in the art of writing and the use of technology to incorporate images and recordings into their legacy stories, a student can earn service-learning credits.
- Helping others create and enhance a story also demonstrates to prospective employers and postsecondary institutions a student's character and appreciation for how volunteerism benefits a community.
